

By, Esq., of the Washington bar.

A Post-Graduate course of one year's instruction in Legal Practice has been established in connection with the school, open to the attendance of all who, | To spurn the hungry from their door, having attained to a theoretical knowledge of the law, may wish to perfect themselves in the details of its practice, including office work and methods of udicial procedure in all kinds of courts. The exercises of this department will e conducted by the Hon. CHARLES C. Norr, Associate Judge of the United States Court of Claims. Price of tickets. for the whole course, $25, 8-toest.

HOTELS.

FRENCH'S NEW HOTEL,

COR. CORTLANDT & NEW CHURCH STS., NEW YORK,

ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN

RICHARD P. FRENCH, Son of the late Col. RICHARD FRENCH of French's Hotel, has taken this Hotel, newly fitted up and entirely renovated Centrally located in the Same BUSINESS PART of the City. LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S DINING ROOMS ATTACHED.

2-3mG. O. WILLAND,

EBBITT HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C. 48 310

PITTSBORO HOTEL, Pittsboro, Chatham Co., N. C. H. H. BURKE, Proprietor.

H. C. ECCLES, Proprietor, CENTRAL HOTEL, (HARLOTTE, N. C.

March 7, 1875.

THE OCEAN HOUSE, BEAUFORT, N. C.

SAM. R. STREET, Proprietor.

ready for the reception of guests. Passengers land at the Hotel Wharf, within a few feet of the House.

lelicacies of land and sea.

ed, arry and plesant.

daily evening Hops; a Billiard Saloon; of the House, Promenades may be taken along the Roof of the House.

health.

ments made with families.

RAILROAD FARE.

The following Rates for Return Tickets (good for the season) are made on the North Carolina Railroad :-- that religious fold. and same gushing into headquar-Who went up from their dwellings, like ters, and said: "Jube, don't you the Pharisee of old ; Then returned home from their worship with head uplifted high, with naught to satisfy.

Out ! out with such professions, they are with me for cutting off her story, doing more to-day To stop the weary sinner from the gospel's shinin' way Than all the books of infidels; than all that has been tried Since Christ was born in Bethlehemsince Christ was crucified.

How simple are the works of God, and yet how very grand-The shells in ocean cavern, the flowers on the land; He gilds the clouds of evening with goldlight from His throne, Not for the rich man only-not for the confessed they wanted to get a few man because of lack of gold? Why seat him in the poorest pew because his clothes are old : heart with noble motives, a heart that God has blest. May be beating Heaven's music 'neath

I love to see it shinin' on a Christian's on, girls, it's no use; he ain't going piety. to give it to you." Turning to his Jesus told us in his sermon, on Judea's mountain wild, bet on !" He that wants to go to Heaven must be

Our heads are growing gray, dear wifeour hearts are beating slow-In a little while the Master will call us for to go:

and look in with joyful eyes, temple of the skies.

Poor Women. 171-tf to true eloquence in the following, eut from the Nation :-- even the sack of a stormed city, has the advantage of being always the unchecked control of another enemy from the town, and they

The Table is supplied with all the

The Rooms are delightfully ventilat-

The Servants are well trained, polite and attentive. AMUSEMENTS .- A Band of Music for Pleasure Boats for sailing, visiting the surf-bathing grounds and for fishing; wide verandahs, or on the Promenade

The Proprietor spares neither atten-and not charge is made for ice-water will care to discuss who seriously the effect of that little girl on the attention. · To Invalids he offers the very panacea

Terms moderate,--Special arrange-at the Ocean House.

Ocean" with the "Atlantic" House, remember little Julia?" (I pledge you my word she weighed 200 pounds.) Turning to his assistant. he said, "Give her a pass." Would you believe it, she was worse mad

Then why should man look down on they that faded coat and vest.

I'm old _ I may be childran but I low with a bale of dry goods on, and putting her root down, said ; . Come like a child

When we reach the pearly gateways, the wants of the wounded and dy-We'll see no stylish worship in the ing. Among these was Randolph

[From Raleigh Sentine!.]

There is something closely akin hicle, this same young lady staid there in the dark night, administering to the wounded Confeder-There is probably nothing, not ates. Ridgley afterwards got well.

