THE DAILY ERA. MONDAY, FEB. 10th, 1873.

Local and News Department.

Religious Notice. Elder Q. A. Ward, Primitive Baptist, will preach in the Hall of the House of Representatives to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock.

Gin A-Fire. Another match run through the cotton and set the gin of Mr. Mangum on fire at Durham last Saturday. Some cotton damaged. The fire was put out.

N. C. Minerals for the Lee University. Gen. Orestis Lee, president of the Lee University in Virginia, has written to Prof. Kerr of this city, and Major York of Chatham county, requesting a collection of North Carolina minerals to be forwarded to that University. We saw a piece of marble from Stokes county to be sent on there to-day.

A Gold Mine in Montgomery. Senator Worth and a Mr. Streeter are working a gold mine together in Montgomery county. In this mine sometime last year we are told that they found a nugget of gold that weighed in its natural state one hundred and eighty-four pennyweight, equal to about four hundred dollars. And then they mined besides about one hundred pennyweight, the same day.

A Newbern Br. in Europe. Miss Lizzie, the beautiful young daughter of Judge Manly, who was recently married in Newbern to the wealthy Mr. Whiddy of Baltimore, is now in Europe with her husband and accompanied by Miss Maria Manly, her accomplished sister. The tourists we learn will remain over the waters until Fall. A cable telegram was received the other day by Judge Manly, reading: "Manly: All well. Whiddy."

Big R. R. Men at Durham. We are informed that Messrs. Walters, Newcomer and Bridgers came from Charlotte this morning by special car to Durham, looking after the Chapel Hill Railroad, which is contemplated to tap either at that point or a few miles above at University Station. These gentlemen will spend all the morning about Durham, and are expected in this city this evening. Probably they will visit the Hoke iron mine at Chapel Hill.

Hit with a Hatchet. Calvin Jonnakin (white) chopped Peter Fuller (colored) on the head with a hatchet, and as subdued by steel the tall ash tumbles down, so fell Peter, measuring 6 feet 7 inches high. Had the boys and the marbles been present a game could have instantly been played on Calvin's coat tail, nor is it certain he has yet stopped rinning. Peter is once more erect on his pins, though his head is a clotheshorse for a bundle of bandage linen.

Dr. Pritchard's Thanksgiving Sermon. Copies of this Sermon can be obtained of Messrs. Edwards and Broughton, and at the Bookstore of Mr. Alfred Williams, in this city. This Sermon is the result of much study and research, and is one of the best modern compendiums of the great principles of religious liberty. It should be extensively read and circulated, and should be in the library of every lover of civil and religious liberty. Price, ten cents per copy, at six cents per copy by the hundred.

Educational Convention. Bear in mind, all ye friends of Education, that the Educational State Convention will assemble in the Baptist Church, in this city, to-morrow evening. This convention, though called in the interests of Wake Forest College, is in no offensive sense whatever, a denominational body. It is open to all the friends of education of every Church and party. We hope to see a full attendance of the friends of education: Let us all regard this movement, as it really is, as a first and most important step in the great work of education in the State.

Ashboro—Eggs and Gold &c., Another place needs a railroad. Ashboro, Randolph county, is full of country wagons, loaded with produce of all kind; corn 85 cents, flour $7.50 per barrel, butter 20 cents, and in about three weeks, you can buy eggs by the barrel full, for ten cents a dozen. And this place is 20 miles from the railroad with a hack running twice a week. You can pan gold from the surface in the northwest corner of the court house yard. Mr. Hill, the present doorkeeper in the House, worked in gold mining in the branches and creeks around Ashboro for 18 years. He and his son used to collect from the branches four dollars a day in gold. Sam Walker, a prominent merchant of Ashboro, has sold out his store and moved to take charge as President of the Cedars Fall and Franklinsville Cotton Factory in that county.

