NO. 10.

An Accident in Danbury.

A well-known character named

JOB PRINTING:-Job Work neatly and promptly executed, of every style and on the most reasonable terms. Orders solicited from all parts of the COURT BLANKS a specialty.

EDUCATIONAL.

Greensboro Female College GREENSBORO, N. C.

THE FALL SESSION will begin on Twas a ferocious baggage man, with the 27th of August next, under the presidency of Rev. T. M. Jones, D. D., the former president. The Faculty will consist of Professors W. C. Doub, A. M., W. F. Alderman, A. M., and F. J. Hahr, with a full corps of accomplished lady with a full corps of accomplished lady teachers. For circulars containing full information, apply to the president, or to J. A. CUNINGGIM,

Sec. B. Trustees. Greensboro, July 8, 1873. 5-5tpd Raleigh Female Seminary,

RALEIGH, N. C. F. P. HOBGOOD, A. M., Principals. DR. L. VON MEYERHOFF, of Vienna, Musical Department. proved School apparatus and recent-ist of September, 1873. The Faculty has been largely increased. The Music Department is in pupil of Rubenstein. The Professor is a brilliant performer, has succeeded well as teacher of Vocal and Instrumenal Music in this State. Apply for catalogue. 4 2m

PEACE INSTITUTE, Raleigh, N. C.,

Rev. R. BURWELL, Principal. John B. Burwell, A. M., Associate S. J. Stevens, A. M., Principals. Prof. A. Banmann, Instructor in Vocal and Instrumental Music. The Fall Term Commences Sept. 1st, 1873.

For circular containing full particulars as to terms, course of study, &c., REV. R. BURWELL & SON, july 2. 3-2m Raleigh, N. C.

HOTELS.

NATIONAL HOTEL, RALEIGH, N. C. IN CALLING ATTENTION to this that I may have a liberal share of travel. worthy of patronage. Rates per day, First Floor, Second Floor, 2.00

J. M. BLAIR, july 15. 5-4w. FRENCH'S NEW HOTEL

COR. CORTLANDT & NEW CHURCH STS., NEW YORK, ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN. RICHARD P. FRENCH,

Son of the late Col. RICHARD FRENCH. of French's Hotel, has taken this Hotel, newly fitted up and entirely renovated | have been the high price of money | labor in other fields. The Episco-BUSINESS PART of the City. LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S DINING ROOMS ATTACHED.

EBBITT HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C. PITTSBORO HOTEL,

H. H. BURKE, Proprietor. H. C. ECCLES, Proprietor, CENTRAL HOTEL CHARLOTTE, N. C. March 7, 1873.

THE OCEAN HOUSE, BEAUFORT, N. C.

within a few feet of the House. The Rooms are delightfully ventilat-

The Servants are well trained, polite laily evening Hops; a Billiard Saloon; Pleasure Boats for sailing, visiting the surf-bathing grounds and for fishing;

tion nor expense to make the stay of ments made with families.

Refers to all who have ever been guests at the Ocean House. "Ocean" with the "Atlantic" House. able for ALL DUES. This is the RAILBOAD FARE. The following Rates for Return Tickets (good for the season) are made on the faith in usury legislation. It only North Carolina Railroad:-

Raleigh to Morehead City and re-Hillsboro to Morehead City and Greensboro to Morehead City and High Point to Morehead City and Lexington to Morehead City and Salisbury to Morehead City and to Morehead City, (Beaufort Harbor.)

CARDS.

SION H. ROGERS, Attorney at Law

RALEIGH, N. C., Office on Fayetteville Street, two half squares South of Yarborough House, Haywood old office. Practices in the Federal and State Courts.

T. P. DEVEREUX R. C. BADGER. BADGER & DEVEREUX, Solicitors in Bankruptcy, Office in Stronach Building, second doo

North of Yarborough House, BALEIGH, N. C., Will attend to all cases of Bankruptcy. Mr. Badger will attend all the terms of the District Courts.

No extra fee charged for consultation May 13, 1873.

the turtle, and it clung to him un-til he reached the White street No. 1 FAYETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH N. C., bridge, when it let go; but the Old numbers of Supreme Court Reports taken in exchange for binding. W. N. H. SMITH. GEO. V. STRONG SMITH & STRONG, Attorneys and Counsellors at Law, Raleigh, N. C.

[From the Baltimore Sun.]

Female Dress.

VOL. III.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1873.

POETRY.

The Baggage Fiend. BY FRANK CLIVE.

Atlantean back, And biceps on each arm piled in a for midable stack, That plied his dread vocation beside a railroad track.

platform there pell mell, And crushed to naught the frail bandbox where'er it shapeless fell, Or stove the "Saratoga" like the flimsiest egg shell.

On iron clads, especially, he fell full And eke the trunk derisively called "Cottage by the sea,"

And pulled and hauled and rammed and jammed the same vindictively.

Until a yawning breach appear fractures two or three, ly purchased musical outfit will open on | Or straps were burst, or lids fell off, or some catastrophe Crowned his satanic zeal, or moved his diabolic glee.

charge of Professor Von Meyerhoff, a The passengers surveyed the wreck with diverse discontent, And some vituperated him, and some made loud lament: But wrath or lamentation on him were vainly spent.