In 1863, when going into Pennwhich brings out devilish and ani- sylvania and near Winchester, it human being's person and feelings were marching around the town so does. There are thousands of poor as to get possession of the hills ey, exclaimed: "It really is a women in this city, without friends commanding it, when turning a or hope in this world, who have to curve in the road they came upon listen every night to the ravings, a little girl 13 years of age on horse-and bear the blows and tortures of back with a large bundle of misceltyrannical beasts, compared to laneous goods tied up before her and whom Walworth was harmless, her little brother behind her. When and decent, and merciful; and yet she saw them she was at first frightthe world knows nothing of their ened, but on discovering the gray sorrows, unless when, now and then, color, she pulled off her bonnet and some unlucky blow terminates their hurrahed! She had been sent from

and a Bathing-House within a few feet | misery and their life together, and | her home by her parents because thousands of others pass their lives the enemy were throwing shells at hand. in higher stages of the same hell, into their house, and not knowing What is the remedy for this state of of the approach of the Confederates, things, except the general elevation they supposed the shells were tion nor expense to make the stay of of human nature, it would be hard thrown out of maliciousness. "You." his guests happy and full of pleasure; to say. Legal remedies few people said the General, "have no idea of us wish for that."

sent to rooms, or for any trifling extra consider the condition of a woman soldiers, but her influence was felt who has to face life without heart, 200 or 300 wagons and over 20 pieces or hope, or training for any calling of artillery. Refers to all who have ever been guests by which money may be made, and whose nearest friend has turned THE NAME .- Do not confound the into one of those fiendish enemies at the gate, and he said to her, harvest had never been so plentiful ever pursued in civilized society.

spots in the desert, when we can "You see," said the husband, Simplicity in Dress. Those who think that in order to dress well, it is necessary to dress At the time of the Averill raid 11 10 extravagantly or grandly, make a up the Roanoke Valley, when Gengreat mistake. Nothing so well eral Fitz Lee was after him, there themselves a cow and a horse. 13 50 becomes true feminine beauty as were some stragglers. Near ______ Wife," answered the husba simplicity. We have seen many a there was a gentleman, his wife, again clinking the surplus money remarkably fine person robbed of and a daughter, all of whom be- in his pocket; "it would be folly 15 45 its true effect by being over dressed. longed to the Methodist Church. Nothing is more unbecoming than and very good people. This girl 16 50 overloading beauty. The stern was walking in the garden, which simplicity of the classic tastes is was on the bank of a river, very 19 00 seen in the old statues and pictures steep, when, coming to it suddenly, Return Tickets on the Atlantic and painted by men of superior artistic she saw a Yankee coming up the genius. In Athens, the ladies were bank. Without stopping to con- his hand cheerfully and said : cason) are Five Dollars from Goldsboro o Morchead City, (Beaufort Harbor.) Trains leave Goldsboro daily at 1:30, 5-3m 5-3m 5-3m ever excited more admiration. So also the noble old Roman matrons, pletely taken aback that he gave whose superb forms were gazed on up his musket, and was marched a delightedly by men worthy of prisoner into the house. It is no use referring to the oath them, were always very plainly dressed. Fashion often presents the of Uncle Tobey, which was wiped hues of the butterfly, but fashion is out with a tear, for the recording not a classic goddess .- George D. angel never took the trouble to reg-Prentice.

wishing-ring and of more value than all the rings in his shop put together. Now the goldsmith was a false, designing man, so he invited than if I had refused her the pass? is the possessor of such a precious view. Shortly afterward three ladies ewel, so pray remain with me." came in for passes. He asked the first why she wanted to go through the lines. She wished to go to her well with plenty of wine and civil per." words, but when he went to sleep home in Winchester. Of course I at night he drew his ring stealthily gave it-that was the proper place from his finger and put on it infor her. The other two ladies stead a common ring quite like it wanted to go home with her. For what? "Oh, to stay a little while." the goldsmith could hardly wait, "And get a little finery, bonnets and fixings!" After awhile they with any degree of patience, till the farmer had taken his departure.

goldsmith. The farmer laughed heartily, telling the man it was a

He awoke him in the early dawn, things. He knew their father, an saying : "You have so far to go, estimable gentleman, who lived in Charlottesville. He refused the you had better start early." As soon as the farmer was safe on his pass/told them to go home, that if journey the goldsmith went into tiable public, in moments of emowent to Winchester and his room, and, having shut the tional insanity, plunge the glitterbought their bonnets and fixings, shutters that no one might see, he ing shears into our exchanges. He all the other girls in the county bolted himself in, and standing in went off camly, but in a voice tremwould be jealous of them. The girl the middle of tha room, and turnto whom he gave the pass got up ing the ring on his finger, exclaim-

