THE WEEKLYERA	<ul> <li>The second s second second se second second s</li></ul>	S. Far at			THE WEEKLY
WM. M. BROWN, MANAGER. Rates of Subscription: DAILY-One year, in advance, $7 00 Six months, in advance, $3 50 Three months, in advance, 2 00 TRI-WERKLY-One year, in advance, $3 00 6 months, in advance, $3 00 1 month, in advance, 50 WREKLY-One year, in advance, 50 WREKLY-One year, in advance, 50 Six months, in advance, 50	n to a second		ne Carolina Crai		Rates of Advertisin One square, one time, " " two times, - " " three threes, - - A square is the width of a co inch deep.
	Voil. 2.		RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1872.	No. 21.	Jar Contract Advertisement proportionately low rates. Professional Cards, not exc square, will be published one y day, The New York Trioune said: have never agreed with these who regard the President as harboring ideas of usurpation or purposes hostile to the Republican form of government."

The Horse Malady.

The despatches announce the presence of the horse malady in Norfolk, Virginia. sentiment we don't wish to be under-

Unless very stringent measures are stood as at all responsible, except so adopted and the greatest care taken far as the correctness of our statements this malady will be in our State and as regards the "feeling" are concerned. city. The danger is sufficient to alarm We know what the "conversation" our people, and the near approach of and "sentiment" of a large body of the this terrible equine .epidemic is suffi- "Democrats" and "Conservatives" is. cient to startle them from their seem- and we took the liberty to embody ing apathy and apparent indifference, such conversation and sentiment into Virginia for Grant.

That Virginia will go for Grant we have had not a doubt since the August election in North Carolina. Now The Richmond Enquirer comes to us saying :--

Whether they will think it worth the trouble of going to the polls to vote for Mr. Greeley or not, we trust that none of our people will fail to recognize the necessity of voting for their representatives in Congress.

Some are trying to elect Greeley and leave Congress Republican ; while others hope to carry Congress, leaving Mr. Greeley to go to the devil. "You pays Your money, you takes your choice."

"A Long Pull, a Strong Pull, and a Pull all Together."

Hon. D. M. Barringer, Chairman despised by the rivals of their favorites orgiven, and the punishment of those very severe on Gov. Vance and Gen. Ranunder conviction be promptly remitted. What does it mean?-Charlotte We confidently look to such consum-Southern Home. mation, and we earnestly appeal to

It means, General Hill, that The every citizen of North Carolina to join ERA was simply giving shape to the in bringing about an end and a state of words of a very respectable body of affairs so devontly to be wished for by "Democrats" and "Conservatives?' of this State, and expression to a prevailing sentiment; for which words and an article for the edification of our readers and the benefit of our "Democratic" and "Conservative" friends.

As to Messrs. Ransom and Vance, personally, a comparison with most other men we know would be odious and un-

we might say "complimentary" of gentlemen of the "Democratic" and "Conservative" party would be apt to be misunderstood by their political friends. But we have our personal likes and dislikes, which cannot be ascertained or located by the standard of such articles as that of ours on "Fishy Records." We were, in that article, of political opponents, and employing terms current among gentlemen of the

in the approaching Senatorial contest.

every good man and woman of the country. [From the Chicago Inter-Ocean.]

Peace and Reconciliation.

Review.

ern Outrages, appointed by the Forty- die rather than betray anybody. Ap/ guage can do, that in becoming the defiant and unwilling to accept a par- prosperity in the South, and renewed candidate of Cincinnati and of Balti- don on any condition."

opposition, in numbers and respecta- the negro race. bility, power and influence, not to be Slander Refuted-Mr. R. A. Shotwell Vindicates Himself.

The Charlotte Observer says: The sub- ing style. But I had it put up high on bined letter was received by us from Randolph A. Shotwell, who is now confined in the Albany Penitentiary:

ALBANY PENITENTIAPY, October 14th, 1872. To the Editor of Charlotte Observer following article, copied from The N. Y. Herald, as I am informed, by a num-election of Horace Greeley."-Quitman (Ga.) tiary, proposed to a prominent member For almost every class of merchandise parently a cross between the hound and

This is Southern sentiment; it is in the study and labor for the success of years past, and there seems to be an strict accordance with the declarations the Republican candidates, and de- unwonted ability and readiness to pay position close to the boy, and remained plain and honest country gentleman on of General Hodge, Greeley Elector at large for the State of Kentucky; with the assertions of Congressman Beck, of the same State; with the letter of At- would give evidence against the prin- Southern States varies from 25 to 50 human ward. He was in downright but until he had entered the academy torney General Black, of Pennsylvania; cipal leaders, such as Ransom, Vance per cent. of the whole amount for past and with the report of the Democratic and Merrimon. This Shotwell declin- seasons. fair to these gentlemen ; while anything minority of the Committee on South- ed with a defiant air, and said he would This, of course, contributes to the

of caste in the South through the per- fered to barter my principles for a par- character.

