Bible Meeting at the Capitol.

We have been requested to state, that a meeting in the interests of the Bible cause in North Carolina, will be held at the Capitol, in the Representatives' Hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, 1873, at 7 o'clock.

Addresses will be delivered by the State Agent, several Clergymen of the city and by distinguished members of the Legislature and other gentlemen.

The Midland Railroad.

A bill chartering this road from Beaufort Harbor to the Tennessee line passed the Senate to-day by a vote of 30 to 3. It is to be called the Midland North Carolina Railroad and the charter allows the company to build, buy or lease any road in the State and to tap the Tennessee line at any point and through whatever sections of this State the company

Haw River-The Holt Factory. The Granite Cotton Factory at Haw River is now running sixty looms and works over one hundred hands. Several outhouses have just been completed for up. This factory turns out from three of plaids and sheeting. The plaids are fast taking the place of prints for ladies wear, and they also manufacture cottonades for summer wear for gentlemen.

Baptist Educational Convention.

This meeting is exciting much interest among our public men. Gov. Graham, Judge Kerr, Hon. C. C. Clarke and not a few of our leading citizens, regardless of church relations, are expected to attend and take part in the deliberations of the Convention.
