

EDUCATIONAL.

THE COLUMBIAN UNIVERSITY. O'er the churchyard wall hard by WASHINGTON, D. C. Rises up a yew-tree high, The Preparatory Department opens Like a cloud against the sky-Like a gloomy cloud it lowers September 10. The Columbian College opens Sep On the smiling Summer bowers, tember 17. And the fair acacia flowers. The Medical College opens October 6 The Law School opens October 8, There it stands in shadow deep, While the dead beneath it sleep, For catalogues, containing full par-ticulars in regard to terms and courses And the mourners come to weep. Sylvan types of earthly changeinstruction, addr Life and Death in contrast strange JAMES C. WELLING, LL. D., Meeting within narrowest range. aug 6. 8-toet8.] President, &c. Here, the acacia's dancing plume, Light-green leaf and mitk-white

A Churchyard Reverie.

There, the yew's funereal gloom.

But alas! those flowers will die,

And dark clouds obscure the sky.

Under Autumn's earliest frown,

And the Summer sunshine fly,

Leaf by leat will flutter down

Sombre yew-acacia gay !

Yonder, mouldering headstones grey, Here, bright children at their play-

PEACE INSTITUTE.

Raleigh, N. C.,

Rev. R. BURWELL, Principal.

John B. Burwell, A. M., Associate S. J. Stevens, A. M., Principals. Prof. A. Baumann, Instructor in Vocal and Instrumental Music.

The Fall Term Commences Sept. 1st, 1873.

And the acacia lose its crown. All its branches will stand bare For circular containing full particu-Shivering in the bitter air-And no cibildren will be there. Gone the gladress and the bloom, lars as to terms, course of study, &c., address

REV. R. BURWELL & SON, july 2. 3-2m Ralaigh, N. C.

A, F. REDD, A. M.,

na, Musical Department.

Improved School apparatus and recently purchased musical outfit will open on

BIAN UNIVERSITY,

resumed on the 5th of October next Professors Tyler and KENNEDY will continue respectively to direct thestud ies of the Senior and Junior Classes.

model for the citizen, the ruler and cause, which most disturbed the little one, his girl, thus destined by formation; and viewed in the light firmly insist upon this responsibili- cation, but an act to remedy the evil the pursuit and application of achievements of the past beyond the joy and privileges of its natural 1876. Still with the aid which has home, in the hearts of the people. cause. knowledge, sustained by the Di- peradventure. Gunpowder and condition.

Religion. The unfolding of the a second deluge of barbarism im- fall so exclusively to woman's for there are less than two hundred school-house is too frequently the reference has been made, which last power is left to the beneficent possible. Innumerable mechanical sphere, and which are so productive loosely classified technical, agricul- shabbiest building for its uses in the should be no longer neglected in influences of the Church ; the first contrivances have given a decisive of happiness or misery, need quite tural, mechanical or business colis confided to the care of the Teach- preponderance to the industrial ele- as much attention in the course of leges in this country, while the di- goal, and alas! the instruction given to the young invaluable informaer, the Statesman and the Philan- ments of society; and, in conse- education as the adornments of the minutive Duchy of Baden, with the within its walls too often fails to tion for their maturer years in the thropist.

indolently put aside every sugges- merely, a thorough converse with thresholds.