"I wish to have a hundred thou-sand silver crowns immediately." Hardly were the words spoken officers, he said : "That's a girl I'll when bright five-shilling pieces began to rain down from the ceiling ; The next year in a battle at Winshining silver crowns poured down chester, the one in which General so fast and hard that at last they be-Lilly lost his arm-that night the nan to beat him unmercifully about battle-field being in charge of neiththe head and shoulders and arms. er army-a number of ladies from Calling piteously for help, he tried the town came out to administer to to rush to the door, but before he could reach it and unbolt it he feli bleeding to the ground. Still the Ridgley, severely wounded, and these young ladies had no means of rain of silver crowns did not cease, and soon, under the weight of it, carrying away from the field the the flooring gave way, and the unwounded, and while the others fortunate goldsmith and his money went back to town to get some vefell down into a deep celler. And still it rained on, till the hundred thousand silver crowns were completed, and then the goldsmith lay dead in his cellar, with the mass of money upon him. Attracted at THIS HOUSE is never closed and mal parts of some men's nature as became necessary to dislodge the last by the noise the neighbors rushed to the spot, and, on finding the goldsmith dead under his mongreat misfortune, when blessings rain down like cudgels." Then the heirs came and divided the spoil.

Meantime the farmer went happily home, and showed the ring to his wife. "We shall now never want for him instantly sober, perhaps." anything dear wife," he said ; "our fortune is made. But we must contried the experiment, sider well what we must wish for." The wife had a bright idea ready as not you had not. Well, mister, sharing a quantity of about two I have come seven miles on foot to and his jaded horse. The effect of

"Let us wish ourselves some more land." said she; "we have so see the man that printed that piece. It don't little. There is just a nice strip lit wasn't much of a piece, I don't with cost of youthful minds, you had better unconsciously, pushed a paper of youthful minds, you had better weight towards the end of the table think; but I wasn't much of a piece, I don't for the horse finished a journey of try to cultivate brains instead of weight towards the tracted think: but I want to see the the forty miles with great apparent fawhich stretches in to our field. Let man that printed it, just a few min- cility, and the rider absolutely be-"That would never be worth ures. You see, John Smith, he came more active and intelligent. while," replied the husband; "we lives next door to my house, when whose youth and health have been that evening when we captured have only to work well for a year, I'm at home, and he gets how-camepassed in bearing children, and between 3,000 and 4,000 prisoners, and have a moderate share of good you-so every little period. Now, lnck, and we can buy it for our sober he's all right, if you keep selves." out of his way; but when he's And the man and his wife work- drunk he goes home and breaks In 1864, in passing a lady's house ed hard for a whole year, and the dishes and tips over the stove and near Charleston, she was standing throws hardware around, and by whom no male human being is "You must have a very hard time as that autumn, so they were not sometime hegits his mad up and goes with the enemy." She smiled and only able to buy the strip of land, out calling on his neighbors, and it said, "We do; but there are green but had money to spare. ain't pleasant,

Our Visitor.

the clamorous demands of an insa-ulous with a suppressed feeling and indistinct through the recent loss of "Just so. I presume so. I don't know much about this business, but I want to see a man, the man that printed that little piece abuot pouring cold water down a drunken ing him instantly sober. If you please, I want to see that man. I

Then he leaned his stick against our desk and spit on his serviceable hand, and resumed his hold on the stick as though he was weighing it.

After studying the stick a minute.

he added in a somewhat louder 'ere man. I want to see him bad."

told me before I come that the man live up north, and I've walked seven miles to converse with that man.

He sat down by the door and re-

"I suppose none of you didn't "Not that I want to say anything flectively pounded the floor with his stick, but his feelings would not allow him to keep still.

guess I'll sit down and wait."

