

THE N. C. LEGISLATURE.

SENATE. TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY. WEDNESDAY, Dec. 18, 1872.

Senate met at 10 o'clock. Mr. President Morehead in the Chair. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mason. Journal of yesterday read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES: Reports from standing committees were presented by Messrs. Allen, Norwood, Todd and Davis. A message was received from the House transmitting a number of engrossed resolutions, &c., asking the concurrence of the Senate in the same, which were appropriately disposed of.

BILLS, RESOLUTIONS, &c. Mr. Cunningham, a resolution of instruction to the committee on education. Tabled.

Mr. Seymour, a resolution of instruction to public printer—relates to printing the laws as compiled by Judge Battle.

The hour having arrived for the special order, it was on motion of Mr. Cowles, postponed until the 22d of January.

The above resolution created considerable discussion, participated in by Messrs. Waring, Waring, Worth, Love and Norwood.

On motion of Mr. Love, the further consideration was postponed until the 17th of January.

Mr. Love offered an amendment, by saying for the select committee on the committee, made a report, to the effect that the committee had awarded the public printing to Messrs. Stone & Uzzell of this city.

Mr. Love offered an amendment, a resolution declaring their action null and void, and instructing the committee not to make any contract until further instructions.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

Mr. Stone & Uzzell without the sanction of a majority of this Legislature. They intended that Joe Turner should have it, and if it was so that the contract was not binding he would use his influence to give it to Mr. Turner.

for taxes and other purposes, in Catawba county. And bill authorizing the Carolina Narrow Gauge Railroad Company to consolidate with the Chester South Carolina Narrow Gauge Company.

Senate resolution in regard to Burke Square was adopted. Mr. Ellis of Columbus, introduced a bill to establish a branch Insane Asylum at Winston. Referred.

Mr. Walker, a bill to abolish capital punishment. Referred. Mr. Ellis of Columbus, a resolution of thanks to the President and Clerks of the Senate for the efficient manner in which they had performed their duties. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Hyman was granted leave of absence for to-morrow. After considerable debate about the hour in which Senate should meet on to-morrow, the Senate adjourned until six o'clock, a. m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY. WEDNESDAY, Dec. 18, 1872. House called to order at 10 o'clock. Speaker in the Chair. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mason.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. Mr. Bryson of Swain from the committee on Railroads. Mr. Moore from the committee on salaries and fees.

Mr. Moore from the committee on education. Mr. Richardson from the committee on the Judiciary. Mr. Moring from the committee on engrossed bills.

Mr. Bennett from the committee on judiciary, submitted reports. RESOLUTIONS. By Mr. Morrison, a resolution authorizing the joint select committee on the Penitentiary to meet during recess. Calendar.

By Mr. Brown of Mecklenburg, a joint resolution to refund taxes paid in this county on certain mortgages. Calendar. By Mr. Whitmore, a resolution of instruction to the judiciary committee. Calendar.

By Mr. Bean, a resolution of instruction to the judiciary committee. Calendar. By Mr. Johnston, a resolution in favor of certain witnesses before the committee on privileges and elections.

By Mr. Norment, a bill to prevent the sale of spirituous liquors within a mile of the Church in Robeson county. Calendar. UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The further consideration of the bill to charter the New York and Norfolk and Charleston Railroad. The amendment of Mr. Heaton providing that this road shall not pass through any county without having gained the consent of the citizens of said county.

The amendment was rejected. Mr. Jones of Caldwell, offered an amendment requiring 5 per cent of the 100,000 subscribers to be paid in. Lost.

By the same an amendment requiring a branch road to be built to Wilmington was adopted. Mr. Bennett called the previous question on the passage of the bill on its second reading.

Mr. Jones of Caldwell, called the yeas and nays. The call was sustained and the bill passed its second reading, yeas 90, nays 10. On its third reading, Mr. Scott offered an amendment to the 11th section of the bill which failed.

The bill then passed its third reading. CALENDAR. Under a suspension of the rules, Mr. Bennett called up the bill to authorize the commissioners of Guilford county to levy a special tax. Bill passed its third reading.

Mr. Stanton opposed the concurrence of the House and advocated the claims of Col. George H. Farrisbault. Mr. Shinn, of Iredell, also opposed the concurrence of the House and advocated the claims of J. M. Kove.

Mr. Johnson favored the concurrence of the House, and paid a handsome compliment to Mr. McGowan. Mr. Jones of Caldwell, moved that when the House adjourn to-day it adjourn to meet again at 7 o'clock to-night. Carried.

Mr. Stanton called up the resolution authorizing the joint select committee on the Penitentiary to meet during recess. The bill was laid on the table.