"should have a millstone hanged theoretical mathematics and his- ten laws of nature, and to obey the lectual woman will move to the perhaps to complain just here, that marvellous growth of our seaport tropolis and the hamlets of the about his neck, and that he were Washington, D. C. BY JO. W. HOLDEN, ESQ. torical romances, the mysteries of rules of trade, to reason with pre- front, forever the most fascinating the donation made by Congress to towns, direct communication with country unsafe to the wealthy tray-Fifty years ago, in the United rhetoric and the mazes of the law, cision, to wield his implements and preservative element of socie- this State for an Agricultural and the outer nations of the world, and eller or the humble pedestrian. drowned in the depths of the sea." The exercises of this school will be The future legislator of this State States, there were no railways, no the memoirs of departed greatness with skill, to draw his edges ty-when it will be recognised that Mechanical College may probably finally the commercial indepen- Furthermore, it may be safely States, there were no railways, no the memory of departed greatness with skin, to that an early appreciation of the memory being spanning great and the exalted strains of poetical straight and true, to keep the an- the education which strengthens the it courses are and fail us entirely. While dence of our people. The fears ex- said, that an early appreciation of their money, hereafter collected for suspension bridges spanning great and the extrated strains of poetcal A special course of Lectures on the and spacious domes, no telegraph the multiform necessities of an use- and above all, knowing his own the sympathies, and makes the af-Difficulties Encountered by Young the Best Means of Surmounting Them, lines; Fulton's steamboat was yeta ful career at the present time. wants and the exigencies of this fel- fections purer and more constant in retained. But there is even a parain Local Professions and wonder; there were no ocean-steam- There is somewhat lacking in all low-man, it will stimulate him to their devotion to the good and mount interest to this, and that is facturing communities have been which have so often for causes partangel from the Heavens should will be delivered by GEORDE F. APPLEthe establishment of public schools long since dispelled. Education and ly explained, threatened the safety able wrong to posterity. Else couers, no storm-signals flying in the these, which they cannot supply,- add something to that general sum beautiful. BT, Esq., of the Washington bar. ports, no Fresnell or electric lights to a want, which provoked that mem- of useful, labor-saving invention, This movement for the higher ed- with a system of voluntary taxation prosperity having advanced togeth- of the social State; and because it A Post-Graduate course of one year's instruction in Legal Practice has been established in connection with the flash along the midnight coast; orable remark of our "Later Frank- which is the singular and enduring ucation of females is a sequence of sufficient to meet all demands for er the dangers anticipated have been will teach the next generation of demned to live and rear children in the teachings of the Christian dis- their support. Further aid, if pos- averted, and we have beheld the our laborers and artisans a cheerful by its evil passions to cruel princischool, open to the attendance of all who, there was no spectroscope, and on- lin," the lamented statesman of the glory of modern civilization. having attained to a theoretical knowl-edge of the law, may wish to perfect ly a faint knowledge of the physithemselves in the details of its practice, cal nature of the starry firmanent; fresh from venerated seats of learn- of the proposed reform in education ligion have ever remanded woman should be secured. For especially in the wealth, happiness and har- of loss and gain, which apply alike less known to government, the including office work and methods of ing, had yet to receive their first is overwhelming. Many trials to a condition of servitude, whence does that government owe this debt mony, which characterize the popu- to employer and employed, the adno cables in the depths of the sea: indicial procedure in all kinds of courts. no cables in the depths of the sea; The exercises of this department will no chemistry, with its manipulated lessons in the practical warfare of have resulted in this conclusion in her delivery was made the means to the Southern States. Moreover a vantages and necessity of co-opera- aster, unsustained by the shadow iudicial procedure in all kinds of courts. hopeless parent in the hour of disfertilizers, to revivify the land; no life and to lay the solid foundations France, Germany, Switzerland, of a surer degredation as the priest- class of citizens have suddenly been backward glance at the command- tion and of joint-stock associations, of a fulfillment of the promises of conducted by the Hox. CHARLES C. Great Britain and the United ess of licentiousness or the victim legislated into existence without ing positions once occupied by the and finally lift the working-man his holy religion, would be forced Norr, Associate Judge of the United States Court of Claims. Price of tickets. mitrailleuse, no nitro-glycerine, no of their future usefulness. The aim of industrial education States. The World's Expositions of unboly lust. The courtesan of the preparation of an education Colonial towns of Norfolk, New- from his level with the cogs and for the whole course, $25. 8-tocst. needle-gun; no mighty daily press, with speedy mail delivery through- is to supply this want; and it may of Art in New York, in 1853, in Athens, the Hetaerae, who were either at home or abroad. Millions Berne, Charleston and Savannah, wheels of mechanism into the posito sigh: HOTELS. London and Paris, and the one just the companions of bards and philos- of dollars expended in this direction as the first English ports upon the tion of an inventor, a master and a A Pagan, suckled in a creed outworn, " I'd rather be out the world; but a vast and varied be said to consist in this: country, thinly inhabited beyond To fit and train the youth of each closed in Vienna, those educators phers, says Mr. Leckey, the Histo- would return in benefits whose Atlantic coast, prior to the sudden proprietor. So might I, standing on this pleasant FRENCH'S NEW HOTEL. the Apalachian range, with ex- succeeding generation for the man- of the nations, have epitomized the torian of European morals, was the value cannot be calculated. And and wonderful development of the The student of this science will have glimpses that would make me panding institutions, and yet groan- ual as well the mental toils and proofs of its great value. In Europe, one free