Our State. NEW business buildings to be erected in Newbern. THE bridge over Catawba river on the Western Railroad is said to be unsafe. TEN dollars and a lot of goods lost by burglary in Askew's store at Trenton. NEUSE river last Saturday booming. Higher than has been known for many years. THE streets of Asheboro crowded with wagons Saturday, and cotton sold for 18 cents. ICE broken up on the Chesapeake bay, and you can now take the Bay Line from Weldon. DR. Hall's new brick building going up on the burnt square in Salisbury, is nearly finished. THE young men around Reidsville occasionally break a leg, wrestling. Dr. Seales set the last one, last Tuesday. ROBINSON vs. HOWELL. Howell stabbed in breast; is of Statesville, and an attache of Internal Revenue Department. Serious, if not fatal. A NICE trick he played the Fayetteville merchant. "I owe you a hundred dollars." Merchant couldn't find it charged, clerks knew nothing about it, stranger insisted, merchant scolded clerks for being so careless, stranger paid the money and after awhile brought another bill, $700 worth, on credit, he back directly; "of course," said merchant and smiled and rubbed his hands, and now he is hearing around the counter, snapping up the clerks, and telling everybody about it, like they cared a cent.

Personal Intelligence. L. Smith of Scotland Neck is now Express Agent in Tarboro. T. C. Burgess of Enfield has left for New Orleans to go into business. Lawyer Hubbard of Newbern rendered lame by sticking a nail in his foot. M. Louis Juillard is the Fencing Master at Magnin's gymnasium in this city. Joseph A. Clarke, Chief Clerk to Dr. J. J. Mott at Statesville is in the city on a visit to his friends in the East. Dr. R. C. Tillery of Rocky Mount has taken his wife to Indianapolis (Ind.) to be placed under medical treatment. Capt. James R. Thigpen of Edgecombe recently sold three acres of his Penny Hill farm for $1000. The esteemed lady of Hon. Nat' Boyden is in very poor health. Judge Boyden returned to the city this morning. The estimable lady of Treasurer D. A. Jenkins of this city is at her home in Gaston county at the point of death. Treasurer Jenkins left the city last Wednesday night. We regret to state that Governor Caldwell has been confined to his lodgings for several days past, by sickness. His sickness, however, is not serious, and it is expected he will be on his feet in the course of a day or two.

Twigs. —Thomas Dorsey, well known merchant in Baltimore, fell into the water at the foot of Frederick street, and was drowned. —Host (really in agony about his polished inlaid floor)—"Hadn't you better come on the carpet, old fellow? I'm so afraid you might slip, you know." —Guest (with wooden leg)—"O it's all right, old fellow. Thanks! There's a nail at the end, you know!" —Punch. —The white of an egg is said to be a specific for fish bones sticking in the throat. It is to be swallowed raw, and will carry down a bone easily and certainly. There is another fact touching eggs, which should be remembered. When, as sometimes by accident, corrosive sublimate is swallowed, the white of two eggs taken will neutralize the poison, and change the effect to that of a dose of calomel. —Death of a big butcher. Charles Trash, better known in New York city as "Big Charlie," is dead. In height he was 6 feet 4 inches, weighed over 300 pounds, and could lift a 300 pound ox with ease. The butchers all say that Big Charlie died of too much Coney Island. It was his habit almost every afternoon in the summer to go down to that celebrated bathing place and lie and tumble about in the water for hours together like a big porpoise.

Fists. Internal revenue stamps will not be abolished for the present. Some nice little facts about sewing machines. The New York Bulletin tells us the fact is clear that for a series of years the public has paid from $50 to $80 apiece for machines which never cost more than from $5 or $8 each, and which could be sold for from $15 to $20 each, and leave a handsome profit, and hence, we are told, it is time to throw the business open to fair competition and give the public the benefit of it. The Herald's special Cuban correspondent, O'Kelly, sent a request to Gen. Morales to pass the Spanish lines. Morales replied he could go where he liked but if caught within the Cuban or Spanish lines afterward, he would be treated as a spy and shot accordingly. The Herald replies to this. "If the Herald Commissioner receives any injury at your hands without violating the laws of your country, you will be held to a strict accountability, and will be made to suffer the penalty of the outrage, not in the island of Cuba alone, but in every inch of soil that owes allegiance to the Spanish flag."

