

There was in the City one Scold, infamous for his insolence and villany, who thought the perfection of Liberty was licentiousness of Speech.—PLUTARCH.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT: Ulysses S. Grant, Of ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: Henry Wilson, Of MASSACHUSETTS.

FOR ELECTORS FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: MARCUS ERWIN, of Buncombe. SAMUEL F. PHILLIPS, of Wake.

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS: 1. Edward Hanson, of Tyrrell. 2. William F. Lottin, of Lenoir. 3. Joseph C. Abbott, of New Hanover. 4. James H. Hodges, of Chatham. 5. Henry C. Walker, of Davidson. 6. William S. Johnson, of Lincoln. 7. James G. Hamann, of Rowan. 8. James M. Justice, of Rutherford.

Election—Tuesday, November 5th.

"Gen. Grant never has been defeated, and he never will be."—HORACE GREELEY.

"While asserting the right of every Republican to his untrammelled choice of a candidate for next President until a nomination is made, I venture to suggest that Gen. Grant will be far better qualified for that momentous trust in 1873 than he was in 1868."—HORACE GREELEY, speech on 5th January, 1871.

REPUBLICANS! twenty-five thousand majority in this State for Grant is but your duty.

RALLY to the polls, ye Republicans, every one of you, on the fifth day of November.

We regret to learn that Lee M. McAfee, Esq., is prostrate in Shelby with consumption.

THE "Democrats" and "Liberals" give up North Carolina for Grant by twenty thousand majority.

MORE depends on the Republicans carrying North Carolina, by a rousing majority, than many suppose.

REPORTED:—That Col. Hamilton C. Jones, of Charlotte, will go off with the O'Conor and Adams supporters.

OUT FOR GRANT.—Hon. Lewis HANES, "Liberal Republican" delegate to the Cincinnati Convention which nominated Greeley!

REPUBLICANS rally to the polls tomorrow week, November 5th, and roll up twenty-five thousand majority for Grant in North Carolina.

WHERE are the Greeley flags that whilom, flapped their funeral folds, suspended across the street in front of Tucker Hall and the office of The Daily News.

LOOK OUT for the names of Grant and Wilson on tickets with the Greeley District Electors. The "Democrats" and "Liberals" are up to a "sharp trick," they think.

HON. LEWIS HANES, of Salisbury, formerly editor of this paper, but a "Liberal Republican" delegate to Cincinnati, has renounced Greeley, and declared for Grant.

THERE is a party going round Raleigh with a certified check in his pocket, eager to "put up" on the State of New York going for Grant and Dix at the approaching election. NO TAKERS.

We shall carry the State for Grant by his majority of '68 without effort; but it is materially to the interest of the Republicans of North Carolina that we carry the State by twenty or twenty-five thousand.

SANTA ANNA.—That irrepressible agitator, Santa Anna, who was a prominent actor in Mexican political affairs when our old men were boys, has come to the front again as candidate for the Presidency of Mexico.

THE DAILY NEWS announces a meeting at Metropolitan Hall—speaking by Judge Merrimon and others—and says: "The Raleigh Greeley and Brown Club, if alive, is respectfully invited, and earnestly entreated to be present."

We shall now see whether the "Conservatives" papers will visit on Hon. Plato Durham, with their accustomed severity, the usual abuse bestowed on such gentlemen of that party as choose to exercise a manly independence in the expression of an honest opinion.

FOUR HUNDRED and THIRTY THOUSAND GRANT and WILSON tickets have been printed at this office for North Carolina, and sent out to the various townships of the State. Every township has been supplied by mail. If any have not reached their destination, telegraph, dispatch messengers, and write by mail.

BRINGING THE THING HOME; OR, REASONS WHY THE SOUTH SHOULD VOTE FOR GREELEY.

"When the Rebellious Traitors are overwhelmed in the Field, and scattered like Leaves before an angry Wind, it must not be to return to Peaceful and Contented Homes. They must find Poverty at their Firesides, and see Privation in the Anxious Eyes of Mothers and the Rags of Children."—Horace Greeley, in the New York Tribune, May 1, 1861.

Another "Liberal" Trick.

Printing tickets with the names of O'Conor and Adams at the head, with the names of Greeley electors; this to catch the straight-outs.

Gracefully Said.

In alluding to the soldierly qualities of the gallant Gen. Seales, The Greenville State utters this simple truth—"Good soldiers are generally good men in every respect."

On account of the vast improvements to the city, the people of Chicago are now rejoicing over the fire of last year, and are getting up a benefit ball for Mrs. O'Leary who owned the cow that kicked over the lamp that started the fire that burned the city.

