W. F. Alderman, A. M., and F. J. Hahr, with a full corps of accomplished lady teachers. For circulars containing full information, apply to the president, or to J. A. CUNINGGIM, See. B. Trustees. Greensboro, July 8, 1873. 5-5tpd

Raleigh Female Seminary, RALEIGH, N. C. P. HOBGOOD, A. M., | Principals. A. F. REDD, A. M., And love, in the ages vanished, DR. L. VON MEYERHOFF, of Vienna, Musical Department. The imposing new building with its And they thrilled one heart with their improved School apparatus and recent-ly purchased urusical outfit will open on 1st of September, 1873. sed. The Masic Department is in So rich as your honest love, sed. The Masic Department is in So rich as your honest love, I am your dearest Reuben, yours only, "Till called by the bridegroom above," The Faculty has been largely inupil of Rubenstein. The Professor is a arilliant performer, has succeeded well as teacher of Vocal and Instrumenal Then I turned me to the records *Music in this State. Apply for catalogue.

PEACE INSTITUTE, Enleigh, N. C.,

Rev. R. BURWELL, Principal, John B. Burwell, A. M., | Associate S. J. Stevens, A. M., Principals. Prof. A. Baumann, Instructor in Vocal and Instrumental Music. The Fall Term Commences Sept. 1st, 1873.

For circular containing full particulars as to terms, course of study, &c., REV. R. BURWELL & SON. Raleigh, N. C.

HOTELS.

NATIONAL HOTEL.

RALEIGH, N. C. and I promise to endeavor to make it worthy of patronage. Rates per day, First Floor, J. M. BLAIR,

FRENCH'S NEW HOTEL, COR. CORTLANDT & NEW CHURCH STS., NEW YORK, ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN. RICHARD P. FRENCH, newly fitted up and entirely renovated

Centrally located in the BUSINESS PART of the City. LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S DINING ROOMS ATTACHED.

C. C. WILLARD,

EBBITT HOUSE WASHINGTON, D. C.

PITTSBORO HOTEL, Pittsboro, Chatham Co., N. C. H. H. BURKE, Proprietor. H. C. ECCLES, Proprietor, CENTRAL HOTEL,

CHARLOTTE, N. C. March 7, 1873. THE OCEAN HOUSE,

BEAUFORT, N. C. SAM. R. STREET, Proprietor.

THIS HOUSE is never closed and has the advantage of being always ready for the reception of guests. Passengers land at the Hotel Wharf, with n a few feet of the House, The Table is supplied with all the delicacies of land and sea, The Rooms are delightfully ventilated, airy and piesant. The Servants are well trained, polite and attentive. AMUSEMENTS .- A Band of Music for and a Bathing-House within a few feet Promenades may be taken along the

and no charge is made for ice-water sent to rooms, or for any trifling extra To Invalids he offers the very papacea ments made with families. Refers to all who have ever been guests at the Ocean House. THE NAME.—Do not confound the Ocean" with the "Atlantic" House.

North Carolina Railroad:-Raleigh to Morehead City and re-

Hillsboro to Morehead City and Greensboro to Morehead City and High Point to Morehead City and return, Lexington to Morehead City and return. bury to Morehead City and Return Tickets on the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad (good for the eason) are Five Dollars from Goldsboro to Morehead City, (Beaufort Harbor.) Trains leave Goldsboro daily at 1:30, he must save the rest, and that he did not wish to be embarrassed by CARDS.

SION H. ROGERS, Attorney at Law RALEIGH, N. C., squares South of Yarborough House, Haywood old office, Practices in the Federal and State 49-3m.

Courts. T. P. DEVEREUX. B. C. BADGER. BADGER & DEVEREUX, Solicitors in Bankruptcy,

Office in Stronach Building, second door North of Yarborough House, RALEIGH, N. C.,

Will attend to all cases of Bankruptcy. Mr. Badger will attend all the terms of the District Courts. No extra fee charged for consultation, May 13, 1873,

JOHN ARMSTRONG, No. 1 FAFETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH N. C.,

BOOK BINDER, And Blank Book Manufacturer. Newspapers, Magazines, and Law Books, of every description, bound in the very best style, and at lowest prices, Attorneys and Counsellors at Law, of | manly perseverance. - Henry Raleigh, N. C.

THE WHALLY BR

VOL. III.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1873.

POETRY. The Old Letter.

BY TIM LINKINWATER. An old, old, faded letter, The writing dimmed with age, To-day to my knee down fluttered, As I turned the heavy page Of a quaint and ancient volume, My father's Bible and mine, And the leaf from a life there written, Was touching in every line.

A girl, fair and young, on her birth-day, Many, many long years ago, Had suffered her heart's richest treas-O'er the then spotless page to flow, And the words were pleasant as flowers, For love was their tender theme,

Was the same as to-day's young painting Of future hours of life, 'I accept, as a birth-day present, The honored name of your wife

Of marriage, and birth, and death, Life's trinity, silently, surely; Wielding hopes and fears of earth, And learned how Annie and Reuben Sixty years together had trod

The hills and valleys of life's pathway,

Ere called to rest with their God. Then again I read the letter, This time with reverent care, As memory scanned the writer, The maiden so young and fair; The wife, the mother, the mourner, The sharer of joys and tears, The comfort of little children. The friend of mature, years.