Princess Marguerite, with the naivette Good Dog of a girl. "I wish I had worn mine so to-day. It is always the most becom- He finds a Lost Child at Night, and Keeps Guard Over Him for Many account of the fashion, and it is not Hours.

On Thursday afternoon and Friday morning The Herald chronicled the fact that a little boy seven years old, who had wandered away from his shepherd breeds, which the boy had preciating the boy's distress, took up a for her couch. In the audience was a arouse the little sleeper, and take him ern Outrages, appointed by the Forty-second Congress. All these are author-itative expressions of Democratic senti-die rather than betray anybody. Ap-plication for the pardon was refused. When Gerritt Smith visited Shotwell ment, and show as conclusively as lan- three months ago he said he found him tance, it gives evidence of returning it required considerable coaxing on the part of the patrolman to induce comcommercial relations, which are al- pliance on the part of the canine con-"pledges-direct pledges"-to its advo- ing set to fabricate a falsehood, has not The goods furnished for the use of the derer to be led to the central station,

ERA

THE FLOWERS

- - - 81 00 - 1 50 - 2.00 column, and 1

ents taken at xceeding one year for $12.

armed. Scene at the Opera.

A New York correspondent says :---Pauline Lucca created a genuine sensation the other evening in "Fra Diavolo." She represents Zerlina in a verv natural and piquaht way, according to her own notions-not those of any of her lyric predecessors or contempora-ries. You remember the scene of the home on Chatham street, West Side, bed-chamber, in which the heroine and become lost, was found by a po-liceman on Thursday morning crouched in the corner of a yard at the corner of severe Mendlessohn declared he never passage emphatic by transporting her earnest in his self-imposed guardian- that night he had no idea of an opera, ship, for when the officer attempted to and consequently felt the deepest interest in its progress. When Zerlina had removed her bracelets, taken down her hair and put off her bodice, the simple-minded rustic, who had watched her eagerly, revealed the liveliest symptoms of apprehension, not to say disgust. He looked around, more Mr. Greeley became the repre-sentative of the "lost cause." made I presume I am the person alluded to in the above, although the writer, hav-between that section and the North. however, and suffered the little wan-dressed ladies still kept their seats. dressed ladies still kept their seats .-cates and exponents, and placed him- thought it worth while to give even negroes, too, are of a less flimsy and where he had a chance to get a good "Well, Mary, we'd better get out of self in the van of a movement not only the name correctly. The entire state- showy, and of a more substantial char- nap on a lounge in a warm room. But this. This may be all right for city writing the sentiment of a community violently reactionary in all its tenden- ment is without foundation. I scorn acter, which shows that they are imcies, but having for its object the revival to refute the imputation of having of- proving in judgment and stability of seeming to think the boy might re- seen the opery before, and I never want quire further attention, and he follow- to see it again. I can stand almost secution and virtual re-enslavement of don; but for the sake of my friends I Not only does the demand for more ed on to the station, stole quietly into anything, but when it comes to a wowill merely say that I have never ap- and better merchandise evince grow- the room where he was taken, stretched man undressin' herself before the pub-While Northern men in the Greeley plied for pardon, nor made any propo- ing prosperity, but the call for agriculmovement denounce the Republican sals to a prominent member of Con- tural implements and machinery shows his little companion, and when the Mary, we may be green, but, by cracky, we are decent anyhow.' So speaking, and with indignant glances at the high-bred indifferentists around him, he and his spouse departed in anger and confusion. If he would have tarried but a few ment and upon the negro through the would lead to the restoration of my upholding the general interests of the Detroit street, the dog still attending ered the scene to be harmless, though I must confess it has always seemed to as valuable and valued citizens. It is feet as soon as they reached there, and me a trifle too suggestive; nor do I clung to the old party until it sold its Court House, General Grant sent home The last paragraph of The Herald's to be hoped that all breaches will soon viewing all comers with an eye of jeal- wonder that a man or woman who had clung to the old party until it sold its honor. Then they left it to join the party of progress. To-day they are party of progress and take care of their party of progress. To-day they are party of progress of the progress of the progress of the progress of the ceive the honors of the future along now invoke "vengeance upon the Gov- the one hand; and again affording the mote the prosperity and greatness of culiar, and wonderful conduct of that ness in Lucca's composition. She seemwith those who have welcomed them ernment and upon the negro" are the President a fair excuse for declining to our common country.