Washington, D. C. Washington, Feb. 11.—In high fashion circles the opinion is strong that there is no possibility of the recognition of the Kellogg government. They state that members of the committee of privileges and elections are outspoken in denouncing the Kellogg government as usurping—they even use more energetic phrases. The fusionists seem to believe that McMillan will be recognized and McMillan will be seated. There is no prospect of action in the Senate today, upon the report of the committee submitted yesterday. To-morrow, when both Houses meet in joint convention, objection will be made when the vote is called up, when the House will retire. It will require consent of both Houses to count her vote. This is not probable, as its rejection will not affect the Presidential result or have any bearing upon weightier questions to come. There is now no doubt of the President's intention to start in about six weeks upon an extensive Southern tour.

THE DAILY ERA.

TUESDAY, FEB. 11th, 1873.

Local and News Department.

Cotton Market.

Up to 4 P. M., to-day there had been 50 bales of cotton brought to this city. Low middling, 15. Price in New York 21 1/2. Gold at 133.

N. C. Legislature.

For proceeding in full, see fourth page.

Just Read this.

It reads mighty well, don't it? Well, just a word or so with you; you owe a little something. The account will be on in a few days, and if you don't send the money in a week's time, the Era will stop coming to see you. Bound to do this.

Executive Agriculture Committee.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee and advisory members of the State Agricultural Society at the office, 3d floor, of the Fisher building in this city, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. It is desired that there be a full attendance.

Remarkable Elk Horns—A Present to Judge Cloud.

The elk horns presented to Judge Cloud while in Halifax, by Billy Williams, of Halifax, who killed the buck weighing over 300 pounds, and presented the Judge with the horns, are on exhibition and can be seen by the lovers of the curious at the Secretary of State's office in this city. It is a singular horn being bent down in front. The deer was a notable one in Halifax county from this fact, and was known of by all old hunters as the "buck that ran with his head to the earth."

The combined Catalogues of Seeds and Plants for 1873, of PETER HENDERSON & Co., 35 CORTLAND ST., NEW YORK, is just received—numbers 175 pages; is beautifully illustrated, and in addition, contains a colored plate of the new "Fountain Plant," and also a handsome lithograph of a group of new Fuchias. These catalogues are mailed to all applicants by Peter Henderson & Co. on receipt of 25 cents. To their customers of last year they are sent without charge; and to all purchasers of their books, "Gardening for Profit" and "Practical Floriculture" (price $1.50 each, prepaid by Mail), they also send them annually, free of charge. Yours truly, PETER HENDERSON & Co.

Supreme Court.

There has been no opinion given as yet of any public importance in this Court. To-day the following cases from the following counties were argued: CHEROKEE: For this county the case of Ann Williams vs Silas M. Greene; Dupre and Pace for plaintiff, Jones & Jones, I. L. Gudger and W. M. Shipp for defendant. W. H. Pace is said to have made a good argument in this case.—The two other cases were in the 6th District, as follows: WAKE county, Jane C. Hinton vs David Hinton, executor, &c., Mason and Devereux and Smith & Strong for plaintiff, and Moore & Gatling for defendant.—JOHNSTON county, Reuben Perry vs Sylvester Peary; A. M. Lewis for plaintiff, Smith & Strong and L. W. Barringer for defendant. This young man Barringer is one of the most promising young lawyers in this State. We don't know the youth, personally, but he shows study and hard application in his face, and we have already heard him on the lips of prominent members of the Bar outside this city. He will be at the top round of his profession one of these days, if he lives.

Farm-Yard Scraps.

20 per cent of the sheep in Craven destroyed by dogs. To prevent the rust, when the hoes and spades and plows are laid aside, thin some whitening to the consistency of paint with Kerosene oil and apply it with cloth. To cure dry catarrh take warm cow's milk, milked directly into the palm of the hand, and sniff it up the nose three mornings running, and then omit three mornings. Do this until you have sniffed up the warm milk for nine mornings in all, and a cure will be effected.

A Letter from the Quarantined Small Pox Doctor in Franklin.

Dr. Crenshaw who is quarantined at Harris Township in Franklin county, and can't get back to his family in Louisiana, because he has been down there among the dying and suffering mortality, trying to do something to help them, and the Louisiana folks are afraid of "catching it" from him, sends this letter to Representative Williamson of that county to be given to us for publication. He writes: The first week in December Mr. John Donohy from Tennessee reached Harris Township in Franklin county and died of small pox, and in a very few days it was discovered he had the small pox combined with dysentery of which he died. It was very contagious and it spread to Wilson Bolton's, Andrew Jackson's and Dorson Jean's. I have been residing for the last 7 weeks with these distressed families, quarantined from Louisiana. I have treated 28 cases of small pox and am sorry to say that in consequence of the unprecedented spell of cold and bitter weather, the unfavorable surroundings of many of my patients, and the virulence of the disease, ten of the cases died, viz: 1 at Bolton's; 4 at Rogers'; 1 at Jackson's; and 4 at Jean's. The cases at Jean's were perfectly overwhelming partaking of convalescence, and the cases at Rogers' who died were confluent and typhoid. Having had large experience in treating small pox I pronounce this altogether the most virulent visitation of the disease I ever attended. I submit a list of the deaths: Reuben Rogers, his son, Absalom, and daughter, Arabella; Mrs. Dodson Jean, her son, Norfleet, and daughters, Josephine and Mary; John Jackson; and J. W. Dickerson. Thanks to a Kind Providence for vaccination, the disease was warded off and entirely or greatly mitigated in its severity. It has now entirely subsided in Harris Township, and I hope you will publish this. I assure you there is no danger whatever in your handling and reading this communication. Will the News, Sentinel, and Franklin Courier please copy. Truly, Wm. M. Crenshaw.

