For the Working-men.

Two columns of space in The Weekly Fra is hereby tendered to the Mechanics and Working-men of Raleigh, to be at their disposal for any matter they may wish to publish not of a partisan character. They are invited to occupy the space thus tendered them, and as much more as they may desire.

A whole page of The Daily Era will be at the service of the Mechanics and Working-men of Raleigh and the State next Winter, free of all charge or expense to them

Let our farmers hold on to their cotton and turpentine. Confidence will soon be restored and prices advance to the usual figures. Retrench in other ways if you can, but hold on to cotton. "It is almost as good as gold, it is."

A cotemporary complains of the arcity of currency in the South. Leaving out the present tightness occasioned by the panic, it is true that there is not enough of the law. We need more of such institutions among us. Will our Congressmen heed the necessity?

Notwithstanding the assaults made on the Workingmen's organ by the Sentinel, it has been received by the Democratic press elsewhere kindly. This is a quiet rebuke to the intolerant conceited mouthpiece of the kid-glove gentry, which is agreeable to every friend of honest industry in the State.