> To him there came a shambling man, sad-eyed and meek and thin, Bearing an humble carpet-bag with scanty stuff therein. And unto that fierce baggage man be spake with quivering chin :

Behold this seanty carpet-bag! started a month ago, With a dozen Saratoga trunks, hatbox and portmanteau, But baggage men along the route have brought me down thus low! "Be careful with this earpet-bag, kind sir," said he to him. The baggage man received it with smile extremely grim, And softly whistled "Mother, may l go out to swi n?" Then fiercely jumped upon that bag, in wild, sardonic spleen, And into countless fragments flew-to his profound chagrin-For that lank bag contained a pint of nitro-glycerine!

And then he winked with one sad eye, and said, with smile serene. nitro-glycerine! From the Buffalo Courier.

[From Richmond State Journal.] Money.

which almost immediately followed | pal Church is small in North Carorepeal. But it is an unfortunate lina, but she has given an unusually fact for the advocates of usury leg- large number of Bishops to other islation that the stringency was dioceses.

Honest industry and legitimate ticed law for some years and entered

The remedy is in the assumption | Bishop Paine of Alabama, an of control by the people of the man- honored name among Methodists, ufacture of money. The people was born in Person County. Dr. who use money to subdue the earth | Wadsworth, a very distinguished and improve the condition of its Methodist preacher of Alabama, inhabitants by creative labor are was born in Craven, and Dr. J. E. SAM. R. STREET, Proprietor. alone the safe custodians of the Edwards, a gentleman of fine repupower to manufacture money. Its tation in the Virginia Conference, THIS HOUSE is never closed and circulation can be placed under was born in the Guilford County. has the advantage of being always their control by legislation of the I am not so familiar with the simplest character. It is only nec- great names of the Presbyterian Passengers land at the Hotel Wharf, essary to understand the true nature | Church, but as that Church has al-The Table is supplied with all the trouble now lies. Money is a tool ber of learned and able men in its or instrument. A few favored par- ministry at home. I have no doubt ties are now manufacturing it. Suppose, as used to be done by of eminent laborers in other parts European monarchs, the govern- of the great vineyard which the ment should farm out the privilege | South and West have afforded. of making plows among those who could best pay for it, limiting in the have enriched other States have same franchise the total amount of been peculiarly great, and it shall and a Bathing-House within a few feet plows that could be manufactured, be the special object of this series of Promenades may be taken along the would be scarce and high at times, illustrate their virtues. We have wide verandahs, or on the Promenade and that farmers would be quite at had some great men in North Carthe mercy of the manufacturers? | olina, Biddle, Meredith, Wait, his grests happy and full of pleasure; the money market. We want free man, J. L. Pritchard and others, and no charge is made for ice-water banking. We want the government were all good and useful men, and sent to rooms, or for any trifling extra | which now comes into the market | some of them were great men, but as the great borrower to pay a low- our greatest men have shed the To Invalids he offers the very panacea er rate of interest and issue money lustre of their splendid talents on just such as we have now in the other fields. legal tenders, convertible into bonds bearing a low rate of interest, at the option of the holder. We want in our Baptist Zion, more illustri-THE NAME.—Do not confound the this money thus convertible receive ous names than those of Mercer, first step; and this taken, the next will soon be clear. We have no distracts the attention of the people from the true source of help which $ 8 65 is to relieve the currency from the

14 40 Handling a Snapping Turtle

by the Wrong End. snapping turtle, that sociable animal to do anything for him; for they ed man tearing over the hill, swinging a small carpet-bag in one hand, and they at once concluded it was a narrow escape from highway robbery. However, it was not a carpet-bag he was swinging; it was

[From Raleigh Biblical Recorder.] Men Born in North Carolina, Who have Attained Distinction in other States-Statesmen, Jurists, Divines, &c.

In searching for facts in the personal history of Baptists Ministers, who were born in North Carolina, and have attained eminence in other States, my mind naturally Wildly he tossed the baggage round the reverted to the many distinguished men, in the various walks of life, who were natives of this State but have achieved reputation beyond her borders. I was surprised to