"Mine Got, vot a beeples" these Americans are!

A Tammany in St. Louis.

Much excitement has been caused in St. Louis by the exposure of frauds in building the county jail, similar to those committed by the Tweed ring in New York. Many prominent politicians are said to be involved. The swindle amounts to more than one hundred thousand dollars, besides cheating in construction, so that the profits were enormous.

Rally in the Townships—Poll a Full Vote.

We urge the Republicans to thoroughly canvass every Township. Impress upon the Grant men the importance of voting. A full turn out will give the State to Grant by 20,000. Where is the Republican who is not going to vote? The enemy are dispirited. "We are on the home-stretch." A fierce attack along the whole line will rout the Greeleyites. Republicans, do your duty.

How Democrats Propose to Fool Republicans.

By taking the names of Grant and Wilson, and perhaps one or both of the Electors-at-large—Marcus Erwin and Samuel F. Phillips; or cutting off the names of the Presidential candidates, and printing the names of Erwin and Phillips as Electors-at-large, and inserting below the names of the GREELEY DISTRICT ELECTORS. Thus they hope to carry eight of the electoral votes for Greeley.

WATCH THEM!

MANY A LIBERAL organ might learn decency from the old Democratic Richmond Enquirer, which says: "The private life of the President has been very rudely assailed. We have abstained from any such beastly assaults, for we have too high a respect for the office, and we are too good an American to believe the American people would have such a man as he has been represented in certain quarters to be in that high position. The Southern people have political, and not personal, objections to Gen. Grant."

"Fishy Records."

It is well to observe that our article, on "Fishy Records," the other day, was merely the substance of political conversations carried on in certain "Democratic" quarters of the State; and was merely the expression, through our columns, of a strong sentiment prevailing throughout the State, among a great, if not the great body of the "Democrats" and "Conservatives." The sentiments expressed, were the sentiments and utterances of leading "Democratic" and "Conservative" politicians of North Carolina, some of whom we shall name at the proper time.

Observe the Gerrymander!

Eighteenth Senatorial District; Republican; ONE Senator; population 35,617. Tenth Senatorial District; Conservative; TWO Senators; population 33,686.

THIS ONE Republican Senator is made to represent 1,931 population MORE than TWO Conservative Senators are allowed to represent.

OR—in other words, the last Conservative Legislature DELIBERATELY SMOTHERED EIGHTEEN THOUSAND SEVENTY FOUR of the population of the Eighteenth Senatorial District; absolutely denying to more than EIGHTEEN THOUSAND PEOPLE any representation in the Senate of North Carolina!

The Canvass in the State.

While the "Conservatives" and "Liberals," according to The News, are "asleep," demoralized, disorganized, dispirited and despondent, the Republicans are in a condition of perfect organization, have covered the State with local canvassers, their electors and other speakers, and are making a most effective canvass.

The want of a spirited opposition to contend with, keeps down that show of actual enthusiasm in the ranks of the Republicans known to exist, but Republicans of one section of the State may rest assured that their brethren of every other section are doing their duty, and so all will march together in solid phalanx to the polls on the 5th day of November and give North Carolina to Grant by fifteen or twenty thousand majority.

Disaffection to Greeleyism.

A Statesville letter to The Charlotte Bulletin, (straight Democrat) says:—It is certain that many of both the leaders and the masses of the Democracy are sick of Greeley. They hesitate to break with the party, though in their hearts they feel they have been sold. The Hon. Thomas Ruffin, Colonel John F. Hoke, Hon. Plato Durham, and any number of less noted but equally influential Democrats, such as Archibald Henderson, of Salisbury, Dr. Campbell, of this place, Col. Whitson, of Old Fort, all incline to O'Conor. It is also understood that many of the canvassers in the Summer campaign refuse to speak in this. In fact, a month hence it will be hard to find a sensible Democrat to admit he ever wanted Greeley.

We know many gentlemen of this city and section, active for Merrimon last Summer, who are now indifferent to Greeley, and will not vote for him; while there are not a few such who will openly vote for Grant.

The Straight Outs.

The O'Conor and Adams electoral ticket, for North Carolina, is now complete. It is as follows:—

- FOR PRESIDENT, CHARLES O'CONNOR, of New York. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, of Massachusetts. ELECTORAL TICKET: For the State at Large, JOHN M. LONG, of Cabarrus. JAMES A. CALDWELL, of Lincoln. For the Congressional Districts, 1st—George H. Gregory, of Martin. 2nd—Samuel B. Waters, of Wilson. 3rd—James Linton, of Duplin. 4th—Hamilton Long, of Chatham. 5th—Benjamin F. Roney, of Alamance. 6th—Andrew H. Shuford, of Catawba. 7th—Archibald Henderson, of Rowan. 8th—John A. Fagg, of Buncombe.