The bride in her young fresh glory. The woman of hoary hairs, The matron with love encircled, The aged with years and cares Then the sheet I silently folded, And laid it gently away, And murmured, perishing, passing, All things that are made of clay.

IN CALLING ATTENTION to this One of the Saddest Tragedies in His-noble-minded Theodosia Alston, the daughter of Aaron Burr, says: and as the tears of grief and anger She was, indeed, the good angel gushed from his eyes he exclaimed of that misguided man, and to "Silas you are ruined." But neither acter. There is a mystery connect- to Wilkes county, Georgia, someed with her disappearance, and, as time after, he was baptized by out still may possess a peculiar in- ing been formally licensed by the stood at the time that the cause of course of ministerial labor which Theodosia's coming North to her was distinguished for its zeal, ability to come here very soon to lay golfather was because of the differences and usefulness. between herself and husband re- During the Revolutionary war, garding Burr. Theodosia detended | Silas Mercer fled for safety to Haliher father's actions, while Governor fax county. N. C., where he remain-Alston denounced them. This was the cause of a separation. Theodosia ombarked in a vessel for New York, in the care of a Mr. Gray, in the care of a Mr. Gray is the care of a the cause of a separation. Theodo-sia embarked in a vessel for New York, in the care of a Mr. Gray, a his journal that he preached upon wealthy South Carolinian. She on average oftener than once a day, out the names of trains that will G-r-e-e-n-e spells nothing but him approvingly. took two of her children with her, so that during his six years resialso large quantity of family plate. Hence in his native State, he deliverTidings of her departure reached New York, and her arrival was About the close of the war, he reNew York, and her arrival was About the close of the war, he reNew York, and her arrival was About the close of the war, he reNew York, and her arrival was About the close of the war, he reNew York Express of intending travellers. There is Green. The New York Express of intending travellers. There is of intending travellers are intended to the intending travellers. There is of intending travellers are intended to the intended travellers. There is of intending travellers are intended to the anxiously looked for by the lonely old man. But, alas! she never mained till his death. He was carayansaries called hotels. So this case the artist complained of didn't go, did you, Johnny?" I came. The bereaved father gave justly regarded as one of the most her up for dead; whether the vessel foundered at sea, or what hap- ters in the Southern States. Though

tered the office Burr met him, and, the ministry, and to promote this grasping his hands, said, "Mr. Fre- noble object, he established a school neau, I know what you came for; near his house, and procured an I have received no tidings; I am able teacher to take charge of it. his eyes, and he cried like a child. tant subjects, one of which, entitled Freneau tried to reassure him, but | "Tyranny Exposed and True Libto no effect; the conviction that she | erty Discovered," was published in was lost to him could not be shaken. | a pamphlet of sixty-eight pages .-Touched by the grief of the wretch- He was, however, more distinguished father, Freneau afterwards sent | ed as a preacher than a writer. him a poem entitled "Theodosia in hally evening Hops; a Billiard Saloon; the Morning Star," which was pub-Pleasure Boats for sailing, visiting the lished in one of the early editions suri-hathing grounds and for fishing; of his poems. Deprived of the only being who loved him, friendless could not do. He now forced them | a sense of obligation to any one.' to "walk the plank." The turn of of the two little boys came, and as off the board to follow them. give it for what it is worth.

Respectfully yours, C. TOWNSEND HARRIS. Piermont, N. Y., July 31.

The American.

cheerfully; he does it manfully but if it is at the bidding of another. he does not intend to do it always, or to do it long. The American journeyman intends to be an emoloyer. The American clerk has it a lion in the battle and conflict; a sell it by-and-by." in his own mind that in good time teacher in his household; a counselhe will be a capitalist. Any man lor in the nation; an arbitrator in yard a couple of times; it will who is satisfied with perpetual de- his vicinity; consciencious in ac- make it weigh heavier." pendence, any man void of aspira- tion; content with his state; regular And the good old man tion, and incapable of effort, is not in harmony with the spirit of ing; faithful in his friendship; tem-Old numbers of Supreme Court Re-ports taken in exchange for binding,

American life, and with the genius | perate in his pleasure; deliberate in of American society. * I advo- his speech; devoted to his God. So of American society. * * I advo- his speech; devoted to his Gop. So of American society. I advo. In speech is death and an estremed example of a thing is love of sometimes cut up people badly cate the sentiment of aspiration, he will be happy in his life, easy in home. It is not acquired—it is a with their old saws. W. N. H. SMITH, GEO. V. STRONG but it is aspiration following its his death, and an esteemed exam- feeling that has its origin elsewhere. purpose with the constancy of Chris- | ple to his successors. tian rectitude, and with the quiet ecl poodle-nurses $5 a week. .

Distinguished North Carolina the South.

Baptists Who Have Lived and Labored in other States. ST. PAUL, MINN., July 10. It was my purpose to begin this series of sketches with the name of Jesse Mercer, but in reading the life gia, I find that Situs Mercer, the first, both on account of the force and influence of his character and because he was more identified with North Caronna tem ais more distinguished son. . um indebted for Mercer, to the entertaining book with absurda id dangerous heresics. winter; a State where not more child might require a milder mode, ress of every public and private enhe had two of his children immers; terprise; and energy which shows the elements would seem to war north learned long ago that rail-

[From the Biblical Recorder.]

SILAS MERCER.