H. Steele, who became Governor of New Hampshire, was a native of Rowan, and a carriage maker by trade.

Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, who has been Governor of Connecticut, and is now a member of Congress, and the chairman of the National Cen-Robeson County and is by profession a printer. Gov. Mosely, of Florida, was a native of Lenoir. Gov. Polk, of Tenn., of Mecklenburg; Bayley Peyton, of the same State, and a from North Carolina; so was Gen. Felix K. Zollicoffer, who fell early in the late war. Chancellor J. L. Sneed, of the Supreme Court of Tenn., was born in Raleigh. Judge ed that every advance in sivilization vote if she dont want to, but Io House, it is with the ardent hope The stranger heaved a gentle sigh and Bragg were the sons of John Bragg, a carpenter in Warren County, who had the wisdom to educate his 'The stuff to check a baggage man is boys, and in some respects, an abler man than all of these was Thomas Hart Benton, of Missouri, who was dident mind that old judge no more born in Orange County. These are than if he was a monkey. She told Danville, Virginia, to A a few names that have risen up be-fore the eye of memory, or the completed. It is the state of the complete o many sons of North Carolina, who The friends of the usury law are have become distinguished in affairs quoting with an air of triumph the of State beyond her borders. Nor example of Connecticut. She re- is the list smaller or less brilliant, pealed her law against usury, but when we come to estimate the numafter nine month's experience has ber and character of the eminent restored it. The cause seems to preachers our State has sent forth to general. Money was worth in New | Bishop Polk, of Tennessee, was York City 50 per cent during that born in Raleigh, and in the main We called attention to this building of the Baptist Female state of things at the time, and en- Seminary. The present Bishop of deavored to point out the true cause Georgia, John Beckwith, was also of this damaging tightness in the porn in this city. Bishop Davis, money market. It has occurred of South Carolina, a man of sainted before, and will again, while the piety, was a North Carolinian, so present false system of finance con- was Bishop Hawks, of Missouri, tinues. The currency, which is to Bishop Green, of Miss., Bishop Pittsboro, Chatham Co., N. C. | the business world what the imple- | Freeman, of Arkansas, and a greatments of industry are to the laborer, er man by odds than either of them, is controlled by rings. These rings | Dr. Francis L. Hawks, who died tighten or loosen, expand or con- only a few years since in New York, tract to suit their convenience. was born in North Carolina, prac-

the ministry in this State.

money to see where the great | ways had an unusually large numthat it has contributed its full quota

The men with whom the Baptists it not quite clear that plows articles, to sketch their lives, and That is precisely the trouble with | Finch, McDaniel, Crudup, Trot-

> During the past hundred years no State in this Union has produced, Kerr, Brantly, Manly, Mims, Howell and Poindexter. T. H. P.

The Escape of Benjamin.

is to relieve the currency from the ring of financial Pirates who have captured it.

Dr. Edward Warren, of Baltimore, who has gone to Egypt in the service of the Khedive, dined with Mr. Benjaman in London the other day. In a letter to the Baltimore Bulletin, Dr. Warren has the fol-Bulletin, Dr. Warren has the fol-lowing account of Benjamin's es-

19 00 has succeded in getting his family Benjamin, who so distinguished vote apiece for themselves and one Return Tickets on the Atlantic and a little place, free from encum- himself as Secretary of State to the for every child they had. This last North Carolina Railroad (good for the brance, was fishing in Still river, late Confederate Government. He would elevate the Arpian family season) are Five Dollars from Goldsboro near the Beaver Crook Mills, on is a most charming companion. He about the election times shore. Ak-Sunday afternoon.—After sitting possesses a peculiar vivacity of kording to Solomon, all sich ought Trains leave Goldsboro daily at 1:30, on the bank for a couple of hours, mind, which renders him specially to hva a heap of privileges, for it Louisville, Ky., hangs, on a pair of without catching anything, he was interesting under all circumstances. aint no pikayune bisness to raise a rustic hooks an old rifle and a shot gratified to see, on a flat stone in the water, a snapping turtle sunning itself. The butt-end of the career at the London bar, was thrill-look upon respektable children as turtle was toward him, and he ing to the last degree. Alone, and the hope of the State, and if I had up is an old letter dated 1789. Only thought he would capture it; but in the disguise of a farmer seeking my way these stagnant old rips who these, and nothing more. The old while he was looking for a place to lands, he succeeded in reaching the won't marry, but prowl around and powder horn is stopped up by a stop, the turtle gravely turned western coast of Florida. There he live easy and die rich and leave no plug of wood, which has been so around without his knowledge, hired an open boat, and, with two and when he got in reaching disfishermen as his companions, proshould be taxed heavy and the that the end is chewed off close. tance, and stooped down to take ceeded on the perilous enterprise of hold of what nature designed should a voyage to the West India Islands. India Islands. Support that the stopper bears the marks of the teeth be taken hold of while handling a After making the entire circuit of State who leaves it no defenders of Daniel Boone; that rifle was the the peninsular-traveling only at after he's ded and gone; who pat- first gun of the battles on the dark just reached out and took hold of Mr. Grisley's hand with a grasp that left no doubt of its sincerity. The shrieks of the unfortunate man aroused some of the neighbors, but when they arrived it was too late to do anything for him; for they sel took fire, and he was rescued jast caught a glimpse of a bare-head- and again carried to the island. Finally, he reached London, and in the latter part of August, 1865, commenced his career as a barrister. He was without means, his friends powerless, and he had to take a position upon the lowest round of the professional ladder. Brains, however, invariably tell in the long run. He soon electrified the nation And Blank Book Manufacturer.

And Blank Book Manufacturer.

Newspapers, Magazines, and Law Books, of every description, bound in the very best style, and at lowest prices. The ludicrousness of the affair burst upon him, and when the very best style, and at lowest prices. The ludicrousness of the affair burst upon him, and when his wife looked at white face and price and finally after a splendid.

Tun. He soon electrined the latton by the brilliancy of his genius, the power of his logic, and the depth and variety of his legal knowledge. His fame extended, his clients multi-his wife looked at white face and price and finally after a splendid.