Trained snakes Mr. Frank Stockton, in his "Roundabout Rambles," tells us that boys and girls in France sometimes amuse themselves by getting up a snake-team. They tie strings to the tails of two common harmless snakes, and then they drive them about, using a whip (I honestly try to make these strange steeds keep together and go along lively. It is said that snakes which have been played with in this way soon begin to like their new life, and will allow the children to do what they please with them, showing all the time the most amiable disposition. There is nothing very strange in a trained snake.

A Cincinnati dry goods clerk proves to the editor of the Commercial that if he does part his hair in the middle, he's as full of poetical moonbeams as a nightingale of song. Says he: She stood beside the counter The day I'll never forget She thought the Muslim Dearer Than she'd seen yet I watch her playful fingers The Silk & Satin toss The clerk looked quite uneasy and nodded at the Boss. Show me some velvet ribbon Berage & Satin dark She said I want to purchase Then gave the goods a jerk The clerk was all obedience He travelled on his shape at length with Hesitation She bought a yard of Tape.

Musical and Theatrical. A Bavarian military brass band is come to make a concert-tour to America. The most musical couple in America were married recently in Boston—Miss Bird to Mr. Nightingale. Da Costa's Art Gallery at Tucker Hall to-night. Oliver Wendell Holmes speaks highly of this entertainment and several distinguished judges of the beautiful are down on the paper recommending it. We ask Da Costa a good house. Supreme Court. PENNSYLVANIA county: One case argued in the Supreme Court for this county to-day, to-wit: Matthew H Love vs L H Moody; W H Bailey and Battle and Son for plaintiff, and D Coleman for defendant. JACKSON county: One case argued from this county: State vs Balis Henderson; Attorney General and Ovide Dupre for the State, no counsel for defendant. HAYWOOD county: Two cases argued and one continued from this county: R N Hix vs D D Davies; Dupre and Ash for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant. M H Love, Guardian, vs A L Hersen; D Coleman for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant, and S P Shelton vs D D Davies, continued for want of counsel.

Our City. Glad to hear your cough is better. Try another bottle of Young's Bronchial Syrup. Spurts says, he knows there are several members of the Ku Klux in the House. He sees the Invisible Imperials on their faces. Ye local makes his compliments to his readers with a sick headache. A friend suggests that the headache herein referred to applies to our readers, but not so. It is the local whose head is level, but with an "ache." Temperance lecturers launch their thunders at our citadel in vain. We never have a headache which is not honestly earned by hard thought and much trouble. "Spirits avaut!"

Religious Notes. Mr Harris, Methodist preacher stationed in Hillsboro, said yesterday in his sermon, that a little boy who he preached last year encouraged him more than all his congregation. That the mother told him: "Jimmie never says the Lord's prayer at night, without closing this way: "Lord bless father and mother and Mr. Harris." Elder Closs of the Methodist Conference was once the preacher for the Frying Pan section of Tyrrell county, and one night he prayed: "Good Lord, wilt thou be pleased to send this people, another year, a minister they like better than this one." "Amen," Amen," resounded from the amen corners. The elder made a long pause and continued: "And, Good Lord, wilt thou be pleased to send this minister, another year, to a people he likes better than this one."—He had 'em then.

BY TELEGRAPH. FOUR O'CLOCK. FROM NEW YORK. NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Fully twenty thousand persons honored the remains of Dr. Starrs, yesterday, with a last look. Last night was the coldest of the season. The German journeymen at a meeting last night took preliminary steps for an eight hour strike. The movement embraces nearly all branches of workman. The appropriation of four millions for Post office building is exhausted and work stopped. Col. Anguero stated at his reception yesterday that he had a ship and arms ready for Cuba.