As he spoke the tears gushed from and wrote several pieces on impor-

T. H. P.

Anecdote of Calhoun.

The following anecdote of John they disappeared in the sea the death, that he is thereby prevented mother firmly and proudly stepped of a glorious victory; another that he must die before he has married Whether this a true story of the his daughter, or settled and provifate of Theodosia, I do not know. If ded for his children; a third seems there is a copy of Gibbs' Confession | only troubled that he must lose the Office on Fayetteville Street, two half in existence, this incident would be society of his beloved wife; a fourth to the world more absolutely and purely, and to shake hands with all man opened his eyes, and turning for the time, if it pays. He does it are the best.

Rules to Regulate our Conduct. in his habits; diligent in his call-

[Correspondence of the Memphis Ap-Railroads—The Northwest and

What do you think of a town innow possesses eleven railroad ternesota. What do you think of a town into which, or at which, there was no mode of conveyance twenty ox-cart, but now has arriving and But preserving an independent than half the year can be devoted spirit and a clear and discrimina- to the farm, and where hay must ting mind, he was soon led beyond be raised in three or four months to the prejudices of education, and ac- do the cattle during the other eight

ed. The eldest, Jesse, was baptized in a barrel of water at the house of his pastor, and the next, a daugh- not scared by three feet of solid ice, ter, was immersed in a tub in the fifty feet of snow and seven months Episcopal Church, where he was of accustomed to worship. His father was a bigoted churchman and did not like these strange notions of Silas. He did everything nestling in the bosoms of their mo-The Fate of Theodosia Burr. in his power to prevent him from thers, frozen to death in their bed, suit: having anything to do with the do not discourage this indomitable blind and infatuated sect of Bap-tists. But in spite of his own anipathies and the opposition of his these natural difficulties with railfriends, he gained his consent at roads, and the people of St. Paul A correspondent, writing to the length to attend a Baptist meeting. | roads, and the people trains daily" New York Graphic concerning the This presumptuous and daring act to force a prosperity which even provoked his father's resentment, James Parton we owe our knowl- the tears nor the rebukes of his roads are the secrets of prosperity. edge of her sweet and lovely char- father proved availing. Removing You did not learn it yet. Chicago you say, "the vessel never reached Alexander Scott into the fellowship build her every time.—Every road its destination; was never heard of Kiokee Church, in 1775. He rose that was run into that city was in Son of the late Col. Richard French, from after leaving Charleston har- from the water a minister of the effect saying, "Here is a permabor." With your permission, I Gospel, for before he left the stream nent investment of twenty milwill tell you what I know of the in which he was baptized, he as- lions."-That same thing is true of matter. What I am about to relate | cended a log and warmly exhorted | St. Paul. Those "eigthy trains daimay be traditionary in a degree, the surrounding multitude. Hav- ly" may be compared to as many terest to the reader. It was under- church, he at once entered upon a habitants. There are six other exemplary, useful and pious minispened they never knew. At this not distinguished for his literary time my great grandfather, Phillip attainments, he was the devoted Freneau, visited Burr. As he en- friend of education, especially in

He devoted much time to study.

and alone, the old man gradually C. Calhoun is told by William wide verandalis, or on the Promenade sank, until death ended his grief. Schooler, on the authority of the Now comes the mysterious part of late Hon. Abbott . Lawrence : The Proprietor spares neither atten- the sad story. I cannot wouch for "Some time before 1840, Mr. Caltion nor expense to make the stay of the truth of it, as I have been un- houn wrote to Mr. Lawrence that his guests happy and full of pleasure; able to procure anything of a docu- he had been adding to his landed mentary nature bearing upon the estates, and would like to obtain a loan of $10,000 or $15,000 in Boston, Many years ago a notorious pirate where money was more plenty than named Gibbs was captured, brought | in South Carolina and the rate of in-Terms moderate. Special arrange to this port, and condemned to be terest not so high, for the payment hung and gibetted. On his con- of which he would give his notes demnation he made a confession, and a mortgage upon his estate, and among other crimes confessed which would be ample security. to having captured the vessel which Mr. Lawrence said he consulted Mr. contained Theodosia Alston. He Nathan Appleton and one or two said that he received information other wealthy citizens of Beston up-The following Rates for Return Tick- that a vessel intended leaving on the subject, and it was agreed ets (good for the season) are made on the Charleston, having on board plate to raise the money for him and of great value. He resolved to lay in wait for her; he did so, and captured the vessel, with all on board, informed Mr. Calhoun of the ar-11 10 In the struggle for the possession of | rangement which he had made, the ship many of the crew and offi- and expressed his gratification that 13 50 cers were killed. Gibbs resolved to it was in the power of himself and a from whom all the wealth comes— 14 40 put the survivors to death, as the few of his friends to do a kindness harm. She knelt to him and en- request. He said it did not agree treated him in the most beseeching with his sense of propriety to actones, but the pirate was inexora- | cept a loan on such terms; that in ble. He said that if he saved them | the discharge of his public duties he

> One complains of more than of it was well that Burr was spared principal concerns of his being, gain; was very ill, and friends were in ancient or modern times. the additional pain of learning the For my part I am ready to dislodge, expecting an early demise. His mode of his danghter's death. I whenever it shall please Him, nephew and a man hired for the ocwithout any manner of regret. I casion had butchered a steer that disengage myself throughout from had been fattened; and when the ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they the beauty of ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are ling which decreases as the day adher of effect, had they are line of the effect of effect.

