Local and News Department.

Cotton Market. Up to 4 P. M., to-day there had been 74 bales of cotton brought to this city.

Supreme Court. R. L. Watson et al vs. W. M. Adlington et al. Merrimon for plaintiff, Jones for defendant.

Left for Texas. R. H. Kingsbury, an old and influential merchant of Oxford, Granville county, is now at the Yarburo in this city with his wife and children, en route for a home in Texas.

Fine Florida Oranges. Mr. R. G. Clark, of Philadelphia, is at the Yarburo, having just returned from a trip to Florida, and he has one of the largest oranges with him we ever saw.

Reconstructed.

Who says we are not reconstructing down this way. Mr. Edward Auler, a worthy and industrious young farmer from Tiago county (Pa.) and who bought and settled near Milton, in Caswell county, some three years since.

Railroad Fever.

The citizens of Leasburg, a little town in Caswell, 12 miles from a river and 24 miles each way from a railroad, woke up with a railroad fever the other day, and held a rousing meeting.

Enterprise in Concord.

Cotton is King in Cabarrus and Concord don't want for money. Every citizen has got his bank account, and there are no people more independent of "hard times" than Concord.

Graham—Fire—Death—&c.

We learn that last night about twelve o'clock, the kitchen of Capt. James M. Williamson at Graham caught on fire and was burnt to the ground, and everything in it. His nice new house also caught from the kitchen, and there was great excitement in putting it out.

Meeting of Board of Directors—Resignation of Treasurer.

The Board of Directors of the North Carolina Central Road met yesterday at Company Shops, and Col. G. M. Lea, Treasurer, and C. M. Crump, Secretary, tendered their resignations (on account of the duties imposed by the Richmond and Danville road) which were accepted.

Personal Intelligence.

Prince Albert of Prussia gets married in April. Senator Alcorn of Mississippi fathers twenty-one. Capt. Whit Williams of Edgecombe is recovering from paralysis.

Our City.

Coroner Magnin bought the Floral Hall on the old Fair grounds and paid $205 for it.

It was Dr. A. Brown's Bronchial Syrup, and not Dr. Brown's we had reference to yesterday. Just try it, if you have a cough. All we ask of you.

Give the barbers a chance to-morrow to go to Church. If any soul amongst you wants to worship his Creator, why not theirs too? Keep your heads out of their shops.

Mr. Frank Menninger got out an arrest warrant to-day against one Albert Moreing on the Hillsboro road who is charged with standing at open day and insulting passers by with the coarsest and most ill-mannered abuse.

Mr. Josiah Turner of the Sentinel and Mr. Waring of the House—subject, State Printing—left this city together on the train last night for the scene of intellectual combat in Charlotte.

Fists.

Don't call a man a "beast," who acts like this: While the bill giving pensions to soldiers of the war of 1812, who resided in the rebellious States during the late civil war, was being considered in the House this afternoon.

Twigs.

The Washington Republican says: Any one having information of Albert Bennett, colored, who left Anson county, N. C., in 1865, with Sherman's army, and who is supposed to be in this city, will confer a great favor by communicating with "F. D.," at this office.

ASSIGNEE NOTICE.

To whom it may concern: The undersigned hereby gives notice of his appointment as assignee to Oscar C. Harris, of Pittsboro, Chatham county, in the State of North Carolina, within said district, who has been adjudged a bankrupt upon his own petition by the District Court of said District.

Farm-Yard Scraps.

Wine making in Cumberland. The Fayetteville Eagle says: The Tokay company near here have made from last crop some 15,000 gallons of wine.

Personal Intelligence.

Prince Albert of Prussia gets married in April. Senator Alcorn of Mississippi fathers twenty-one. Capt. Whit Williams of Edgecombe is recovering from paralysis.

Our State.

THE ground in Fayetteville Thursday morning was covered with snow.

HAS changed his shirt. The editor of the Wilmington Post advertises for a washerwoman.

THIRTY-SEVEN colored people recently left Pea Ridge in Caswell county for Tennessee. Twenty one were men.

KILL that printer! Kill him, kill him. He's in the Milton Chronicle office, and he divides it, this way, di-

It is with "unfeigned admiration" the Asheville Expositor (first issue) calls attention to the "cards" of an advertiser. By the way, the Expositor is a handsomely printed paper.

Who says they can't take care of themselves? Listen to the Battleboro Advance. A colored man, named Jack Bellamy, has bought a plantation in Nash county for 200 bales of cotton, worth at the present prices, about $14,000.

FOUND dead with her head in the fire. The Winston Sentinel tells of Miss Anna Bynum, favorite with everybody, daughter of Ben. Bynum of Stokes, who was found dead with her head in fire. Supposed she fell dead while reading.

Nothing makes a Minnesota husband so mad as to fill his boots with buckwheat cakes raw, and then laugh at him when he pulls them on. Mrs. Smith, of Winona, will endorse this statement as soon as the swelling in her nose subsides sufficiently to enable her to read.

Mrs. Fred Bitler, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, was milking the cows; a queer feeling came over her. She sent for a doctor. When the physician arrived she was deaf and dumb, otherwise apparently well. She still continues in the same condition, but what a warning to those who will persist in milking cows, when the pump is handy, chalk so cheap.

Commit the following to memory, and you will have at your "tongues end" the names of the Monarchs of England from the time of the conquest down to the present date: First William the Norman, then William the Conqueror, then Henry, then Richard and John.

Musical and Theatrical.

Madame Parepa-Rosa is reported to be playing a most successful engagement in Egypt. An Illustrated Temperance Exhibition is trying to save Winston's soul by playing "Ten nights in a bar-room."

Charlotte Cushman wants to engage the Wilmington Opera House for the 21st and 22d of February, but there is such a run upon the boards that she can't get the use of it for those dates.

The Washington Star says: The musical sensation of this season will be the appearance of "The Original Colored American Opera Company" in "The Doctor of Alcantara," at Lincoln Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings next. There are forty voices, and the leading singers are cultivated vocalists. There is, of course, great curiosity to see and hear the first attempt of a colored company in opera.

Prince Albert of Prussia gets married in April. Senator Alcorn of Mississippi fathers twenty-one. Capt. Whit Williams of Edgecombe is recovering from paralysis.

The Road all Right.

Nothing is the matter now on the North Carolina Central road. The bridge never gave way, it is a new bridge, and one of the strongest in the State. The cars did injure the buttment, but it is all repaired and everything as strong as ever.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

The Stokes Case. NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The counsel in Stokes' case, in the event of a failure to obtain an order for a new trial from Judge Bonassius, will apply for a stay of proceedings, and thereby secure a review of the case by a full Bench of the Supreme Court, and on failure there, will go to the Court of Appeals.

Who says they can't take care of themselves? Listen to the Battleboro Advance. A colored man, named Jack Bellamy, has bought a plantation in Nash county for 200 bales of cotton, worth at the present prices, about $14,000.