From the Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel. THE WOMAN QUESTION. Bill Arp on Female Suffrage-Trial of Susan Antney, &c.

ROME, GA., Aug. 1873. MR. EDITUR-Soosan Antney is nuthin to me-that is nuthin pertickler. No woman aint excep derstood about this votin busin Mrs. Arp, but when I heard they I aint in favor of women mixing was a tryin her for votin, my feminine instincks carried me strait to polls. By no means. I want the kourthouse. I was on her side moral strength and influence before I got there and I am on her side yit. Women in general is my weekness and espeshally a woman men, but I would hev em to sta square on her pastern joints, and re- children. But as the world g marked that she was free-born and older she keeps a steppin up high nativ born and had property of her Sum of em are studying me own, and had a right to vote for and make the best sort of do the law-makers of her choice. She for women, and for children said that women done as much for hour old an under. They do cle the country as the men, and, if they and book-keepin and telegra tennial Committee, was born in Robeson County and is by profession the boys that did. That havin em offis better than a man and and nussin em in sikness and in steal a sent. If they do peep helth was a harder job than fightin, other women's letters its on and if men dident believe it, jest of kuriosity, and they always let em try it a while. She sed if em up again. Take it altoget e the judge could name good reesun looks to me like the time has man of national reputation, was why they shouldent vote, she want- nigh cum when the men have the ed to know what it was.

Soosan's eyes flashed a little angelic fire when the judge fined her a hundred dollars, and she remark to admit that a woman is justs good as a man if not better in met everything that requires more see than muscel. I wont say she pro She throwd a hundred dollar bill over to the clerk, and sed she would bet another hundred dollars that that money never | The Air-Line Route to Atlan. votin bisness on morality, or prop- 407 miles in length, and has est erty or intelligence, or all three put $8,000,000. From Danville to Riotogether, the women would be sat- mond is 140 miles, making the dsisfied; but they based it on wear-in britches, and drinkin whisky, chawin tobakker, and keepin one wife at home and another sum where else. She declared that she had as much rite to choose her political masters as Suthern niggers or the hethen Chinee. That if the women could vote there wouldent be most beautiful and fertile sections a drunkard, nor a thief, nor a fool of the United States, and a section on the bench, nor in any other offis, remarkably rich, moreover, it min-

get than arsenik. An old, red nosed Richmond Enquirer justly reswell faced winked one eye at her marks:and hikken the be hell you It lies at the base say." When the court adjourned Ridge, is abundantly the crowd cheered Soosey, and one man sed he'd pay the fine; another sed he'd see her a fair fite with the sons is delightful; the heat of am-John Morrisey.

meaner man than his daddy, or Carolina and Georgia constitutes the they lack in substance. gist say that the way to test a man's quantity is inexhaustible, and the can only be effectively performed at a fool for a man. He sed that this in puddling furnaces, are greatly test would rule out nearly all the superior to Champlain ores. There idiots and Africans from votin, and if it dident their faith in witches market when the Air-Line Railwould. I wouldent let a furriner | road was commenced at $25,000, for vote who was over 30 years old; oak, post oak, hickory, poplar, and though I would let all sich justify other varieties.

of great principles? Why, a chronic owner were temporarily in their old batchelor can just turn over in possession and power. A hundred his one-horse bed and die and not years ago, that old hero, e keer a durn if the world cums to an with those trusty and dead end in fifteen minutes. He wouldent keer if the devil was to break life, roaming over the children alive. Now Im not sayin a word agin them married foaks who sumhow carved by his hunting knife back bone, its life inshoorance no patience with these sting stags who wont marry withou git a pile of penshun muney, want to be hired to do it, who around a town, waiting for sum gal to turn up, while theres lo po ones, purty and clever, waiting to take shoogar in the Now I don't want to be mi with skalawags and trash at BILL In a few days the new road from and whiskey would be harder to eral deposits of great value. I the judge; another said the law dident mer is tempered by cool mountain say whether the britches must be breezes; it is cooler by several de-worn outside or inside, and another grees than New York or Philadelsed he'd rather risk the women to phia. Rarely does snow exceed an vote than thousands of them drunk- inch in depth, and there are elevaen furriners and fools who elected ted localities where it is unknown. thing, or who chawed tobaker after of iron which it contains. The Piedhe had gone to bed, or who was a mont region of North and South who believed in gosts and witches, best and surest cotton belt of the from the top of his upper lip to his United States. There are 65 per lower corner of his nose to the hole from sulphur and phosphorous, pein his ear, and if the angle between | culiarly well adapted to steel manvote until he had lived here and be- which the owners now ask nearly haved himself for ten years, and he shouldent vote then unless he had paratively few settlements along married an Amerikan gal or was a the line between Charlotte and Atraisin children on Amerikan soil. I lanta. The country is covered with wouldent let no unmarried man forest, consisting of pine, white

by swearin that they had tried but All this fine country will soon be Relics of Daniel Boone.