> > Montaigne.

A man should be wise in dispute; to which the Indians drove the sarfather of Jesse, merits my attention thousand? That is St. Paul Minthe facts, and in part, for the lan- departing over railways eighty guage of this notice of the elder trains of cars daily? That is St. but did not profess rel con tilt he city, nor the fine, succulent grasses, arrived at manhood. Trevious to or good milk and butter that this time, he was devotedly attach- abound on the prairie, but it is the all other religious denominations. Those "eighty trains daily" practiespecially the Baptists. These were the people he had been taught to to suburban relations to the city. dread above all others, and he care- Here is a State without iron and of deceivers, and a people affected biting blasts of prolonged Arctic sides?

cording to the rubric of the Episco- or nine. And yet we find a condipal Church, which enjoins immer- tion of wonderful prosperity, and a sion, except when the health of the hopeful energy marking the progthat the people believe in themselves and in the future, and are hermetically sealed winter. "Forty degrees below zero," men famishing while going from their houses to their stables, and children, foreigners. They overcome against every winter. These people up here in frozen cities of the might be burned down four times in ten years, the railroads would re-geese laying golden eggs for the incitement observable. Having said this much about the don't spell Asia, what the devil capital of Minnesota, I think that does it spell!" every proper sense of commenda- There was an old, attorney in tion and praise has been used. This Pennsylvania who and not think hope you will profit by." whole country up here, in my esti- much of yielding his own way of mation, is far inferior to our own in spelling to the dictation of Webster. point of natural advantages. In the When his unorthodox spelling was means of furnishing wealth to the criticised by a junior member of the people, the South is immeasurably bar, he retorted that the man who tell these wicked boys why you superior. Let us institute a com- could not spell a word more than didn't go fishing with them last parison.—Take for instance a crack one way was a fool. acre of wheat-staple production up here. It will yield twenty-five bushels, which will bring now in the market twenty-five dollars. The expense of production and of who imagine they have a claim to marketing, say seven dollars, bal- rob you if you are rich, and to insult ance in favor of farmer, eighteen you if you are poor. dollars. This, mind you, is the liberal estimate of a crack acre for this insect without wings, whose colors section growing the staple product fade on being removed from the thereof. Now let us see what can sunshine.

be counted up in favor of an acre per pound, sixty dollars. Cost of comes fatal to its possessor. production and of marketing, twenof planter, thirty-five dollars. Re- enchanted regions and returns to my field?" member, I am not counting on or- earth.

here that will not turn out eight turning his call. bushels of wheat—sometimes not pay for cultivating-just as there are acres of cotton down South that have to be abandoned as worthless -both sections are equal in that respect. I firmly believe that there is a greater natural "show" for prosperity in Tennessee than in any of those States up here. The man other powers that "be," are levy- and the enemies of truth. ing a toll, and taking a very extortionate mulcture" out of their scanty annual accumulations-annual accumulations did I say?

ists and "other powers that be," round." who are victimizing them. the astonishment of all, the old Fontaine.

manner of interest in it, than I his head slightly; said, in a full The American accepts any work expect to do. The deadest deaths voice, drawing out the words. "What have you been doing?" "Killing the steer," was the re- ashamed; and without the aid of a "What did you do with

"Left it in the barn; going to "Let the boys drag it around the gathered unto his fathers.

How sweet a thing is love of It is born with us, brought from another world to carry us on with New York belles pay accomplish- joy in this. It attaches to the joyment of sausages, at a restautits cause they put hot water in it humblest heart that ever throbbed. rant, is confidence.

Trial.

No man is a man till tried-till he has passed the ordeal, through deep waters and scorching fires. A space given up to controversies with ville—the great military cemetery Elliot with she is wont to trans- family ties, are the most maconman surrounded with comforts, contemporary journals, and the friends and relatives, food and raisharp and often bitter personalities of the worlds, says:—

late into fortable of human beings. Byrounded with comforts, food and raisharp and often bitter personalities of the worlds, says:—

"The cemetery contains forty is some sage discourse on the griefs ays, "Happiness is twin-born;" ment-whose barns are filled with indulged in. Almost every paper acres which, with about 1,000 acres of childhood:rounding inhabitants in 1862, that plenty, and whose presses gush had one or more articles of a concontiguous, is in the hands of the These bitter sorrows of childhood! poetic, does not go far enough. We ont with new wine-who eats to the troversial character, and the editor Government by right of confisca- when sorrow is all new and strange, are gregarious, and not intended to of this great toan, written by the sainted Dr. C. D. Mallory of Georbad but eight hundred inhabitants had but eight hundred inhabitants smokes his pipe, or chews his ded- other editors of the city. in 1850 and now has twenty-seven is he a man? far from it. A man is There has been a great improve- States Government as to the right seems measureless. "Ah, my child, cares, has nothing to live for that not a man till he is proved-has ment in this respect within twenty of property. passed the ordeal, drunk the bitter years. The old spirit breaks out There are 13,710 graves of Federal about by and by," is the consolation body together. You must have a cup, risen above life's conflicts, occasionally in an editorial criticism prisoners; also, the graves of 6 pris- we have almost all of us had ad- heap of embers to have a glowing mounted the billow's wave. Was which is little less than a personal oners hung by their comrades for ministered to us in our childhood, fire. Scatter them apart and they years ago better than the primitive Joseph a man, in very deed, till he altercation on paper, with adjectives crimes committed among them- and have repeated to other children will be come dim and cold. So to

Mercer, to the encertaining book referred to above.