"Mister, I came here to see that "Just so. I presume so. They him.

tone

man's spine of his back, and mak-

He came in with an interrogation the height required to receive the rafters for roofing. Tinners waitpoint in one eye, and a stick in one ing. The process of white-coating alike bear testimony to his bravery. hand. One eye was covered with the farmer to stay all night at his a handkerchief and one arm in a is now about completed in the first house, saying: "It must bring one sling. His bearing was that of a story. 11:18 A. M., first rafter for good luck to entertain a man who man with a settled purpose in the roof laid. At 11:11 the last brick was placed upon the chimneys, and the brick-layers are done. "I want to see," he said, "the He accordingly entertained him man that puts things into this pa-Roof sheathed and tinners begin to lay roofing. 12:50, scaffolding all removed from building. 2:30 P. We intimated that several of us earned a frugal livelihood in that M., sash in windows of first story and painters finished up; washwav boards down and rubbish cleaned "Well, I want to see the man in appearance. The next morning which cribs things out of other pa- away. At this writing the tinners pers. The fellow who writes most- are leaving the building; roofing ly with shears, you understand." and spouting completed. Plaster-We explained to him that there ers still at work in the second story. were seasons when the most gifted The building has been insured, and among us, driven to frenzy by the in the course of a few hours will be remembering and cherishing the scarcity of ideas and events, and by | ready for a tenant."

Helps.

it, neither !'

that I wanted to see wouldn't be and said: You know that we read anywhere. I'll wait for him. I that our Lord himself walked with ever pour much cold water down made a very fatiguing night march any drunken man's back to make with a Cutchie horseman. In the

None of us in the office had ever thirty miles, I was obliged to assent

"Just so. I thought just as like minutes, which he employed in have. I tried it yesterday, and drachms of opium between himself

If superior beings regard the when he gave up his sword there being thoroughly carried out!

would like to have a talk with own that they are seldom carried South and recognized by the North,

M. D. Conway, in a recent letter from London, says :- One of our Broad Church clergymen, being his landlady for taking a walk on Sunday afternoon. The clergyman said that he could not see the harm.

his disciples in the fields on the Sabbath day.' "Ay,' said the old lady, 'ay, 1 ken it, an' 1 ne'er

Dr. Barnes, in "A Visit 1

Scinde," says: "On one occasion I morning, after having traveled to his proposal of halting for a few

I would always have a man to be doing, and as much as in him lies, of life; and then let death take me less of my garden's not being fip-at nothing so much as that destiny Daniel Webster.

planting cabbages, but without any careful thought of him, and much was about to cut the thread of a splendid specimens of consistent 11 o'clock A. M., the brick-layers third floor, with corners raised to are up to the square of ceiling for held it.

In every particular he possessed the requisites of a true soldier. He was brave; his whole military record and life-long scorn of danger

He was wise ; his successes against great odds, and his almost constant anticipation of the enemy's movements, were proofs of his wisdom.

He was skillful; his forced marches and unexpected victories assert his skill. He was patient and unyielding; his weary struggles against the mighty armies of the North, and his stern defence of Richmond, forever preserve the memory of his patience and resolution. He was gentle and just; the soldiers who fought under him and who came alive out of the great fight, memory of the man, can one and all testify to his greatness and justice. Above all, he was faithful; cause for which he made such a to a surpassing degree.-Arthur and after the failure of his own so interesting as one in the Savanland, was vehemently rebuked by spent the remaining portion of his of Massachusetts and South Caro-knew "whiskers to fascinate the worn. Dyed whiskers are seriously objectionable. Certainly, it would be polite for you to accompany the lady home. When the time comes for you to propose to the lady, you will find words to tell your desires.

If you, in reality, have the training

While a Troy man was in a beer saloon the other day speaking to the toast, "Woman, God bless her !"

his wife walked in and led him out that on the occasion of another festive meeting he will have that toast -to which improved sentiment he

The moral world is as much suis to the steps that lead up to it

Ex-President Millard Fillmore is

A mother trying to get her little whiskers.

to extend and spin out the offices | by the ear, and he now says that on | ished. I saw one die who, at his will respond with an eloquence that last gasp, seemed to be concerned will cast a cloud upon the fame of ladies," no matter how they were | tion."

thought any the better o' him for man; knowing this, let us leave and venerable John Quincy Adams by this time.

the good of his native State.