In the Public Library building at trements, led a charmed, loose and eat up the women and which he was lord, from "Conhowa," (as he spell the Mississippi. The be or else haint aksidently been hangs by a leather string to the old belt, bears the inscriction :--"Daniel Boone, 1774." Jefferson, in his Ana affair burst upon him, and when his wife looked at white face and bare head, and dust begrimed clothes, and asked what was the matter, only he matter on head, appeared to be much relieved to find that he wasn't.—Danbury News.

His fame extended, his clients muiting the sale and seven in sale and seven in washingto cabin ment and poetry. If that message with a very huge tail. "What do grand seene in Washingto cabin ment and poetry. If that message to down to east the sale and to the succeeded or received a note from the Chief Justice, saying his "gown was the was afraid be whether he was to blame or not, said the General in the was promoted to the distinguished whether he was to blame or not, said the General in the wasn't.—Danbury News.

His fame extended, his clients muiting in the was splendid or said the sent of the ment and poetry. If that message with a very huge tail. "What do grand seene in Washingto cabin ment and poetry. If that message with a very huge tail. "What do you mean!" The young women who will study at Michigan University during the stops the flow of blood. This whether he was to blame or not, said the General in the wasn't, but the lives of the wasn't whether he was to blame or not, said the General in the wind of a multi-not of the law on the ediusion to the with a very huge tail. "What do you mean!" The young women who will study at Michigan University during the stops the flow of blood. This whether he was to blame or not, whether he was to blame or not, whether the delusion to the delusion to the with a very huge tail. "What do you mean!" The young women who will study at Michigan University during the was an order for drinks for the would have edulated to the with a very huge tail. "What do you mean!" The young women who will study with the lives of d

An essay has lately been published by Miss E. S. Phelps, of Boston, upon the subject of "What to Wear," applicable particularly to female ess, in which she arraigns the modern style of female raiment as injurious to health, opposed to conof his reminiscences:) venience, and antagonistic to all the ssential conduct of life. This lady, who seems to have turned state's evidence against her own sex, aserts that dress is employed by wo-men to attract masculine attention, before got there and I am on her borders. I was surprised to find them so numerous, and will be did but the sortes of articles by adverting very briefly to some of these and become an about the sortes of articles by adverting very briefly to some of these all illustrious names.

It is now sattled beyond controlled and that the source of the state of the should cease. Miss Phelps considers that the preominating cause of unmindful of the character and these evils of dress is a desire to at- feelings of others; and that when tract men, and thinks it would be thoroughly excited the sublime better for the girl to say roundly, grandeur of his thoughts and lan-'Do you love me?" than to woo the man she likes by unhealthy styles of dress. Miss Phelps is no doubt a little impressive gestures. I then said to too severe upon her own sex, The him: "But, General Hayne, every love of beauty may need cultivation, one in the South admired your but it is in itself a natural and proper sentiment, The whole of the physical creation is adorned in a physical creation is adorned in a they did those of Mr. Webster; and way to render it pleasing and at- it is said that General Jackson was trective. The flower of the field, that blooms to-day and to-morrow your speeches in the Senate that he is cast into the oven, is arrayed in a had it printed on satin for distribudress that Solomon in all his glory tion among his friends at a distance. rolled off the seat, and down be- which he says he explained to Plucould not equal. The fact that vast Was this so?" To which he re- tween the horses, starting them in- to thousands of years ago, at a ban-Bragg of Mobile, and Gen. Braxton Bragg, were the sons of John Bragg, She was reddy. She throwd a hunplants and flowers of the most beautiful hues, and that the bottom of they believed that I had been dethe sea is lined with shells of diver- fending in it their own local intersified and gorgeous colors, would ests and honor. General Jackson them were over the fence and putseem to indicate, as has been recent- admired it because he thought that ly suggested, that the love of beau- I had successfully vindicated the ty is divine. At the same time it Democratic cause, to the support of the field entirely to the possession a wheel. He became, in consecannot be denied that extravagance which his own life had been devot- of the deceased, who was threat- quence, so excessively insolent, in dress is one of the prevailing ed. But you know that in a few evils of our social life. An esthetic months thereafter, when our nulifitaste may be gratified while kept cation experiment had developed within useful and moral limits. its gigantic proportions, and after Beauty "when least adorned" is "oft adorped the most." Absolute in the Senate between Mr. Calhoun low's Hill, breaking the wagon and couple; otherwise they are subjected grace in female attire can be attain- and my ancient antagontist Mr. low's rilli, oreaking the harness. The negro, a miserable, scolding, peevish, and ed without gaud and extravagance. Webster, General Jackson became whose name is Peterson, had two uncongenial matrimony. The search The best bred ladies study simplici- so great an admirer of the Senator of his ribs broken and was serious- is rendered difficult, for the reason of his ribs broken and was seriousty in their attire on ordinary occasions, and there is no surer mark of vulgarity and bad taste than deviation from this rule. An excessive passion for dress is reprehensible enough even when there are means is reprehensible and the serious structures of the Senator from Massachusetts, that he thought seriously of making him Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States upon the decease of the venerated Marshall. Be assured, and it is therefore seldom that a properly united couple come together." enough even when there are means sir," he continued, "I never for one knees and beg for a ride. to gratify it, but it seems to pervade moment have thought of compar> pends upon her clothing, not her moral and religious culture, not the graces of her mind and person. to his great and unequaled speech but the achievements which she in reply thereto; though it is cerflaunts through the streets of the tain that for a day or two it seemed milliner and the mantua-maker. In a contest for display of this kind of in the contest." course only those who have great wealth can carry off the the highest Now I've been thinking a heap grape, grow luxuriantly and yield bout this votin business myself and abundantly. Vineyards are multimy opinyun ar that Gov. Jinkins plying rapidly, and the product in dred dollar furs, street costumes cials of the Postoffice Department is a mity smart man, The first time he run for Governor they beat him because he sed he dident think that every fool and every vagabond ort to be allowed to vote. He was for drawin in the lines instead of for drawin in the lines instead of lettin em out, and the melankolly sequel hev proved that he wer right. If was a king I wouldent let anybody yote who couldent tell of the world a single companies of these rocks furnish abundance of alkaline matter, from which cause the Piedmont sections of Virginia and North Carolina have become the best tobacco lands let anybody yote who couldent tell of the world a single company and who sail survives, in good health, enjoying the esteem and honor that should accompany adhonor that should accompany adhonor that should accompany and honor that should accompany an let anybody vote who couldent tell whether General Jackson was dead or alive, or who took more than three drinks a day as a regular is red resulting from the emiddien of the splender to those who are able to splender to the splend three drinks a day as a regular is red, resulting from the oxidation splendor to those who are able to In this our bright and ever-favored them to make up in show what