Perju-ree Perju-ry.

The Conservative members of the Legislature, who, at the last session of the General Assembly, laid such violent hands on the Senatorial and Congressional Districts of the State and "gerrymandered" them out of all shape and proportions, each and every one, took a solemn oath to support, maintain and sustain the power and force of this just provision and plain language of the Constitution of North Carolina: "That each Senatorial District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, * * * * and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory."

Now let us see.—The Seventeenth and Eighteenth Districts—Johnston and Wake counties—are "contiguous territory."

Wake county—the 18th District—allotted one Senator, has a population of 35,617. Johnston county—the 17th District—allotted one Senator, has a population of 16,897.

Difference in population, 18,720. Thus as 16,897 are to 35,617, did the members of the last General Assembly of North Carolina, who voted for this arrangement of Senatorial Districts, absolutely PERJURE THEMSELVES, and the party which supports such men and measures, and the men themselves, are no longer worthy of the public confidence of as intelligent and patriotic a people as we know the people of North Carolina to be.

Tender Conscience.

It will be remembered that the Conservative members of the last General Assembly all united in an address to the people of North Carolina, appealing for a Convention, otherwise they, the said members, were compelled to inflict on the "dear people" the ruinous burden of an extraordinary tax-levy, or, they said, they should have to perjure themselves, or RESIGN!

scinded members did not "resign;" nor did they levy the threatened tax!

We do not pretend to hold that they "perjured themselves" in declining to lay the tax; but this we do hold, that these one hundred and five gentlemen with tender consciences, uttered a deliberate FALSEHOOD in the face of the people, when they issued a solemn and explicit promise, and, in that Convention campaign, attempted to deceive and entrap the people of the State into a fatal and false position, merely to gratify partisan malignity and political hate, and to satisfy the cravings and demands of their masters, a pack of office-hungry politicians and worn out party "hacks."

But these tender conscienced gentlemen did PERJURE THEMSELVES when they gave to the 3rd, 12th, 18th and 25th Districts, containing 120,885 inhabitants only four Senators; while to the 10th, 14th, 17th, 23rd and 24th, containing a population of only 116,337, they gave SEVEN Senators!

Can the people of North Carolina further trust a party of gentlemen with such tender but accommodating consciences? These gentlemen are Greeley-ites; and not understanding the wishes, nor representing the sentiment of the people of North Carolina, they propose to elect a United States Senator at the approaching session of the General Assembly.

Out for O'Conor and Adams.

The Cleveland Banner of Saturday the 26th instant contains the announcement of Hon. Plato Durham as Editor of that paper.

The names of O'Conor and Adams are placed at the head of the paper, and the new editor says, by way of salutation:—"It will be observed, that we hoist the names of O'Conor and Adams as candidates for the offices of President and Vice-President. We can do nothing else consistent with our conscientious convictions of duty."

The reform movement, which a few months ago, promised success, was throttled in its infancy, when the name of Horace Greeley was placed upon its ticket, as a candidate for President; and in taking up and ratifying this nomination at Baltimore, the National Democratic Convention sold out the honest rank and file of the party, to gratify the caprice of a few men. The result of this course is overwhelmingly apparent in almost every election which has been held since the Baltimore Convention; and especially, in the elections of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. These elections show conclusively, that Democrats refuse to be sold; that they refuse to abandon the time-honored principles of the party and of constitutional government, for the vague, undefined and uncertain promises of what some may term reform; that they refuse to surrender the field to the enemy (as the platform at Baltimore does) for the precious privilege of being allowed to do homage to the leader of that enemy, Horace Greeley; that they refuse to follow a few men, heretofore considered leaders of the Democratic party, into a movement, in which principle is wholly ignored and abandoned, and into the support of one, the intimation of the support of whom, twelve months ago, would have been sufficient to brand his author with the epithets renegade and traitor; that they refuse to be forced into the support of the arch enemy of the Democratic party, Mr. Greeley, at a sacrifice of the principles of a lifetime, upon the simple and one vague idea of reform held out by him and his friends.

Sensible Democrats are enquiring what compensation they are to expect for the surrender and abandonment of principle, which they are called upon to make. Admitting, that there is great room for reform in many of the departments of Government, Democrats are beginning to enquire, how Mr. Greeley is to make these reforms, with two thirds of the Senate of the United States against him, and with no hope of changing it within the next four years; and with a large Radical gain (as the late elections show) in the House of Representatives.