When the last chance was gone, world, and are curious in the ob- | was no man in his own ranks or in servation of character, how few in- those of the enemy who doubted stances they will be able to discern his faith, or believed that he had of any vice, or virtue, or quality not done all mortal could do in the ruelty amongst mankind, such as and all hope was at an end, the old Judge Jeffries. But, for the most hero bowed to a higher will than part, the characters of men are of a his own, and accepted the fate of mottled description. The envious the South with a calm grandeur.

man is not always envious; the He could never take the field again, jealous not always jealous; and as he knew that, it was not for him to for good qualities, I supopse we must see the act of secession upheld by the Raleigh to Morehead City and re-$ 8 65 turn. Hillsboro to Morehead City and return, Greensboro to Morehead City and return. High Point to Morehead City and 14 40 return, Lexington to Morehead City and return, Salisbury to Morehead City and return. Charlotte to Morehead City and return,

North Carolina Railroad (good for the season) are Five Dollars from Goldsboro D. Hiv

CARDS. SION H. ROGERS, Attorney at Law RALEIGH, N. C.,

Office on Fayetteville Street, two half squares South of Yarborough House, Haywood old office.

Practices in the Federal and State Courts.

T. P. DEVEREUX. R. C. BADGER. BADGER & DEVEREUX, BC's, throw stones, or pursue any other juvenile study. Those Bri-Solicitors in Bankruptcy, Office in Stronach Building, second door | toms-don't they.

North of Yarborough House,

RALEIGH, N. C., Will attend to all cases of Bankruptcy. than the dominion some persons Mr. Badger will attend all the terms of the District Courts. No extra fee charged for consultation. 47-tf. May 13, 1873. GEO. V. STRONG. W. N. H. SMITH. SMITH & STRONG,

Raleigh, N. C.

We are told that "in London a child is born every five minutes." How grateful our children should sinuation and persuasion in order to be surly; it did not make them weak in order to be imperious; it be king, emperor, a great, rich far-be with his ists, too. I should handy with his ists, too. I should be that their lot is not cast in England. We don't see how a child that is born every five minutes gets weak in order to be imperious; it that is born every five minutes gets time to play marbles, learns its A B C's, throw stones, or pursue any be employed in scolding. weak in order to be imperious; it be employed in scolding. be king, emperor, a great, field int mer with loads of money, but no-you can't make up your mind handy with instant, not int fists I ever saw."

tishers do have the queerest cus-One of the best puns ever made by the late Phoebe Cary was this: Why was Robinson Crusoe's man There is nothing more curious Friday like a rooster? Because he scratched for himself and Cru-soe." now and then establish over others perhaps a hundred times cleverer. warmer-hearted, more tractable, wiser than themselves. A sheer bells in England and America. strength of will seems sometimes to count for more in the commerce of life than all the grace, and acter-melons.

about Smith : but me an the land is ours and the wish too that has never to mailarther. Then the good woman thought it would be a capital thing to wsih Wife," answered the husband, to sacrifice our wish for such a trumpery thing. We can get the cow and the horse without that." And, sure enough in another year's time, the horse and cow had been well earned. So the man rubbed "Another year has passed, and still the wish is ours, and yet we have all we want; what good luck we have !"

to induce her husband to wish for

"Pray do cease continually worrying and teasing me," cried the rying and teasing me," cried the farmer; we are both young, and life is long. The ring contain s but knew, but I don't hold no grudge Gratz Brown is said to be look- us? So do be sensible, and : muse acts when you pour water down what we shall wish for.

back." The wife, however, began, to be very impatient, and tried seriously something. out with a tear, for the recording angel never took the trouble to reg-ister that oath. One of the most important female qualities is sweetness of temper. Heaven did not give to women in-sinuation and persuasion in order

"Then he went for you, did he ?" we asked inocently.

one wish, and that must not be against John Smith. I suppose he squandered. Who knows what ain't a good man to hold a grudge Steel bars are to be substituted for ells in England and America. may happen to us, when we r night for anything now? Since the ring has been ours, have we not so risen soothe me to see that man. I want in the world that all men mar vel at to show him how a drunken man Attorneys and Counsellors at Law, complishment, and study, and good ing well and avoiding buttered wa- yourself, if you like, by thi nking the spine of his back. That's what stead of Sweet-heart, Good-Bye,' I come for."

don't think he ought to do so. He chronicle history he was then comcame home drunk lately, and piling, when he was gone no farther broke the kitchen windows out of than the fifteenth or sixteenth of his house, and followed his wife our kings. round with a carving-knife, talking about her liver, and aftera while he lay down by my fence and went to sleep. i had been reading that lit-tle piece; it was't much of a piece, and I thought if I could pour some is a work for him, and by doing it refuse to sing who never knew our water down the spine of his back, he may render essential service to God."" and make him sober, it would be the Church. If the one talent is more comfortable for his wife, and not improved, what a sorrowful aca square thing to do all around. So count many will have to give at the perior to the natural as the house I poured a bucket of spring water last day! down John Smith's spine of his This solid, rock-ribbed earth be-