Mr. Reid, of Mecklenburg, resolution of instruction to the committee on Agriculture. Calendar. JOINT SESSION.

At 12 o'clock the Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Senate, which came in and took their seats in the Hall. The Speaker announced that the adjourned session was for the purpose of comparing the votes for the Executive and State officers for the counties of Macon, Watauga and Hertford, which were delayed and the returns from Macon county were on his desk.

Senator Seymour offered a resolution that the returns now in possession of the Joint Assembly for State officers be printed, and the persons receiving the largest number of votes be declared elected. Resolution was adopted.

The Joint Assembly then adjourned sine die. On motion of Mr. Brown, of Davidson, the House adjourned until 7 o'clock to-night.

WEEKLY ERA.

THURSDAY, DEC. 20, 1872.

"NEXT OF KIN" seem to be the favored of our Penitentiary Board of "Nepots."

In all the members of the Democratic and Conservative parties were like Hon. Jas. T. Morehead, we might look for non-partisan and useful legislation.

Political Conundrums.

Who killed the Democratic-Conservative party in North Carolina? Who did the remnant of the Democratic-Conservative party in North Carolina kill?

Tweedledum and Tweedledee. We understand that Col. J. P. H. Russ of this city can testify as to the understanding of the management of the State Pen in the matter of "tweedledum and tweedledee."

Will Colonel J. P. H. Russ let us know something about those potatoes which Mr. Stewart Murray did not want from him at a low price, but which he eagerly bought from "his merchant" at a higher price?

Commissioner Cox, of Pitt. This gentleman publishes in today's Era a card in vindication of the personal and official conduct of himself and associates, and asks the attention and consideration of the reading public.

The Senate passed complimentary resolutions to President Morehead; and he retires from the position he has filled, so honorably and acceptably, carrying with him the respect and confidence of the Republican party to an extent seldom accorded by one political party to a leader of another.

DEPUTY WARDEN HALL is, apparently, a man of very convenient knowledge. He doesn't appear to know much at times. Perhaps he knows nothing about the murder committed under his eyes at the gaging post, and to which Chairman Bledsoe alludes in his annual Report to the Legislature.

Louisiana. We see nothing in the action of the President, or in the United States Courts, in regard to affairs in Louisiana, to condemn. The people in that State are simply being shown the power and potency of the law, and learning the folly and uselessness of resistance to constituted authority and the illegal practices of their base partizanship.

Mr. Speaker Robinson. We have, during the session, felt called upon, once or twice, to criticize and condemn the apparent partiality and partizan ruling of the Speaker of the House; and his conduct in the formation of Committees in some respects is most censurable.

We are pleased to be able to state at the beginning of the recess that the Honorable Speaker has given more general satisfaction of late, and we indulge the belief and the hope that when he retires from the chair at the close of the last session of '73-'74, that the universal verdict will be the same as was last winter pronounced on the Honorable Speaker Jarvis.

$50,400. The Legislature, up to the time of recess, for the thirty-two days in session, has cost the people in mileage and per diem, and other legislative expenses, FIFTY THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS!

Not one single act of public benefit to the people of the State appears in the proceedings of this session; and the people have therefore paid Fifty Thousand Dollars for nothing.

Finishing up the work of the session, we have only room to announce the recess, and for some complimentary remarks we feel are due from us. We will deal fully with this worthless, do-nothing Legislature, and pay proper respects to other matters and events of public and political interest.

Hon. James T. Morehead, Jr. This gentleman, the temporary President, on the adjournment of the Senate this morning, retired to the shades of Senatorial life, so to speak; Lieutenant-Governor Brogden assuming the Chair on the first of January to hereafter preside over the sessions of the Senate.

We like Mr. President Morehead much. He has presided with ability, impartiality and judicial fairness. Filling for a few weeks the position of Lieutenant-Governor, as a compliment from his party, he has discharged the duties imposed upon him with honor to himself and creditably to the Senate and State.

Morehead is a name long known and highly honored in North Carolina. We are proud to record that the name and ancestry is nobly sustained in the person of the retiring Lieutenant-Governor Morehead.

Mr. Morrison, of Lincoln.

Lest the friends and constituents of this clever young gentleman may put a wrong construction upon what we have had to say of him, we desire to state here, that our remarks have been merely critical, and were not intended to disparage, decry or belittle. We could not consent to be present or participate in any effort to impede or destroy the progress and prospects of a young man just setting out in life. If we indulge in sharp criticism of his conduct, sometimes, it is in the nature of a corrective.