There is no part of female educaonst a week, or who dident earn 50 cents a day at sum respektable bisness, or who shouted at nite baye been exemined than the training of girls in the proper cultivation of the love of meetins more than two hours on a by Profs. Genth and Lesley, of the the vulgar ostentations and rivalstretch. I heard a blind freenolo- University of Pennsylvania. The ries of dress. This is a work which sense was to draw a straight line quality equal to any others in the home, and by the mother whose forrerd and and another from the cent. magnetic ores, entirely free uine, should make it her ambition unselfishness, and good sense, those was less than 60 degrees he might ufacture; also titaniferous ores for jewels of the heart and mind which be smart for a monkey but he was felting, which, from practical tests are more valuable than all outward duce so much more to the lasting happiness and welfare of their chil-

A House Not Taxable.

Says a writer in the Overland architecture I have ever seen, was that which a woodchopper occupied with his family one winter, in the forest of Santa Cruz county. It was nobody would have em. Id make open to the enterprise of the people of this District. They are forty feet in height. Fire had eaten away of Baltimore, and have only to the cavity of a redwood tree 240 feet in height. Fire had eaten away of Baltimore, and have only to the trunk at the base, until a circu-A man name Grisley, who by strict economy and severe industry has succeeded in getting his family a little place, free from energy in 1800:

A man name Grisley, who by strict economy and severe industry has succeeded in getting his family a little place, free from energy in 1800:

A man name Grisley, who by strict economy and severe industry has succeeded in getting his family a little place, free from energy in 1800:

A man name Grisley, who by strict economy and severe industry has succeeded in getting his family a little place, free from energy in 1800:

A man name Grisley, who by strict off by the foregoin in diameter. At twenty feet or make an effort to secure a large portion of its trade, which eventually must prove very lucrative.

A man name Grisley, who by strict off by the foregoin in diameter. At twenty feet or more from the ground was a knot-work appearance for themselves and one hole which efforded errors for the secure a large portion of its trade, which eventually must prove very lucrative.

The humblest of us is himself a King. Postoffice Department April 2 1842. smoke. With hammocks hung from pegs, and a few cooking utensils hung from other pegs, that house lacked no essential thing. This woodman was in possession of a house which had been one thousand years in process of building. Perhaps on the very day it was finished he came along and entered in. How did all jack-knife and handshelving rocks, if one could not land half a dozen trout within an hour ney? Yours, etc." he deserved to go hungry as a penalty for his awkwardness. Now good consoler? and then a deer came out into the opening, and at no great distance, quails, rabbits and pigeons could Hayne's Estimate of Webster.

The Hon. Henry S. Foote met the the distinguished orator Robert J. Hayne in Alabama, in 1869, and heard him deliver an address in behalf of a railway enterprise, which charmed every one who heard it .-In a conversation at this time with Mr. Hayne Mr. Foote states (in one

I ventured to refer to the great oratical contest between himself and Webster, in the National Senate, now nearly half a century ago, and asked him what he thought of Mr. Webster's powers as a speaker.

to forget his own dignity, or to be guage derived great additional potency from his noble and soul-mov- and—" ing enunciation and his few but so much delighted with the first of true; the people of the South genthe memorable contest had occurred yells. The horses ran over Gal- halves meet, they are a very loving all classes, without regard to means. ing that speech of mine, made in General Scott and President How India Rubber Shoes were ing that speech of Mr. Webster direct assailment of Mr. Webster and the Federal party of old, and to the defense of which I had he was very hostile to both General Scott and General Taylor, and And to begin (I'm not a "ring-tail roarer! Marcy plainly told Mr. Polk that, If we've no bores, who'll say we've not as Secretary of War, he would not a Bohrer? tion which needs more attention | Now some may think that I am but a intrust his own reputation to any dolt To say if we've no horses, we've a Colt.* Colonel Benton's assent I will ap-But what care I,? I'm guided by the point him," said Mr. Polk. Gov-"Gunter;" ernor Marcy then called Colonel If we've no hounds, all know we have a Hunter;