We pity old men who have no neath our feet, and the altitudes "Well," said we, as our visitor hope of heaven. Their condition is above us, around us, and beneath, paused, "did it make him sober ?" lamentable. Neither the remem- strewn with flaming worlds, are no his stick and replied with increased tion of the future can afford them chamber where the Father meets emotion :

"Just so. I suppose it did make comfort or inspire them with hope. his household, and opens to them They have exhausted all the sources the thoughts of his heart.

reply.

will be a lullaby.

seventy-three years old. Fillmore and Andy Johnson are the only expresidents living, and meither of them was elected to the office. Mr. Fillmore, as vice-presiden t, succee-"let him tell you that you have lips ded President Taylor, who died a like strawberries and cream, cheeks little over a year after he was inaulike a carnation, and an eye like an gurated, and Andy Johns in succeeasterisk; but such things oftener ded the lamented Lincoln.

come from a tender head than a tender heart."

don, and they have to pate of 7,612 miles of streets.

Mrs. Oates' song this season, in-are awake.

inexplicable. It is a small slab of of the term paid for. Rev. Dr. West, of New Fiedford, | crystal, through which may be seen once heard that his choir would re- a sketch representing a skeleton, fuse to sing on the next Sunday. surrounded by this legend : "This When the day came he gave out the unfortunate editor was talked to United States securities, went to a hymn: "Come we who love the death."

"Mother," said a sprightly girl denomination will you have their, are made in heaven; do you think word used excepting to distinguish miles deep.

they are?" "Why, my dear, it is religious sects, the farmer, after a a very general opinion." "Well, little deliberation, replied : "Well, perhaps they are; but they seem a you may give me part in Old School Presbyterian, to please the old lady, long time in coming down to some of us."

found by experience that his 'copy' required wholesale re-editing before it was practicable for the humblest news-column. Apropos, the gaged a new "local"-that is, a new week evinced almost human inteltime was so fully occupied in trypurveyor of news, the new one is much better. He was out all day first and only item. We give it

The Adamses and Rhetts.

stating the near relationship of the Rhetts, of South Carolina, the Hon.

"We have seldom seen an article in a newspaper on a similar subject, eign quarrel. He passed from the Family-Reminiscences of the fice a letter simple directed to 'God?'

fever of the camp into the quiet of Rhetts," and in which a very near When opened it was evidently from the cloister, and, as the President of blood relationship is shown to ex- a little girl, and ran thus: " Dear Washington College in Virginia, ist between the two great families God, we are very poor. My brother sixty-three years in working for lina-the Adamses and the Bhetts. you please send him one, and then that could be told about Lee, nor two distinguished representatives of certain good young ladies. They can we do justice to his worth and of these families on the floor of the sent to the town in Massachuse fame; but perhaps the few words House of Representatives of the whence the letter came, and four of Sir Ector are the best of all. He Congress of the United States at the case genuine. Probably the was a good knight, a true gentle- Washington. We mean the able the girl's prayer has been answere time that they were so nearly akin.

What a romance could be made out indeed, are often stranger than fic-

A Moving Episode.

This is the delicate manner in which the Lebanon (Ind.) Herald relates a social incident of the sancwhere she sat. Directly it attracted her attention. She looked at it, took it up, looked more earnestly, and then, laying it gently down, changed to woman something else her attention to the paper weight then notify the publisher to said she calinly rose, gathered her ample

We cannot express all the truth istic intellectual rencontre of the The letter was put into the hands hadn't got out of the way."

Constitution :

countrymen he was too old and nah News' editorial columns of the worn to draw his sword in a for- 13th instant, entitled "A Famous him with fame and posterity; with and the chivalrous and eloquent the rest, the Resurrection and the Rhett, but we had no idea at the

"ASA MATTHEWS."-We never of the disclosures of the News. Facts, gone to press he rushed in with his agent.