Silas Mercer was born near Currituck Sound, N. C., February, 1745. He was a serious, thought of did not profess relevant and not did not profess relevant at manhood. Trevious to arrived at manhood arrived at manhood. Trevious to arrived at manhood arrived at manhood. Trevious to arrived at manhood arrived at manhood arrived at manhood arrived at manhood arrived at manhood. Trevious to arrived at manhood arrived at the prison house? Was plant the prison house? Was plant to the plant the profess that tumble over the falls of the deceased, for which the peach that the plant the profess arrived at manhood arrived at the profess arrived at manhood arrived at the profess arrived at the ceived forty stripes save one?-"No lectic element has almost dropped there being comparatively few five or ten years ago. Every one good of your kind. ed to the rite of the Episcopal Church, and as violently opposed which make St. Paul what it is. In the man that warreth entangletn min-self whose names are unknown. The distribution of the Episcopal eleven railroads that center here, self with the affairs of his life, that undeveloped organs in the physical graves are in a row side by side, trace, and lives in us still, but such three inches apart and fourteen the may please him who hath chosen they are named are unknown. The whose names are unknown. The whose names are unknown. The constitution is self with the affairs of his life, that undeveloped organs in the physical graves are in a row side by side, trace, and lives in us still, but such three inches apart and fourteen the man that warreth entangletn min-self whose names are unknown. The constitution is self with the affairs of his life, that the constitution. He has to deal with the figure texture day with the figure texture day with the figure texture. man that warreth entangleth him- out of sight from sheer neglect, like whose names are unknown. The of those keen moments has left its him to be a soldier." Let a man questions in a calm, comprehensive inches wide; hence they are packed recoverably with the firmer texture day, "I believe, sir, that you conbe forsaken of all, as was Job— way, as an organ of public intelli- away very closely, there being of our youth and manhood; and so duet the — Journal?" swing loose on faith, on God, and gence and as they are related to the 6,000 of these prisoners buried on a it comes that we can look on at the The reply was a nod of assent. retain his integrity, rising triumph- public welfare, and not as they con- less area than two acres of ground. troubles of our children with a smifully shunned them as a company without coal; a State open to the antly—is he not a man? Who be-

Tough Mineral Water. Mr. Watsonville, noted as a pracoutside as she felt unwell. The practical joker she directed him to take care of the two bottles of minact was to open each, pour out half. add fill up with whiskey, and we leave the husband to tell the re-

"San Francisco, August 30, 1869. -Proprietors Hot Springs.—Sirs— ago, in our small communities, peared in the prisoners' time of him have a tailed coat, that "half," state in to-morrow's paper that the You are a precious set of scamps, My wife, Mrs. paid a visit to your confounded for swift communication, the opin- to have been killed contending over if we could recall that early bitter- be done—our rule is never to replace, and brought back some ions and controversies of individuals this spring. spring water.' I drank about a naturally occupied a prominent bottle of the miserable stuff, and place in public life. They were went to the Good Templars, and hadn't been in the hall more than vate and in public. But the railfifteen minutes before I was as road and telegraph, which have disgraced myself and the lodge, and cation with the whole world have men who will run an institution of place,—Graphic. this kind ought to be soused into hot water springs untll life was extinct. 1 am, sirs, with contempt,

Adroit Spellers. In the capitol, at Washington, such geese spoken of as preparing there is a statue of General Nathanin five years there will be sixteen bottom of the statue has spelled it railroads centering here, sending in without the final E. On being asked and taking out one hundred and why he omitted this letter, he renot call round to the hotels, crying that word. Besides, said be was in his place, and I smiled on start directly, for the information Greeny, and the man's name was that there is a constant stir, bustle, the owner, who provided the origimovement, even bewildering ex- nal spelling. "Leave it as it is," said the brave captain. "If A-s-h-a

Modern Dictionary. DISTANT RELATIONS.—People Belle.-A beautiful, but useless

HEART .- A rare article, some-(crack) down in our section. Crack times found in human beings. It is any man who is contented." He The fact that an agent of one of the acre in cotton, producing three hunsoon, however, destroyed by com- soon had an applicant. dred pounds of lint at twenty cents merce with the world, or else be-MARRIAGE.—The gate through ty-five dollars. Balance in favor which the happy lover leaves his dinary acres in either case. These DEATH .- An ill-bred fellow who reply. calculations are based upon crack visits people at all seasons, and inpieces of ground. There are acres sists upon their immediately re-replied: "I hope your honor will their presence. not fail to bear in mind that now I am a poor orphan."

salest way of disposing of them.—

Mrs. Alston begged for the lives of herself and children; she offered in all the wealth she possessed, and promised to secure him all the wealth she possessed, and promised to secure him from and promised to secure him from the possessed and promised to secure him from the promise suits. Her the promise suits a shame billiousness, and the annoying and obstructed in our course by the false lover in its charge, but the false lover in its charge. The promise suits and death? asked a Sunday shoot of the promise suits. Her the promise suits and death? T mers say that those capitalists and ness at the mercy of our enemies Dr. J. W. Alexander.