Tortured by Fire.

How often do we see a particular element, seemingly of God's wrath, chasing a particular family, until it drives them down to the very edge of the black waters of despair. Take fire, for instance. There is now a family in Caswell county in the last six weeks have been burnt out of house and home. We refer to Alex. Daniel and family, and he is as hard a working man as is in that county. He has lost his house and barns and all that was in them, in the last six weeks by fire, and as he had moved into a rented place and was just getting started again, here comes the fire fiend and burns one half of the body of his little daughter Laura, raw, from her knees to her neck; and as the mother sat that night by the bedside of her burnt child, with a three year old infant in her arms, a red coal, as if an evil missile hurled by a spiteful devil, popped on the neck of the little babe and burnt it in two places ere it could get off. But God does it all. It is for His all wise purpose. Don't doubt it, puny man; but say, It is the Lord, Let Him do what He will, Blessed be His name forever. And it will come all right after awhile.

Supreme Court.

There has been no opinion given as yet of any public importance in this Court. To-day the following cases from the following counties were argued: CHEROKEE: For this county the case of Ann Williams vs Silas M. Greene; Dupre and Pace for plaintiff, Jones & Jones, I. L. Gudger and W. M. Shipp for defendant. W. H. Pace is said to have made a good argument in this case.—The two other cases were in the 6th District, as follows: WAKE county, Jane C. Hinton vs David Hinton, executor, &c., Mason and Devereux and Smith & Strong for plaintiff, and Moore & Gatling for defendant.—JOHNSTON county, Reuben Perry vs Sylvester Peary; A. M. Lewis for plaintiff, Smith & Strong and L. W. Barringer for defendant. This young man Barringer is one of the most promising young lawyers in this State. We don't know the youth, personally, but he shows study and hard application in his face, and we have already heard him on the lips of prominent members of the Bar outside this city. He will be at the top round of his profession one of these days, if he lives.

Our State.

DWELLING house of Gen. Estes in Edgecombe burnt to the ground. Cause of fire unknown. STATESVILLE has a first class sensation. The ladies are right talky about it. You see Mr. John W. Marsh has been arrested for having married two wives. One of the dears lives in Iredell county and the other is doing her knitting in Arkansas. Mr. Legrand was "fixing" the lamp in Mrs. Stevenson's boarding house in Wilmington, but found it necessary to fling a bucket of water about, before he got through, and then the bureau got scorched and "a few small articles" were burned. "The cars on the Air Line Railroad will run from Charlotte to Greenville by the 15th of next month. The bridge over Saluda River on the West side of Greenville, has been completed, and construction trains now run to George's Creek, in Pickens County, and track-laying is going rapidly forward. Mrs. Thomas Calaway of Jefferson, Ashe county, sat milking one cow, when another cow that felt in a playful mood that morning, came up and tossed Mrs. Calaway up in the air like a juggler does balls, six or eight feet, for three times, letting her fall on the ground each time. The only damage is a very serious bruise on her right hip.

Twigs.

A man that don't know enny thing will tell it the first time he gets a chance. —KLUX PARADOXED. Ely Ross Stewart and Robert Hayes Mitchell, of South Carolina, have been pardoned by the President. —THE LEMON. Sprinkled with loaf sugar suck a lemon in the sick room. The best thing to allay feverishness. Also some people take it for a summer meal at night to give a good night's rest, and before breakfast, for a good appetite. —STOKES. Judge Boardman hasn't yet decided on the bill of exceptions for a new trial. Stokes says if he decide against him, there are 31 other Judges of the Supreme Court who can grant him a stay of proceedings. He seems very sanguine. —O MY WISCONSIN. Taking its cue probably from the farmers' convale recently held in Illinois, the Wisconsin Legislature has before it a proposition declaring it a misdemeanor for a State officer or member of the Legislature to accept a free railroad pass. —LA, THE BRUTE. A lady with a very unamusing voice insisted upon singing at a recent party. What does she call that? inquired a guest. The Tempest, I think, answered another. Don't be alarmed, said a sea-captain present. It's no tempest. It's only a squall, and will soon be over. —CERTAINLY. It was Daniel who said, "Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." He clearly referred to reporters in this remark, and this suggests the