While we think Mr. Morrison's conduct in the matter of the Governor's and Treasurer's salary indefensible, we desire not to be of those who would unduly prejudice him with his constituents; on the contrary we will say that he is a very clever and working young member, and a very worthy young gentleman.

The New German University. The University of Strasburg has been organized by the Germans on a liberal scale, and is now entering upon its second session. It has sixty-seven Professors and several more are to be appointed. The number of students the first session was two hundred and thirteen, and is now increased to three hundred and eighty-four, or an average of nearly six students to each Professor. It is reported that the Professors are in high glee, and the students full of enthusiasm. Its two deficiencies, are a suitable building and a good library. The friends of learning in different countries are sending liberal donations of books, to replace what were destroyed during the bombardment in the late Franco-German war. A committee of distinguished gentlemen has been formed in this country to solicit contributions for the same purpose. Authors, publishers and others, wishing to donate books, have been invited to send them to M. RICHARDS MCKELLE, Philadelphia, who will forward them to Strasburg.

The New York Tribune. It is stated by the New York dailies that Hoff. Schuyler Colfax, Vice-President of the United States and President of the Senate, will resign the Vice-Presidency in a few days to become the Editor-in-Chief of the New York Tribune, which position was tendered Mr. Colfax some three weeks ago, and has been held under advisement since that time. Mr. Whitelaw Reid, Managing Editor under Mr. Greeley, and Editor during the Presidential campaign, has resigned and will retire to-morrow. Several of the Editors have resigned. The political staff will undergo a complete change, and the Tribune will again take its place as a supporter of the Administration, and as the leading Republican paper of America.

Under Mr. Greeley, the Tribune was by far the best paper this side of the Atlantic, and the equal of any paper published on the continent of Europe. If Mr. Colfax can make the Tribune the great and influential paper that it was in its palmist days under Mr. Greeley, he will establish a reputation for himself as great as that of Mr. Greeley; will deserve and will receive the thanks of the American people.

The Work of the Legislature. The News differs somewhat with the Era in its estimate of the work of the Legislature performed for the fifty thousand and odd hundred dollars the members spent on themselves and favorite henchmen of the Conservative party, and tries very hard to make it appear that the time and the money was not wholly lost.

The PEOPLE, however, will not believe the statements of the News in the face of the facts against it, but looking to the work done as shown by the captions of the acts, they will sustain the Era in the assertion, that it is the most partizan, weak and unprofitable body of men the Conservative-Democratic-Liberal party could have gotten together in the State, the most negligent of the People's interests and the most wasteful of the People's money.

The matter will come up for full discussion and comparison, on the stump, in August, 1873, and the return of a Republican Legislature will be a fitting rebuke to the party of upstarts and pretenders which has essayed to rule North Carolina by shouting its fictitious "wealth," counterfeit "virtue," self-asserted "intelligence," and over-estimated "respectability."

The Rate of Mileage. The mileage this Legislature pays itself is TWENTY CENTS each way, or Forty cents for both ways, instead of Ten cents each way, as many of the papers of the State are printing it.

THE GREENSBORO STATE sums up the work of the Legislature in its own way, and somewhat differs with the News in its estimate of the service for which the people have paid $50,400 of their hard-earned money.

The State Pen.

The attention of the reader is invited to a communication relative to the State Pen, bearing the full name of the author.

The management of this institution for the past two years, under the usurpation of a Conservative Democratic Legislature, is an outrage on our people and a disgrace to the State.

As to the thieving propensities and practices of the management, that was established by an investigation the Legislature undertook last Winter. But not one of the officers was removed, the Legislature, saying by its action, "we endorse the rascality of this rascally management." We propose to nail, and keep nailed, this infamous set and still more infamous and corrupt Legislature which sustained them; for the corruption of the New York Tammany ring was nothing in comparison with the corrupt management of the State Pen, and the corrupt Conservative Legislature which created and sustained the said management.

The Courts below have sustained the Governor in his efforts to displace the Bledsoe set last Spring, and as the matter is in the Supreme Court we look for a decision at the hands of that tribunal at an early day.

We understand that the threat has gone out from the Bledsoe headquarters, that resistance will be made to the Board of the Governor should the Supreme Court decide adversely to the Bledsoe Board.

In that event the duty of the Governor will be plain, and we have no doubt he will perform it. If he has the right under the law to appoint a Board of Directors, and an illegal Board attempts to retain possession of the Penitentiary, it will be proper for the Governor to employ any force necessary to displace and dislodge the unlawful and lawless combination.