> even in the uncivilized Chinaman. deal of bread with my meat." Why, the farmers, with discordant unanimity all over the Northwest, say they are becoming poorer every enemies, and "shaking hands all bread." year, and that it is the capital-

A late European writer remarks death-bed, surrounded by a conclave And old Vermont farmer, up to was never met with in connection ever you do, please let me die a very likely be mentioned. If true, of the conversation of his son, as the all methods of making a good bar- with royalty or its offshoots, either natural death.'

> soon taken of all but myself. Nev- tered the sick room, where a few of the evening which strengthens must inevitably become nuisances .er did any one prepare to bid adieu friends were assembled, when; to with the setting sun of life.-La Madame de Sevigne.

> > prompter, because we pray from the heart .- Tertullian. Notwithstanding the assertions of mathematicians, the marriage ring is a circle in which husband and wife have the problem set them of other married woman ever enjoyed, making all square.

Carpenters are plane fellows, apt to chisel, often great bores, and Journalistic Courtesies.

In looking over a pile of old city A correspondent of the Macon papers, one will be struck with the Telegraph writing about Anderson-many tender musings to George society, and have no near and dear was cast into the pit, torn away for fisticuffs and insinuations for selves.

in his personal opinions. The modern newspaper is no longer the To divide out our Southern lands: work of one man. It is the pro- But this is the only spot duct of a score or hundred of minds | These poor prisoners ever got. eral water she was carrying to her and ideas of that portion of the propriation for marble slabs. exponent. It is this that makes a the stockade, but the prisoners, de- know how to amuse himself, and this would violate our invariable merely personal contest in its col- siring cooler water, dug 240 wells fell from idleness into mischief from rule—which is, never to admit that umns an unwarrantable obtrusion from 40 to 60 feet deep, but without mischief into defiance, and from we have made a mis-statement. of private matter upon public no-tice, and an impertinence. Years stockade that was said to have ap-tice, and an impertinence. Years stockade that was said to have aplargely isolated from the rest of the world by the absence of facilities Providence Spring. Many are said although every other boy of his age rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope broke, and that you are fortunded by the absence of facilities are rope brokes are rope brokes and the rope brokes are rope brokes and the rope brokes are rope bro thought of and talked about in pri-

Why he Didn't go Fishing.

ake charge of a Sunday-school den eggs-and they will come. With- cutter who carved the name on the wish realist to leave the name on the wish realist to leave the name on the but she who does not marry does tin ore has been sold to the value of the so wish you'd talk to 'em a little."

I told him I would. They were a hard-looking set.

caravansaries called hotels. So this case the artist complained of didn't go, did you, Johnny?" I "That was right. Though this boy is the youngest among you," I continued, "you learn from his own lips words of good counsel, which I

I lifted him up on the seat beside me, and smoothed his auburn ring-"Now, Johnny, I want you to Sunday. Speak up loud now. It was because it was very wicked, and you would rather go to Sunday school, wasn't it ?" addition to the salutary effect of the practice in my own family, where-

"No, sir; it was 'cos I couldn't find no worms for bait."

Who's Contented. An eccentric, wealthy gentleman stuck up a board in a field on his estate upon which was painted the following: "I will give this field to lost his house and property by a fire."

man?"

The most potent, permanent, penetrating influence for good is a dren might be made unnecessaholy, consistent Christ-like life. ry, by carrying just such a piece of A Frenchman, convicted of the Books only exert an influence when advice into execution through the murder of his father and mother, when asked by the judge if he had anything to say, by way of mitigating the severity of his sentence, ting the severity of his sentence, exemplified, accomplish much by writer of romances who flourished "Then," replied Mr. A., "why does in the first half of the lest century."

> proposed match, and thereby in- thou art an honest fellow; here is fluenced his son to break it up.

"I'll trouble you for some more A young lady once observed, They celebrate their holidays by "Landlord-"So I see, sir!" And audience are too attentive to the paying their debts, forgiving their a good deal of meat with your play to observe my wardrobe; but that the Christian name of Thomas of physicians, appealed to them in is an eminently democratic one, and piteous tones, "My dear sirs, what-People who are always on tenter-

A gentleman who was on his

A lady asked a sailor, whom she and beard who dyes them a muddy Eve had some advantages that no chief among which was that her to the milk-boy. "I'm sure I can't | circumstances, or the de ee of his All that is necessary for the en- tell," was the simple reply, "unless light.

used to cook."

Andersonville Prison.

from the bewitching tempter, leav-ing his garment behind—till he counters are less frequent and in name of Ocwalter, who conceived a ously, standing with tiny bare legs each other warm, as it were to all working in concert. It represents The plank headboards are soon to did and what happened to him, of The editor was puzzled, but n Mr. Watsonville, noted as a practical joker, was asked by a lady in a common thought. It stands for be displaced with marble slabs, for what he liked and disliked when dismayed. largely to its representative charac- There are 94 Georgia State re- then—when it was so long from one accurate.' lady had made herself obnoxious at the Springs, and as she passed the springs are springs. forms its public functions as an their graves as for the prisoners, him out of their game because he alive. Of course who will publiimpersonal organ of the sentiments and also included them in the ap- would pitch the ball wrong out of a contradiction and apology in your husband. The practical joker's first public of which it is the recognized the standard the practical joker's first public of which it is the recognized the standard the stand

Female Society.