-New York Eve- dog certainly deserves the mention and ed, the other evening, to relish the sensation she created by italicising, so to speak, the bed-chamber scene of Fra Diavolo. She enjoys, I should judge, Humors of Frontier Life. Fun in Arkansas as Described in a Pri- treading on the edge of decorum, but she does it with a grace and vivacity vate Letter. that make you forget that decorum has anything to do with her charming, [From the St. Louis Damocrat.] DOVER Oct. 3, 1872 though sometimes indelicate, mode of SHARE HOY LAND rough, that was known to have been that you serve at the carrying about two hundred and twenty years I was only show at once will carrying A Wild Pigeon Roost in Maryland. Probably the largest pigeon roost ever known in Maryland, says a Baltihis hand. His food in the early part of the season, was lettuce, dandelions, green peas, etc. In the latter part of I am glad that one of the barrels is a green peas, etc. In the latter part of I am glad that one of the barrels is a lect nightly on a tract of ground covered with alder bushes, occupying about six acres. The pigeons first appeared ples, and peaches; and he was so ex- shot, and can riddle a man nicely at about ten days ago in countless flocks. gooseberries that, to restrict his depre- rels on those Jetts when I meet them. flocking pigeons gradually settled down The Cumberland News says: The indations upon those fruits, the gardner You see, old man Jett stole a mule upon the bushes, until they were bent to the ground by the weight of the birds. Still more pigeons came flying the time chained up to a tree. He Jett, as we call him-the black-faced in from distant points, and continued would eat no animal food nor take any one-he laid for pap and plugged him. to settle down upon the already living mass, until the whole five or six acres were completely covered. So great was the number of birds that they were piled upon each other in places from In cloudy weather he would scoop think my double-barrel will prove too one to two feet in depth. The pigeons continued flocking in and setting upon and among each other from about 4 o'clock in the afternoon until nightfall, when at last they became still, and prepared for their night's rest. With the early dawn of the morning flock after flock arose and flew away in all directions, which departures were continued until about 9 o'clock, when the place was deserted, and not a living bird to the approaching season, being from one many people come within range in the day, until toward evening, when they course of a week, and a man can pass again began flocking back to the same roosts, and the scenes of the evening I wish you would send me a catalogue before were again witnessed. All this he took no food. He came out about of Sunday school books, with the prices, has occurred daily for the past ten days. if there are any in St. Louis. If we It is estimated that all the flocks of big lot of books. I am superintendent pigeons for perhaps fifty or sixty miles of the Baptist Sunday school now, and each evening during their annual ini-Biographical Sketch of the Beautiful am running it under a full head of gratory visit to the immense forest reswears that he will chaw me up; but he will chaw lead if he don't keep known this season in this or any of the quest of the heavy mass of acorus clear of me. neighboring counties, and is, perhaps, My wife wants to know if you can't the only one within a circle of several the suspected murderer of Benjamin send her a set of teeth without getting hundred miles. It is a well-establishmeasured for them. Her $25 set was ed fact that these birds have but one for so lengthy an intrusion of my pri- thing relative to him, and those con- busted all to flinders by a pistol shot roosting place within a very large ternected with him, of interest. We there-fore publish the following sketch of didn't hurt her tongue. Write soon to latitudes, and during their stoppage by Your friend and pard, the way, use one place only as a roost at night. At this wonderful roost, on * two daughters of old Bill Thomas, of Baltimore, one of the most expert bur-Sam Jett, crept up last night and fired thousands of pigeons have been nightly glars and cracksmen in the United at me through the window, but he captured by men and boys, with guns, Letin.] The Princess Marguerite admires Miss Polk very much. She often says, playfully, if she were a man she should fall in love with her. On Monday last she talked a great deal with our bean-An Awkward Compliment. died.

half so nice." The Princess Marguerite also has beautiful hair of her own, and very naturally likes to show its richness and length. My attention has been called to the Revival of Trade with the South.