And some may deem it not a little droll That, though we have no mill, we will take Towle: And yet more queer (allow me to repeat) That we've no flour, though blest with with first-rate Wheat.* ferring among others to Worth,

"suckers" none, a sound and well-Wool, Jesup, Taylor, condemning all until he came to Scott. About tried Leach;* and what is more (this none will take him Governor Marcy made no inin dudgeon,) f we've no perch, we have a prime live have condemned all but General Scott," and returned with that Nor would we pause, or in our duty falter: We are not led, though you may see our mand of the army in Mexic. The Halter. We love our country, as we've daily shown her: Monthly:-"The loftiest house, and And if not slaves, we surely have an the most perfect in the matter of What's our religion? Let our action tell: Though we've no church, who has not heard our Bell # Here let me stop, though "much re mains unsung;"

If we're not old, alas! we're not all

Here is the way a Detreit man dove-tailed sorrow and satisfaction into one another when his lamented but insured wife departed. Writing to the insurance company, he says: "Dear Sir: I take my pen in hand to let you know that I am well, but that my dear wife, insured for $5,000 in your company, is saw architecture enter into insignifi- no more. She died to-day. Her cance in contrast with this house in the solitudes of the great forest! policy is No.—. I can truly say she was a fond wife and good moth-Moreover, the tenant fared like a er. I have the doctor's certificate, prince. Within thirty yards of his so there will be no trouble about coniferouse house a mountain stream | the policy. She was sick only a went rushing past to the sea. In short time, but suffered much. Do the whirls and eddies under the you give a check in advance, or must I wait sixty days for the mosay that life insurance is not a

Undoubtedly Mr. Keith, of Kinston, Massachusetts, who drew the be found. What did this man want | $100,000 prize in the Louisville lotmore than nature furnished him? | tery is a lucky man, and undoubt-He had a house with a "cupola" edly any one of us would be glad to 240 feet high, and game at the cost obtain a fortune with the same ease, of taking it. This Arcadian sim- and yet the effect of such good luck plicity would have made a lasting on the popular mind is not wholempression, but for a volunteer re- some. In order that he might get mark that nothing could be added his $100,000 probably 125,000 peoto give life a more perfect zest. ple gave a dollar for which they "Well, yes," said he, "I reckon if received nothing. It is only less you are going back to town you honest and straight-forward than might tell Jim to send me up a gallon of whisky and some plug tobaction among strangers. What is co." It will not do to invest a more, 124,999 people were disapof a hollow tree with too much of senti- pointed to make up his exultation.

Rates of Advertising. 1 m. |2 m's. |6 m's. |6 m's. | 12 m. 1 Squ'e $ 3 00 $ 5 00 $ 7 00 $10 00 816 00 5 00 9 00 12 00 16 00 26 00 7 00 12 00 15 00 24 06 85 00 10 00 16 00 18 00 32 00 45 00 Transient advertising ONE DOLLAR per square for the first and FIFTY CENTS

The Battle of Bullfrogs.

Many of the citizens of Vermont for each subsequent insertion.

Wiggins, who is a frequenter of will remember to have seen on one Forceps' salam on Pine street, suddenly fell to the floor of that place State Bank a vignette representing Friday night. Dr. Myers, was passing at the time, was called in, and upon examining the body found of the Bullfrogs. The facts were as that the unfortunate man was follows: Many years ago, when dead, having expired in a fit. The the town of Windham was newly residence of the deceased was not settled, there came a very dry seaknown, but Forceps remembered that a sister lived on Nelson street, and it was decided best to take the body there. It was accordingy wrapped in a blanket and laid in a wagon and driven to the sister's house, Dr. Myers and Mr. Forceps house, Dr. Myers and Mr. Forceps was according to the sister's house, Dr. Myers and Mr. Forceps house, Dr. Myers and Mr. Forceps was according to the sister's house, Dr. Mye

Strange theory of Marriage.