What is it that makes all those men who associate habitually with | hood has no forebodings; but then, drunk as any man you ever saw; rought us into instant communi- women superior to others who do it is soothed by some memories of coath mine, near Camborne, not? What makes that woman outlived sorrow. this morning I am on a sick bed .- pushed the individual from his old so accustomed and at ease in the somy impression is that any set of pedestal and put mankind in his ciety of men superior to her sex in general? Solely because they are an air of triumph, "don't you think in the habit of free, graceful, continued conversations with the other sex. Women in this way lose their The Superintendent asked me to frivolity, their faculties awaken, their delicacies and peculiarities unfold all their beauty and captiva-"You'll find 'em a bad lot," said he tion in the spirit of intellectual ri-They all went fishing last Sunday valry. And the men lose their per happiness of the married state bedepth the copper disappeared, are but little Johney Rand. He is real- danthe, rude, declamatory, or sulcontinually. Their asperities are rubbed off, their better materials polished and brightened, and their young lady, "I will do well; let amount of £27,368. The alternation of the content of the c by those of men. The iron and steel that pretty women kiss one another in other deep mines, deserves the of their characters are hidden, like on coming into a room because it careful attention of men of science. As soon as the lessons were over the character and armor of a giant, is a graceful custom; they do the by studs and knots of good and pre- same on going away because they

"Boys, your Superintendent tells cious stones, when they are not are delighted to lose sight of one another. A correspondent of the London Sun gives this as his recipe for cism sweep secretly the breadth promoting health: "Do not expect, and depth of Christendom, 'tis but sir, some wonderful announcement, the binding spell of these superstisome fascinating mystery! No. It tions about the name of One whom is simply the plain little practice of the love and admiration of all good denying young girl, who plackily leaving your bedroom window a men hold precious, and will not let resolves not to let an already overlittle open at the top while sleeping, perish from love and remembrance. tasked father or brother support both winter and summer. I do not - Alcott. come before you as a theorist or an inexperienced teacher, in thus calling loudly upon every family to adopt this healthful practice. I am the father of ten children, all in pure health, and have (thank God) never lost one, although their natural constitutions were not robust. But in its effects, it has invariably been found to be both pleasant and ben-In a country church a collection was taken up for a party who had Bavaria, 230 quarts. fire offices was seen to put a note "Well, sir, are you a contented into the box, led to great hopes on morning was informed that he'd the part of the sufferer and his better get up quick, as breakfast on," never despair, never bed "Yes, sir; very."

"Then what do you want with tents of the box, afterwards, it was he exclaimed, defiantly; "it will heavens, or dark the way, or grant of the box o found that the note contained only | find me ready to meet it!' The applicant did not stop to these admonitory words: "Let them insure, as they wish to be saved." A good many collections for poor widows with small chilthe sun never sets." "And one," tax-gatherer never goes to bed."

ever I have advised others to try but purity and goodness and grace | Mariyaux, a celebrated French | in the first half of the last century, having one day met with a sturdy A lady in St. Louis has made a beggar who asked charity of him decided improvement on the ordin- he replied," My good friend, strong half a crown for you." There is something to imitate bread landlord. I always eat a good "When I go to the theatre, I am cident was: "I wonder if Harry she was worth sixty-two cents; very careless of my dress, as the will marry me now?" How char- when any difference has occurr acteristic of a woman! when I go to church I am very par-A good conscience is better than ticular in my outward appearance, two witnesses-it will consume your as most people go there to see how their neighbors dress and deport grief as the sun dissolves ice. It is a spring when you are thirsty-a

The fastest trains on American death. railways are slow in comparison with those of England. A London paper says that an express train on the Bristol and Exeter and Great Love is the shadow of the morn- hooks, straining after admiration Western railway now runs from Exeter to Paddington, a distance of ter, including stoppages of firteen minutes. On other roads trains run with almost equal speed.

ered head, because they are not the rigging cost more than the hull." sticks in a bundle of faggots. It is by the sword." choose to increase our trouble by carrying yesterday's stick over again hand nor foot without making it A fool of the deepest dye-An old man with magnificent white hair to-day, and adding to-morrow's burden to our load before we are reselves, and laying little traps for of this house?" quired to bear it.—John Newton.

> No Christian is ever entitled to pronounce upon his relative superiority in holiness over his brother. husband could never lacerate her Grant that my brother is unhappiheart by telling "how his mother ly a very imperfect Christian, my heart responds sadly, "So am I." I cannot tell which of us has fewest anything in my eye? It feels very, a young gentlemen with a curiously "Why is your milk so warm this excuses for his guilt. 1 do not sore?" Professor. "I see a very bad carved wooden head." morning, my lad?" said a customer know my brother's temperament, pupil, sir."

> > Something about wo. . dounces. made at Shanghai.

THE WEEKLY ERA

Rates of Advertising. I m |2 m/s. |3 m/s. |6 m/s. | 12 m Squ'e $ 3 00 $ 5 00 $ 7 00 310 00 816 (5 00 9 00 12 00 16 00 26 17 00 12 00 15 00 24 00 85 10 9 00 15 00 17 00 28 00 40 10 10 00 16 00 18 00 32 00 45 10 Col'n. 12 00 18 00 20 00 35 00 50 30 00: 40 00: 50 00: 80 00:150 te Fransient advertising ONE DOLLAR per square for the first and FIFTY CENTER for each subsequent insertion.

Be Social.