Peace and Reconciliation. "You may taik about peace and reconcil-iation as much as you please, but we see our way to a terrible vengeauge upon the Gov-ernment and upon the negro through the election of Horace Greeley."-Ouitman(Ga)It is a very gratifying evidence that of Congress that if the President would the orders have been larger and the pardon him he would cheerfully take quality of goods better, than for many never seen before, came along, and, ap- and coming forward to prepare herself

Turtles.

Turtles live to a great old age. In a State Dem. Con. Ex. Com., and W. S. Mason, Esq., Chairman State Lib. Rep. Ex. Com., are out in another longwinded address "to the people of North Carolina,"-the last we shall probably hear of these gentlemen; and as the dying song of the swan is the sweetest she sings, so is this the best of all the addresses yet had from these two contrary sources, running at right angles, like the waters of Cross Creek at Fayetteville.

The North Carolina Penitentiary.

Penitentiary.

John F. Miller, (father and son) charged with burning the barn of Peter Z. Baxter, of Lincoln county, have been arrested and are now in jail at Knoxville, Tenn. A requisition has been made upon the Governor of Tennessee, by the Governor of North Carolina, for these parties, but, for some defeet in the requisition, we learn from the Sheriff of Lincoln, who has recently been to Knoxville after them, that a writ of habens corpus has been sued out in their behalf, and they will probably be released from custody.-Hickory Tavern Eagle.

tion" of Gov. Caldwell for these parties. They managed to sue out a writ, and the Sheriff of Lincoln, who had been sent to Tennessee for these men by Governor Caldwell, could not wait for the matter to come up on writ of to hold the Court of his county. The intimation of "a defect in the requisition" is a reflection on Governor Caldwell, not intended by The Eagle, we feel quite sure.

the inhumanity, despotism and indiffer- tion was made to that gentleman. ence of President Grant. The following letter on the subject of change in Shotwell was a man to be thus "bought Taking the conduct of General Grant true character. at Appomattox and the sentiments of ' this letter together, we do not see how or injustice of his sentence-it is not kindred. The italics are ours :--EXECUTIVE MANSION. WASHINGTON, October 26, 1872. GEO. H. STUART-My dear sir: Your fa-. vor of the 24th instant, saying that a change in the Indian policy of the administration is reported to be contemplated, is just received. Such a thing has not been thought dians can be improved in any way, I will always be ready to receive suggestions on the subject; but if any change is made it Christianization of the Indian. I do not believe our Creator ever placed the different exterminating the weaker. If any change will pe on the humanitarian side of the question. Very truly yours,

A Word to Democrats.

ing the management, discipline and There are thousands of Democrats whose heads, forfeited to a nation re- Mr. Gerritt Smith appears to be the inhuman punishments inflicted at this who have not yet taken a decided stored by terrible sacrifices, the Gov- originator of this calumny. It may institution. The bayonet is said to stand with us. They oppose Greeley ernment stayed the arm of justice; the not be improper therefore to briefly walls, and it is clearly the duty of the have no claim upon you. It tried to Administration and Congress to en- Klan, and was well acquainted with Governor to allude to the matter, in his deliver you over to raise Greeley to lighten and educate the colored popula- its designs, I assured him that it, and message, by way of bringing up an in- the Presidency. You refused to be devestigation this winter, which, we ven- livered ; you protested against the corture to say, will result in something rupt coalition; you have used your in- these have not been able to eradicate dents, but also by the circulation of somore than the investigating farce of the long to the great party of progressive last Legislature; and as it can't "hurt long to the great party of progressive ideas a worr place is in the ranks of the southern people. They still sigh the party" now, we predict some ideas; your place is in the ranks of the for the time when 8,000,000 of men sub- emphatically denied that the Klan was a healthy changes in the personnel of the Republican party-come in, where your sisted in idleness off the labor, sweat conspiracy against the Government, or management of the North Carolina influence can be felt and acknowledged. and toil of 3,000,000 of bondsmen; they against the negroes, or against any Shake off the dust of a party that has pray for the re-erection of the human class of people on account of their po-ceased to exist, through the treachery BARN BURNERS .- John T. Miller and of its leaders, and take your stand the cry of the bloodhound, bounding tention to the fact that there were sevalong with others who once stood by on the track of fugitive black men. eral gray-haired old men of 60 years your side in the Democratic party. The And because the Government, clothed and upwards, doomed to years toil in with the majesty of the people, in a this penitentiary, over a thousand miles Republican party has a bright future before it. It is the party of universal struck down all these bloody crimes having sought to preserve order in freedom, and as such must continue to against modern civilization, and made their communities, and to shield their rule the nation through a series of the Republic in fact what it was in wives and daughters from the brutal years to come. Let every man who name, these misguided men of the passions of white and black desperaloves his country and desires to see it the Government and upon the negro," advance in power and glory enroll and they seek it "through the election There was no "defect in the requisi- himself as a fighting member under of Horace Greeley."

the old Republican banner. The Letter of Captain Shotwell. The "Echo"-A Model Newspaper.

