

All Letters relating to Subscriptions or Advertisements, must be addressed to WM. M. BROWN, Business Manager.

RALEIGH, AUGUST 17, 1871.

Local, State and General Items.

Vinnie Ream, the celebrated sculptress, is engaged upon a bust of Rev. C. F. Deems.

A turnpike is anticipated between Weldon and Ringwood.

A lamp exploded in the hands of Mrs. E. J. Warren while passing from one room of her house to another a few days since and set the house on fire.

K. K. DISGUISES.—It will be shown on the trial, where the Ku Klux disguises, brought to this city by Capt. Hester, were made, and who furnished them to Capt. H. Capt. H. can afford to remain quiet under the abuses of the Sentinel and its followers.

So far as I am individually concerned, I think that I can say in advance, that no caucus action can ever again influence me against my own convictions of what is right or what is expedient.—L. W. Martin, Conservative member of the Legislature.

The Friends of Temperance enjoyed a celebration in Fayetteville on the 9th inst. R. H. Whitaker and Theo. H. Hill, of this city, were present, and represented Raleigh.

Judge Bunting and Capt. W. W. White, of this county and city, left our city last Monday night for the seashore, to be gone a few days.

HUMAN BONES.—The Weldon News says: "The workmen engaged in the construction of the new Petersburg track, on the South side of the Roanoke, are daily turning over a large number of human bones, from five to fifteen feet below the ground—the last relics of the Indians that but a few years ago, as it were, were wont to roam at liberty through this section.

The hog law, for the present, has been suspended, if we may judge from the number of swine seen on our streets. This may be all right; though we differ in our notions from the city fathers in turning loose upon our city, as scavengers, these filthy brutes.

ATTEMPT TO BURN A DWELLING.—An alarm of fire was given in this place, says the Statesville American of the 14th, last Thursday morning, before day, which was on the premises of Mr. Isaac Wallace, and no doubt the work of an incendiary.

REV. DR. PRITCHARD.—"Tuscarora," the Oxford correspondent of the Roanoke News, says: "Rev. Dr. Pritchard occupied the Baptist pulpit Monday night. His sermon was graceful, discursive, encyclopedic, and replete with poetical quotations.

Another letter of August 10th, says: "Rev. Dr. Pritchard, on his return from the Association, preached for our people again last night. He spoke without notes, and delivered an interesting discourse. It was not so elaborate and ornate a performance as that of Monday night, but was more practical and incisive.

ADJUTANT GEN'L JOHN C. GORMAN.—His Excellency Gov. Caldwell, on Monday last, appointed Capt. John C. Gorman, of this city, Adjutant General for the State of North Carolina, vice Gen. Fisher, resigned.

No better appointment could have been made. Gen. Gorman is a noble specimen of humanity—a gallant soldier, as his conduct in the late war fully proves—active and energetic—courteous to a fault, and as prompt to resent an insult, and defend his own good name and the honor of his native State from the calumnies and insults of his enemies and traitors.

A LIVE HOME JOURNAL.—NOTABLE CHANGE.—Last October, Heart and Home passed into the hands of Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of 245 Broadway, New York, the well known publishers of the American Agriculturist—a journal long without a rival in sterling value and circulation.

Mr. Editor.—Please find below an estimated statement of the cost of the present Legislature, which sat five months at five dollars per day and twenty cents per mile, is responsible:

Discussion of the two bills, and time occupied in discussing and passing them in the two houses, say ten days, and printing, $10,000

Time lost by 150,000 voters from work and business attending discussions and on election day, 140,000

Total, $150,000

THEY NEED 'EM.—L. W. Martin told his Conservative brethren in caucus assembled, (last Legislature), that he could see defeat to their party, if they persisted in their line of policy.

We were in error, in our last Saturday's paper, in stating that Messrs. Bryan and Wicker, two of the Ku Klux prisoners brought to this City on Friday last by Deputy U. S. Marshals Hester and Keith, had been committed to jail to await examination.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A colored man by the name of Wright Moore, says the American, formerly slave to Mrs. Mary H. Moore, of this place, came to his death, last Wednesday afternoon, in a singular manner.