In a Massachusetts insane asylum "He shan't, hey? We'll see if he there is confined an unfortunate man shan't," shouted a stange voice, who thinks that he existed before and looking around the men were Adam. At times he is unusually startled to see the corpse climb grave, and gives expression to down from the wagon and hobble thoughts which demonstrate that there are several grains of philos-"Goddlemity!" shrieked the ter-ror stricken darkey, and at once Here is his theory of marriage, ed upon love and the choice of wi-"Man was originally created Mr. Forceps made a dash in one ves. direction, and the doctor in another, with all the physiological characand in almost a twinkling both of teristics peculiar to both sexes. He ting forth their best efforts without formed his locomotive functions any reference to destination, leaving | with a kind of rotary movement as ening to break down the door, and that Jupiter, indignant, split him the unfortunate driver, who was in two. Since that time each half bounding around in the road, runs through the world in quest of and uttering a frightful chorus of the other half; if the two original

Mrs. Chapman Coleman, a daugh The history of the introduction of ter of John J. Crittenden, and the India rubber over-shoes is a curious author of his life, prints in the story. Before 1821 the rubber had Daily Chronicle of the 27th ultimo been imported only in the form of several letters from General Scott, written in 1846, to Governor Letchcommenting with much severity that time brought, among other de-upon the course pursued by Mr. vices, some rubber wrought in the er, of Kentucky, and to her father,

"But, Madam," protested Dr. the ground was literally covered Myers in a tone of voice that show- with the slain, and it became neced how deeply he was shocked at essary to avoid the noxious effluuia, the inhumanity of the woman; to gather and bury them .- Boston

"think for one moment that this Transcript.

"I won't hear any more," screamed the virago. "I tell you he shan't

Reminiscences the following:

Governor Marcy after his retire-other general. "If you will get ception, Colonel J. Graham, who attended it, congratulated the President on the glorious news. His response was, "Our brave fellows con-

It is very evident from this state-of officers not of his own party.

Caught at Last.

An inveterate braggart named

Bob H., boasted that he had never been "sold," and that no one was cute enough to trick him. While in the Eagle Hotel in the town of N--, with several companions, ect of forgery and imitating signathe conversation drifted to the sub-tures. A stranger present stated that he could imitate Bob's signature so that the latter could not distinguish the genuine from the spurious. Bob doubted this, and the stranger, after a few moments, handed him a folded paper, requesting him to put his signature on it.

Bob did so, without opening the paper. The stranger gave the paper to the bartender, who, after opening bly can tell.

come in this house."

curiosities, such as crocodile, turtles, and other objects. A sea captain at Polk and his cabinet, including shape of small shoes, and gave Governor Marcy, toward himself them as a present to an intelligent and other officers, known to be boy. They were closed over the Whigs. As bearing upon this sub-ject we copy from Mr. Ogle Tayloe's find only some clay within in the form of lasts. His next desire was to put them on his feet, but as they wold not stretch enough, he used the plan of smoking them up in the chimney. He then had completed that but for himself General Scott the first pair of India rubber shoes would not have had command of ever used in this country, and his the army in Mexico, Governor success was the beginning of a business which now has immense proportions.

Extremely Civil.

We received, in a letter to-day, Benton and informed him he had from a correspondent, what the been sent by the President to in- writer declares to be strictly true. quire of him what general he But whether it ever occurred, as he thought ought to have the command. is certain it did, we don't care, we Benton began with the lowest on the will publish it, for it is a good hit army list, to each of whom he an- at the tender way in which some swered alike, "he will not do," re- of our preachers handle their rich and dainty folks:-

"A noted divine, in our city, who presides over the most aristocratic church we have, closed his sermon quiry, but merely remarked, "You once on a time thus:-"My dearly beloved brethren and sisters, if you fail to live according statement to the President, who at to the ordinances of the Gospel, but once appointed Scott to the com- follow the devices and extravagances of a willful and wicked sequel is well known. After the heart, you will unquestionably rebattle of Cerro Gordo, the news of ceive your reward in a certain place, which reached Washington on a which it is not good monners to menday when President Polk had a re- tion here."

Prince Bismarck lives in the Summer at Barzin a life of dreamy quietness. He devotes himself to the improvement of his estate and to ment of Governor Marcy that he the extension of his modest house wished Mr. Tayloe, whom he well which cannot appropriately be callknew to be an intimate friend of ed a castle. Old Count Podewils was not himself opposed to the as-signment of that distinguished offi-was unusually unpretending and culcer to the command of our army in | tivated the greatest simplicity. The Mexico. What the truth of the Blumenthals, who became after matter is no one now living proba- him the owners of the estate, made it more beautiful. At Barzin life The anecdote of Colonel Graham is very reserved and members of confirms General Scott's impression | the family only are received. It is in his letters to Letcher and Critten- no place for strangers, as there is den-that Mr. Polk studiously at- but one poor inn there, and neither tempted to depreciate the services wine nor beer can he had. English correspondents used to come to Barzin in former years, but the tayern has disenchanted them.

> In a secluded portion of St. Paul's hurchyard, corner of Fulton street and Broadway-if anything can be called secluded in that roaring vortex of trade and travel-we once deciphered this quaint inscription: The remains who lie beneathe this Once had Rachel's face and Leah's fruit ful wombe, Abivail's prudence, Sarah's faithful Martha's care, and Mary's better part.

A correspondent of the Scientific American says:

"The best remedy for bleeding at the nose, as given by Dr. Gleason and reading it, asked all present to in one of his lectures, is a vigorous step up to the bar and drink. The motion of the jaws as if in the act party drank, and the bartender called on Bob to pay for the round.
"I pay for the drinks?" asked Bob, who began to smell a mouse listructed to chew it hard, Of with a year bare to the bartender of mastication. In the case of a child a wad of paper should be placed in its mouth, and the child instructed to chew it hard, Of