We publish on our outside to-day the letter of Captain Shotwell, addressed to up to-day a little sheet called The Echo, The Charlotte Observer. We do this to Concord, Cabarrus county. The main habeas corpus, but had to return home hid the vindication of this gentleman object of Mr. Fetzer seems to be to adfrom a charge we never believed, and vertise his drugs, medicines, &c., but he which we are glad to see he has de- gives all local and general news. And nounced and refuted.

We have heard a great deal about we never believed that such proposi- don't desire, under the news column. to read all sorts of attempts at moraliz-Equally loth were we to believe that ing, punning, witticisms, &c. Again: when an editor of a news-paper undertakes to state facts, even political facts, the Indian policy of the Government don't read much like the writer was an inhuman wretch, or that he could be inhuman wretch, or that he could be ho injustice in this matter, and not indifferent to the sufferings and woes brace, with pleasure, the opportunity distort them for fear they may hurt his [Lake Como Letter to the Philadelphia Bulof any portion of the American people. to place him before our readers in his party, or weaken their force by injecting in the statement all kinds of com-Of his guilt or innocence -the justice ments of his own. This should be done in another place. A little attention to these rules would any one can regard the President as an necessary to here express our opinion ; make Southern newspapers far more enemy and oppressor of the people of he has been convicted, and is under the readable, and in due time give them the South, unless we are prepared to pains and penalties of the law; the de- much greater influence. I am happy believe that this man has more love for mands of outraged law are being satis- to add that in all this, I can truthfully A CONSTANT READER. perses his character, now that he is [Copy of Lyman Trumbull's Bill.] powerless, "is a wretch whom it were The United States "To L. Trumbull, Dr. base flattery to call a coward." " 1869. That Captain Shotwell and his asso-April 19-To legal services in ciates will all be released and returned the cases of exparte McArdle and the State of Georgia against George G. Meade and others, in the Supreme Court of the U.S. at Dec. terms, 1867 and 1868 $10,000 having the stronger exert all its energies in not be obtained on any promises of po- This is the little bill Mr. Trumbull takes place in the Indian policy of the gov- litical support to the Republican party. collected against the United States for ernment while I hold my present office, it But whenever the President and the two hours' work: $5,000 per hour !country is satisfied that the spirit of Tax-payers, what think you of "Re-

Some ugly stories are afloat regard- to the ranks of the Republican party. same from whose hands, red with the blood of Union soldiers, and from half.

South seek "a terrible vengeance upon does, &c.

[From the Statesville American.]

MR. EDITOR :- I accidentally picked which we are glad to see he has de-nounced and refuted. Certainly no friend of President with which the editor writes his scraps.

President Grant's Inhumanity. his interest by purchasing the support as it should be. People who have work of Captain Shotwell with a pardon, and to do, and take up a paper to run over, of facts.

among our hard workers, and will re- wives and children. These men who to accept liberty on any condition, on will be working in harmony to pro- to his home, we know not, but the pe-play a conspicuous part there, being the favorite instrument for "gagging" as well as "punching" refractory con-victs. document preserved among the archives of one of the old cathedrals of Death from gagging with the bayonet is reported to have occurred in these all time. The Democratic party can tions of the lately rebellious States, and our people generally had been greatly render them fit for the intelligent en- misrepresented, not only by the Radijoyment of liberty and equal rights-all cal press, and irresponsible corresponauction block in the public square of litical opinions. Reverting to the Govevery city; they listen impatiently for ernment prosecutions, I called his atspirit of Christian benevolence, has from home, for no other offence than

Mr. Smith seemed surprised and shocked at my statements, and strongly expressed his intention to intercede with the President in their behalf. I learned that he fulfilled his promise, and recommended three out of four whom he saw, as fit subjects for clemency. But he grossly misrepresents me. Nothing was said of pardon during the interview except a volunteer offer on his part to write to a certain Republican Judge in my favor, for which I thanked him, but thought it hardly worth while for him to be at that trouble, although I should be glad to Grant could have expected to advance If he has anything to say, he says it, hear of his letter to Grant, and I am forced to conclude that it is a part of a and goes on to something else. This is scheme to exclude me from the bene-