"No.—Democrats and the world know that Mr. Greeley is and has been a fanatic upon every important issue, which has come before the people of the United States during his political life. He was a dangerous agitator, fanatic and extremist upon the slavery question before the war; he educated a public sentiment at the North, hostile to the institution of slavery, which finally culminated in a disastrous civil war; he supported that war against the Southern people with all the ability he possessed, and through his influence, many Southern youths, to-day fill unknown graves.

But his Anti-Slavery and war record could be excused by Democrats if his subsequent record were not so wholly obnoxious to the Democratic sentiment of the country. Through his able paper, The New York Tribune, the most influential Republican paper in the country, he clamored for reconstruction measures, and belabored Congress until they were nerved; he clamored for civil rights bills; he clamored for civil and political equality; he clamored for the impeachment of Andrew Johnson; he clamored for Ku Klux Bills, and he constantly belabored Congress until all of these objectionable and obnoxious measures were passed.

He has said more hard things of the Democratic party and particularly of the Democracy of the South, than any other hundred men in the Nation—and Democrats cannot forget, that this denunciation of the party and its principles, by Mr. Greeley, continued up to the present moment, seeing that over-look his obnoxious views upon the great tariff question which has so long made the poor classes and sections of the country tributary to more wealthy classes and sections.

To expect Democrats, who are Democrats from principle, to forget this record of Mr. Greeley, and shutting their eyes to the bitter draught, to gulp him down like a glass of seasoned wine, is too much. It would be more palatable, if Mr. Greeley now repented of his war upon Democratic sentiment and Democratic principle; but he not only does not repent, but in his speeches throughout the North, he points to his record, as an evidence, that he is a true Republican.

The result is, that Democrats of principle everywhere are standing aloof from the movement, seeing that overwhelming defeat stares them in the face, and that they have been surrendered to the enemy by a few ambitious, spavined leaders and place hunters, more intent upon place and power at any sacrifice, than they are upon preserving a Constitutional Republic for the American people."

The Raleigh "Daily Era."

We are glad to notice that this able Republican paper, at Raleigh, N. C., which has heretofore been published tri-weekly, is hereafter to be published daily. It has done good service, in a locality where it was much needed, and we are glad to see that it is building up a business which promises success. We trust the tried and true Republicans of the old North State will give it a hearty and substantial support.—Washington Chronicle.

Mrs. Greeley.

Notwithstanding the political warmth and party feeling of this campaign, no partisan of President Grant, or opponent of Mr. Greeley, can refuse, for the latter gentleman, the fullest measure of sympathy in the condition of Mrs. Greeley, account of which we get from The New York Herald.

The people of North Carolina, of all parties, feel the liveliest personal interest in this good woman. She was once a resident of our State, and thus, from having been our guest, she is, in some sense, still one of our ladies. And she is a genuine heroine, whose life deserves to be written.

First we find her at work, gaining her own livelihood, in a highly honorable calling, and in a most praiseworthy and creditable manner. Separated from home and the friends and acquaintances of her girlhood, by a distance of several hundred miles, at a time when inter-communication between the North and South was necessarily slow, tedious and often uncertain, this lady, in her youth, found herself thrown among strangers whose manners and customs, and mode of thought, were entirely different from the people from which she came, and whom she had known. We can easily imagine the enduring spirit and unflinching courage necessary to sustain this Northern maiden, when first she found herself among Southern strangers.

But she found a hearty welcome and a generous encouragement in the perfect freedom of a plain North Carolina home in the early days of her struggling maidenhood, when only a plain Northern school-mistress. She, and her distinguished husband, and amiable daughter, now have a full outpouring of generous sympathy from the same plain North Carolina people with whom the youthful maiden found her early home.

Marrying a poor ungainly youth, at whom the world was then disposed to laugh, she has watched his shuffling, ambling gait, encouraged his awkward footsteps, and rounded the corners of his somewhat rugged and eccentric nature, until she has seen him stand gracefully on the pinnacle of journalistic fame.

And now, when the tidings from her sick chamber proclaim that the sunset of her life is about tinging the yellow, fading, autumn woods, a large body of the American people are preparing to march up to the ballot-box to cast their votes for the husband of this lady in connection with the highest office—the most honorable, responsible and distinguished official position—within the gift of fifty millions of free, intelligent and progressive people.

Old age is apt to fittingly crown youthful heroism; but such honors as this noble woman has won, seldom gild the drapery of the couch that modern heroes and heroines fold about them when they lie down to pleasant dreams.

In 1838 Greeley said Grant was the best man and purest patriot in the world. From 1838 to 1872 Grant has followed Greeley's advice till he has become, so Greeley says, the worst man in the world. Moral—beware of Greeleyism.—Pomeroy's Democrat.