Gazette, of Stockton, Cal., relates pling of the world was nobody's the following: Yesterday we en- Frankly, is this civilization? We assistant. The old one we had last hang a man who has killed another, ligence, but as a general rule his pleasure. We object to the pack some bar-keeper's tray-full that we by selfishness and want o consid his labors. We can't say that, as a stary disease by marriage, then w yesterday, and after the paper had public opinion as a restraining verbatim: "Startling Accident- MRS, LE VERT,-Miss Grandy

A horse ran away about a half hour writes from Saratoga, to the New ago, hitched to a buggy. If some York World, that on the evening folks who was crossing the streets before, at the Grand Hotel, Mino, awhile before he came along they De Vert read some selections from would have got hurt as a tremen- her work, giving incidents of Eu-would have got broke, if they Washington, daughter of Clark dous rate of speed at their legs, etc., ropean travel. Miss Eva Mills, of

In speaking of an article which sold at $1 each. Mrs. Beekman, of appeared in the Savannah News, New York, took 100. Among those present were Mrs. and Miss Adamses, of Massachusetts, and the Banks, of Massachusetts; Mrs. and

A. H. Stephens says in the Atlanta ator and Mrs. Goldtwait, of Ala-

"We often witnessed the antagon- I shall worry no more about it."

tum: We gently, and, as it were, which wins its quiet triumphs on skirts about her, straightway took one year's postage in advance, her leave, not even saying good- move within the delivery of bye. Certainly nothing was further other office before the expiration from our intention than to give of- a year, the postmaster should give fence. We merely wished to attract him a receipt; the party should as a work of art. We regard it as a his paper to the new office, where, fine work of art, and value it solely upon presentation of the receive for that neason-but the effect it has the postmaster must deliver that on some visitors is remarkable and publication free for the remaind r didn't receive much benefit from eration for others; but then culation for the future: discuss at care, and its ignoble nobody's:

miserable skulls perpetunded to.

private gain, as if the nobler par-but we suffer men and women to murder the future of society at them less dissemination of small-pox, say, are powerless, and have not even a

Mills, sang more than one delightful song, and Gillmore's orchestra charmed the audience with fine selections. About 300 tickets were

Miss Roosevelt, of New York ; Senbama, An arm-chair was reserved specially for a lady aged ninety, an intimate friend of Mme. Le Vert.

A CHILD'S FAITH.-There cause recently to the New York post-of-needs a new coat very much. Wou't

A pleasant house is not a hou where one is especially talked b but where one discovers that of talks more easily than elsewhere.

The tact is certainly invaluable which enables a woman to kne the strong points of her guests, lead up to their subjects, to supp.

points for conversation, and then leave it quietly alone. But it only a display on a grand scale of every hearth-rug.

that particular faculty of silence

Postage on Newspapers.

Should a subscriber to a news:

per or-a periodical, who has plad

A farmer, who wished to invest accumulation of his industry in broker's office to obtain treasury notes. The clerk inquired, "What but give me the heft on't in Free Will Baptist."

Nature hath assigned two sover-Several young fellows have broke ign remedies for human grief: Religion, surest, firmest, first and off their engagements with fashionbest; strength to the weak, and to able fiances this summer. They Our visitor took a firmer hold of brance of the past nor the anticipa- more than the decorations of the the wounded balm; and strenuous say that kissing a lady with an Elizabethan ruff on is about as action next.-Southey.

much fun as embracing a circular There are no means for the educa- saw in full motion.

tion of our race which can in any degree be compared to a domestic The Philadelphia North Amerilife in its purity. Domestic life in can and United States Gazette is the its essence is a bond of love, and oldest daily newspaper establishthrough this a divine institution to ment in the country. There are eight newspapers in the country beget love. that are over one hundred years old.

By trying to kill calumny, it is kept alive ; leave it to itself and it It is noticeable that in the United States in 1870 there were 1,345 deaths dies a natural death.

by suicide, while there were only The water of the Pacific ocean for- 202 by lightning; in other words an ty miles from the Farralone Islands, individual is six times as likely to off the coast of California, is two kill himself as lightning is to kill him.-Hartford Courant.

Deacon Davis, of Springfield, Iil., Daniel Pratt, the great American has been brought before his church traveler, alludes to himself and Ben for habitual profanity in making Butler as " the two coming universal geniuses of the nineteenth cenuse of the expression "by gum." tury."

Ex-Senator Foote's record foots up four duels and nine affaires in Ex-President Taylor's grave at Hope is the dream of those who which he was second. He is, pro- Louisville is neglected and forgotbably, the champion duellist. ten.