The Griefs of Childhood.

one Mr. Dikes, and the United the space from summer to summer nobody, and for whom nobody strangely perspectively conception of life that gave the bitterness its marriage is a means of grace?"

"when I move my right arm so."

"What is your consolation in life your lord-hip move it so?"

them up as fast as they could !"

A current maxim in Arabian lit-to repentance."

late into forcione language. Here fortable of human belags. Byron out the phrase, though pretty and you will have real troubles to fret will pay for the keeping of soul and since we have been growing up. have a brisk, vigorous life, you We have all of us sobbed so pite- must have a group of lives, to ke p

you had the audacity to state in Is there any one who can recover | your last issue that I had commit the experience of his childhood, not ted suicide in a fit of temporary in merely with a memory of what he sanity," tical joker, was asked by a lady in a collection of the stage coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the stage coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of this and other countries the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment, at endency of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment is a sentiment of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment is a sentiment of the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment is a sentiment of the coach from Gilroy Hot and the coach from Gilroy Hot an idea, a sentiment is a sentiment of the coach from Gilroy Hot and the coach from Gilroy Hot an Springs to San Francisco to take the public mind. And it owes its this and other cemeteries, the gov- with an intimate penetration, a re- local reporter in your down, and her inside seat and give her the importance and influence very ernment has appropriated $1,000,000. vived consciousness of what he felt have always found him reliable and mere wilfulness: or in a rainy day next number?"

ness, and the dim guesses, the tract."

A Remarkable Mine. intensity, we should not pooh pooh the griefs of our children. Child-An English paper says: "La. Cornwall, is in every way a re markable exploration. The min has been in constant work for more "Mr. ---," said Mrs. ---, with than two hundred years. Bein first worked as a tin mine the work ings in the deeper levels were even "Well, yes," growled ---; "I sup- | tually suspended, because the mi pose anything is a means of grace ners came to the 'yellows' (yellows' that breaks down pride and leads copper ore, at that time of some value). The copper ore was sale quently worked at a very larg fore his daughter, despairingly the main lode again produced to said: "She who marries does well, From this, during the past year better." "Well, then," said the of £82,203, and profit made to the

A Sham Exposed. A great deal is said about young men "who are not able to marry on account of the extravagance of wo-If infidelity, indifference, skeptimen," when these very young men often spend as much on their own would support a reasonable wife. They pass by the industrious selfher, and pay court to some beflounced and jewelled pink and A JOKE WITH A MORAL -A white doli, and then whine that pullet, finding a nice egg, sat ou it. they "can't marry her because she The old hen came along after three is so extravagant." That's the weeks, and found her egg spoilt. whole truth about it; and when Said she to the pullet. "O my young men face and acknowledge daughter, who did this?" The pul- it in a manly manner, it will be let replied, "Mother, I annot tell time enough to listen to them on a lie: I did it with my little hatch the marriage question.

Press On! England consumes about 120 quarts of beer per annum to each The mystery of Napoleon's ca head of her population, B. Igium | was this. Under all difficulties 64, Germany 48, Austria 20, France disconragements, to "press on!" 18, Switzerland 16 and Munich, solves the problem of all heroes; is the rule by which to judge of wonderful successes and triumpil A gentleman lying in b.d one marches to fortune and genius. should be the motto of all. "Pr the difficulties, or repeated the in ures, "press on!" If fortune profalse with thee to-day, do the "The British Empire, sir," exprove true for this to-morrow. L. claimed an orator, "is one on which the folly of yesterday make the wise to-day. If thy affections have replied an auditor, "in which the been poured out like water in t desert, sit not down and perish thirst, but "press on"-a beaut.

"I feel a severe pain," said a no- oasis is before thee and thou man ble patient to Mr. Abernethy, reach it if thou wilt. "Robby, what does your fath r do for a living?" "He's a philanthropist, sir."
"A what?"

"Never," says a henpenexed fine "marry a woman worth more than A lady in Fond du Lacslipped on the ice and broke her leg, and the thou art. When I married and first remark she made after the ac- wife I was worth fifty cents, between us she throws up the o Lord Bacon beautifully said, man be gracious to stranger a shows that he is a citizen of the staff when you are weary-a screen world, and his heart is no island, when the sun burns-a pillow in cat off from other islands, but a continent that joins them."

A discontented Vicksburg editor, "Oh, grandma," cried a mischievin describing the funeral of an Odd ous little urchin, "I cheated the hens so nicely just now. I threw them your gold beads, and they hearly two miles long, and so was them your gold beads, and they thought they were corn, and ate the prayer of the chaplain of the lodge."

About the year 1785 the Legislature of Pennsylvania passed a resoerature says that "Paradise is as lution that no member thereof much for him who has rightly used Christians pray with outspread, met, why a ship was called "she." The troubles of life are like the pen, as for him who has fallen or eat his bread and cheese on the should come to the house barefoot, Some persons can neither stir A traveler coming up to an inn door, said: clear they are thinking of them-> approbation. "Yes, sir," answered Boniface, my wife has been dead these three A German physician declares weeks. that unmarried women live much longer than married women. A daily paper recently contained Student. "Professor, can you see black silk umbrella, belonging to

A little girl sent out to hunt eggs China is rapidly undergoing the came back unsuccessful, and conprocess of civilization. Beer is planted that "there were lots of here standing around doing nothing."