BOH! If you want to cry, childlike, over your inglorious defeat, blubber to your heart's content. All that old stuff about negro domination has played out—lost its force, and is exceedingly harmless.

BRIGNOLI, MRS. BRIGNOLI AND "THE TWINS."—We learn from the Washington Star that it is whispered in social circles at "the Hub" that Brignoli—who was privately married to Miss McCulloch, in Montreal, last July—has made an attempt to ignore his marriage or deny it, but he "reckoned without his host," or hostess rather, for Mrs. Brignoli proved equal to the situation, and so very plainly demonstrated to her other half the impossibility of a separation from her "and the twins," that after a few frantic efforts, he subsided, and learning a lesson from the past, will in the future keep in the usual tenor of his way.

THE WATER QUESTION.—There seems to be no interest manifested on the part of our citizens relative to an adequate supply of water, for our fire companies, in the event of a fire of any magnitude. Such negligence may be felt, or it may not—we hope not. But should a fire break out in a block of buildings, will the water we now have at command prove sufficient to extinguish it? We fear not.

BABIES.—CATAWBA AHEAD YET.—THIRD AT ONCE!—"Unohoo," says the Statesville American, our versatile correspondent, says: "On the 1st of August, 1871, Mrs. Sigman, wife of Logan Sigman, of Catawba county, astonished her 'liege lord,' by presenting to him at one drawing, three stout, healthy, perfect babies; one daughter and two sons; all, including the mother, doing 'as well as could be expected' on the 2d inst., when the writer actually saw and handled them, (he means the youngsters, of course). The boys weigh six pounds each; the girl five and three quarters, and they are all 'vigorous' little fellows. They don't think any good away.

Capitalists abroad are in search of business investment in our town and vicinity, says the Fayetteville Eagle. Some Northern manufacturers are to examine soon some of our factory sites and other resources with a view to purchase. Mr. P. A. Wiley, formerly a banker here but now in the Citizens' Bank in Raleigh was here a few days ago with proposition to loan money to and take stock in manufacturing enterprises.

Time lost by 150,000 voters from work and business attending discussions and on election day, 140,000

Total, $150,000

Now these two items can very reasonably be counted to the debit of this Legislature as a part of the cost which they have saddled upon the people to gratify their lust for office.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE. Fayetteville, Aug. 12, 1871.

Return of the Vote for Attorney General at the Election held on the 4th day of August, 1870.

Table with 4 columns: COUNTY, SAM. F. PHILLIPS, WM. M. SHIPP, NO CONVENTION, CONVENTION.

NOTE.—The vote of Caswell and Gates counties (unofficial) was as follows: Phillips, 251; Shipp, 356; 607, 1,381. This would make Shipp's majority in the State 4,995.

Notions of the Press. No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. These are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty.

Subscriptions.—1871. HARPER'S MAGAZINE, one year, $4 00. An Extra Copy of either the MAGAZINE, WEEKLY, or BAZAR will be supplied gratis for every club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Notions of the Press. The BAZAR is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can not but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubts, are day-making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation, N. Y.

Notions of the Press. The MODEL NEWSPAPER of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, HARPER'S WEEKLY has earned for itself a right to its title, "A Journal of Civilization."—New York Evening Post.

Notions of the Press. HARPER'S WEEKLY is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and exceptional.—N. Y. Sun.

Notions of the Press. HARPER'S WEEKLY, one year, $4 00. An extra copy either of the MAGAZINE, WEEKLY, or BAZAR will be supplied gratis for every club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, six copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Notions of the Press. The Annual Volumes of HARPER'S WEEKLY, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by express, free of expense for $7 00 each. A complete set, comprising fourteen volumes, sent on receipt of cash at the rate of $25 per vol., freight at expense of purchaser. Volume XIV, ready January 1st, 1871.

Notions of the Press. HARPER'S WEEKLY is 20 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post-office. Address HARPER & BROTHERS, N. Y.