Let us be understood. If Mr. Bledsoe, finding himself overruled in the Courts, attempts to resist the law he is reported to have said he will do with his armed guard, then it will be proper for Governor Caldwell to call on the military force of the United States stationed in this State, and at whatever cost of time, blood or treasure, make final and complete conquest of the State Pen, and the force there entrenched.

A rebellious and stiff-necked people must be taught that there is power in the land to sustain and carry out the laws of the land, and the more summarily it is done the better.

The two Parties and Their Organs. The award of the State Printing to the organ of the Democrats has given great dissatisfaction to the old Whigs, or as they now call themselves, Conservatives.

The News originated in obedience to the demand of the Democrats of North Carolina for an organ; and it grew up out of the complaints and dissatisfaction of old line Democrats who had tired of following the lead of defunct old Whigs, galvanized, by the circumstances of the war, into live Conservatives.

These "old cocks" will not ride unless they are allowed to drive, and they say "count us out" when it comes to putting on the Democratic livery.

The old Democrats and Whigs have been fighting each other on the "dead line" of "Conservatism" ever since the war, and until recently the Whigs have decidedly the advantage. These latter were shrewd enough to possess and control the State organ at the capitol, and every effort to establish a Democratic paper at Raleigh failed, until the News came in and took the State Printing.

This is a blow from which the old Whigs will never recover, and it weakens the remnant of the opposition to the Republican party in proportion as it destroys the old Whigs, and buries them in the grave of "Conservatism" they had dug for the Democrats.

These old Whigs are at the bottom of all the Ku Klux mischief in the State since the war, and the Whig organ, established at Raleigh in 1865 by the lamented Wm. E. Pell, is responsible for greater damages and disasters to North Carolina than the war itself.

We therefore rejoice that the old Whig standard has been lowered, its hosts scattered, and the power of the organization destroyed. The Republicans aided the Democrats to crush the Whig organ of mischief and disaster, and with the Democrats, we rejoice that the Democratic organ has secured the State Printing.

The Republican minority of the Legislature take upon themselves none of the responsibility of the all pay and no work of this General Assembly.

The people are reminded of the promises of the Conservative party and their way of fulfilling them; and their attention is invited to the fact that another election for Senators and Representatives occurs again in August 1873, little more than eighteen months hence.

What the Republicans of this Legislature have Done.

While the People are muttering, complaining and cursing, loud, long and deep, at the do-nothingness and extravagance of this Legislature with a Democratic majority of twenty-four, the constituencies of the Republican minority are pleased at the conduct of the Republican Senators and Representatives; for they have not only endeavored to secure wise, appropriate and economical legislation, but they have carried mischief, dismay and destruction into the camp of the enemy on two very important occasions.

First, the Democratic majority undertook to elect a United States Senator under strictly Democratic auspices. In this the Republicans foiled them, and getting up a combination, took the standard bearer of the Democrats and Conservatives last Summer, and sent him to the United States Senate, having previously filled the much coveted Executive Chair with a gentleman of their own.

Next came the State Printing. The Speaker of the House fixed up a large Committee on Printing, left off the only practical printer in the House of Representatives, and gave the Republican membership of fifty-three of a hundred and twenty members but one representative on a House Committee of seven.

The said Speaker, favoring the Whig organ of the city, felt that he had "gerrymandered" his Committee to a perfect success, and so thought the Whig organ itself, but it so happened in joint session with the Senate Committee on Printing, that the Republican of the House and the one from the Senate, together with the Democrats unexpectedly found on the Joint Committee, by a little combination, decided the Printing question by giving it to the Democratic organ, while the friends of the Whig organ were beating about the bush.

This was as great a triumph as the election of a Senator over the caucus nominee; it is equally an occasion for Republican rejoicing, with the Senatorial event; and the two occasions, together, are ample for the satisfaction of Republican constituencies with their Senators and Representatives in this General Assembly of North Carolina.

Our Greenville mob, such an eyesore at Goldsboro, has been partially investigated at Greenville in the Superior Court.

Roach and E. A. Smith, the deputy marshals, who were mobbed and then indicted for assault and battery and manslaughter were acquitted upon the testimony of the State witnesses. None of the witnesses for the defence were examined. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the horrible testimony revealed before the court by that furious mob. I just mention this to set myself right before those who insist on obeying the laws of the United States and see them duly executed. I attended our court on Tuesday of the first week of the term, and three men attempted to insult me with "how about Goldsboro?" They never said one thing "how about Horace Greeley and his universal amnesty?" or "how about the Ku Klux?" That was before they knew the court would consume two weeks of their time investigating their crimes, and then only get half through. There is testimony enough in the perpetrators of that mob to convict them in any court under heaven, except Congress. The court or somebody else may give publicity to the