> Begging the indulgence of the public Nathan, very naturally renders anyvate misfortunes, I am, Mr. Editor, Respectfully, RANDOLPH A. SHOTWELL. of the alleged assassin, and his copart-ner in crime: Lizzie is the eldest of party as the party of proscription and of hate, and demand "reconciliation" through the revival of the accendancy of the Democratic party, Southern men deride the very idea of reconciliation, law, I have long hoped (and shall con- the people of the South are forgetting the boy with a fidelity as devoted as it There are thousands of Democrats in and declare that they "see their way to tinue to hope) that future developments those things which are behind and was wonderful. The little fellow was the land who will vote for Grant. They a terrible vengeance upon the Govern- and the subsidence of bitter passions pressing forward to take their part in then taken to the West Side station on have abandoned the party that tried to sell them to Greeley and Brown. They are the men whom, at Appomattox are the men whom are commendation we here make of it.

England there is an account of an old rough, that was known to have been old. He was so tame and so much at- it home. Bill Silvers popped at me tached to the gardener that he would from behind the fence as I was passing run to meet him, and would eat out of his house, but I had loaded the twothe season he fed on fruits exclusively, rifle, as I needed it for long range pracsuch as currants, raspberries, pears, ap- tice. The other I can load with buckcessively fond of strawberries and close quarters. I mean to try both barpunched a hole through his shell, in-serted a chain, and kept him part of him and killed him. Then Nigger Tom iquid. This turtle weighed thirteen Then I picked a fuss with Tom, and pounds, and he would walk across the cut him into giblets, and since that garden with a weight of two hundred time his brother Sam has been laying and fifty pounds upon his back! for me. I know it is his turn, but I out a cavity in his ground where he much for him. would repose, torpid and inactive, un- If you want to see fun come down for til the warmth of the sun roused him from his slue ber. About the beginning make any difference which side you of October he went into his winter quar- belong to, and it isn't even necessary ters, selecting for many years a partic- to join the militia. It is easy to get up ular corner of the garden, where he a grudge against somebody, and all would dig a hole in an inclined direc- you have to do is to lay for your man tion, and enter the ground in the man- and knock him over. Behind my pig ner of a mole. The depth to which he pen is one of the best hiding places penetrated varied with the character of know of, and it is so handy. A good to two feet, according as the following course of a week, and a man can pass winter was mild or severe. For about his time right pleasantly. month before entering his dormitory

Blonde Who Won the Affections of the ed out, is right mad about it, and the Indians than for his own race and fied in his case; and the editor who gratuitously assaults his name, or asof. If the present policy toward the In- home long before their terms of imprisonment expire, we have never had a doubt, notwithstanding the imprumust be on the side of the civilization and dence of their friends who seem to have systematically determined the prejuraces of men on this earth with the view of dice of their-cases, but such release will U. S. GRANT. Ku Kluxism is dead in this State, all form " like this? A Tennessee Belle in Italy.

she talked a great deal with our beau-tiful American belle. The Prince also entered into conversation sometimes, where they received a first-class educa-tion. At an early age the wife of Thomas died, and he took up his abode and when he and the Princess regretted in the purlieus of Fell's Point, leaving been popular in Paris, as Josephine the first of April.

Nathan Murderer.

[From the New York Telegram.]

The recent arrest of Billy Forrester,

Forrester's Wife.

and when he and the Princess regretted Miss Polk's projected visit to America this winter, Prince Humbert said, play-fully, he should issue an order prohib-iting her from leaving the country.— As the Princess Marguerite admired Miss Polk's toilette, I must give it among the rest of my chiffons. The long flounced skirt and overdress were of white mull, with dark blue velvet sash and bows: a blue velvet jacket. sash and bows; a blue velvet jacket, trimmed with broad white point lace, hung over her arm; at her side was a rococo chatelaine, set with rock tur-quoises and garnets with commended rococo chatelaine, set with rock tur-quoises and garnets, with enameled chains for fan, scent bottle, portemon-naie, parasol, etc., each of which was l ornamented in rococo, as the chatelaine. She wore a Spanish hat of blue velvet, with long blue and white ostrich plumes; her splendid chestnut hair, which is all her own, was her down in long, rich lokes ar her neck.

The Empress Marie Louise had never Meeting of the Forty-Third Congress.