woman of that cultured it is a sound cause for hope, that manufacturing cities of New York also have his attention drawn to COR. CORTLANDT & NEW CHURCH STS., less foriorn : ing beneath the burdens, imposed by the surround- the system, long in vogue, is now State, who availed herself of the ex- steps have been already taken in and Philadelphia, and the position the industries of other nations, and NEW YORK, Have sight of Proteus rising from the ed methods of agriculture, inade- ing circumstances of their exist- well established; and but one voice ceptional freedom of her position, this matter. Yet the strange parsi- of our own State as third in wealth he will appreciate thoroughly in Or hear old Triton blow Lis wreathed ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN. RICHARD P. FRENCH. ence; to teach the machinist, the from her Scientists is heard, urging to acquire a degree of knowledge, mony of all legislators on the sub- and population among the original return the necessity of the spread horn quate facilities for internal com-Son of the late Col., RICHARD BRENCH, merce, weak and dependent manu- carpenter, the mason and all artifi- its extension and adaptation to every which enabled her to add to ber ject may yet lop the proposition of Colonies, should teach us, when we of information concerning their ad-In closing this paper, let us now of French's Hotel, has taken this Hotel. facturing interests, and inefficient, cers, not only the doing of their department of handicraft and labor. other charms the inimitable por- half its most substantial rewards. contrast our condition with the vancement in arts among the peo- take a general glance at the condinewly fitted up and entirely renovated heterogeneous inchoate systems of public instruction in the most acceptable man-public instruction in the most acceptable man-public instruction in the most acceptable man-public instruction in the most acceptable man-states, whose prosperity and free States, whose prosperity and free BUSINESS PART of the City. Centrally located in the ROOMS ATTACHED. 2-3minstitutions, nevertheless, depended and to instruct the farmer not only are told that Industrial or Techni- their ranks to escape the enforced measure, shaken down, well-filled of virtue, it is not the only basis of will prove both interesting and val- tion is called to the example of an PITTSBORO HOTEL, immediately upon the education, in the use of plow and harrow and cal education adds 50 to 100 per ignorance of a humiliating and se- and running over." national strength, and enable us to uable to the reader at this time. Industrial School within our bor-Pittsboro, Chatham Co., N. C. the trained integrity and enlighten- hoe, but in the chemical consisten- cent. to the economical value of the cluded existence. In Java, queen But the final foundation upon gaze with profitable vision upon Mr. Hinton says: ders, which has been established by R. H. BURKE, Proprietor. cies of soil and fertilizers, the signs unit man, that the finish and duraof the Sunda isles, that "garden of which to build is not the National another of the many deleterious in- "That trades may be drawn the bounty of the people of this ed energy of their inhabitants. Since that day the American peo- of climates and of seasons, the ways bility of his work is unequaled, his the world," with fourteen millions bounty but domestic taxation up- fluences exerted by ignorance and away, through the want and neg- State, for the instruction of an un-THE OCEAN HOUSE, ple, through many difficulties, have and means of irrigation, the value wages profitable, that he is sober, of unenlightened natives, the seat on property and the poll. Thirty slavery upon the prosperity of the lect of technical training, was fortunate class to be found in every BEAUFORT, N. C. made unparalleled advances in the of improved machineries, the fluc- pains-taking and contented with of ancient superstition, this custom years of generous contribution, Southern States. shown, somewhat to the chagrin of community. It is the institution SAM. R. STREET, Proprietor. arts and industries of life ; and with | tuation of prices, the adaptability | his condition ; that such an educastill obtains, and we are informed ("Rome was not builded in a day,") But in order to introduce manu- English manufacturers, by the con- for the education of the mute and THIS HOUSE is never closed and the multiplication of knowledge, has the advantage of being always wealth and dominion, new duties, of crops, the qualities and blood of tion is regarded as the prime ad-has the advantage of being always wealth and dominion, new duties, waried stock, and in all the econo-trial exposition. It was there seen work-shops, familiar to our citizens Iuxuries and necessities have been mic modes of transportation,-un- applied to the decorative arts, will made by an untitled citizen to their common wealth, would secure age the manufacturer to come, but that, in many branches of indsutry in its admirable operations, and supready for the reception of guests. Passengers land at the Hotel Wharf. developed amongst them. So rap- til, ad infinitum, among the various add beauty to the humblest craft; the courts of the barbaric world, to the next generation ample facili- prepare the way for his reception in which Englishmen had long ported by the unanimous sympawithin a few feet of the House. The Table is supplied with all the idly has this magnificent panorama producing classes of the land, our and that, as there is no commodity that the "bayaderes" of the native ties for public instruction, and and maintenance; and the chief been accustomed to consider their thies of an enlightened public. delicacies of land and sea, of progress passed before their eyes, industrial schools, it may be hoped, upon the market so intrinsically princes, whose beauty and golden property must and ought to bear step towards this end will be the country unapproachable, they were When the idea of its establishment complexions rendered "each one of the chief weight of this offering at dissemination of useful and scienti- equaled if not surpassed, by Ger- was suggested, the customary oppo-The Rooms are delightfully ventilatthat marvels have failed to astound will be enabled to produce the best worthless as toiling ignorance, there ed, airy and plesant, The Servants are well trained, polite and wonders ceased to captivate. The servant of the shrine of knowledge. For in- fic knowledge among the people, by man, French and Belgian manufac- sition appeared, but time has re-But the superiority of their craft sumption, from the material sup- ed as skilled, educated, patient in- God," alone among the female pop- stance: it is true that there are two the adoption of a system of public, tures, and that in many of the moved the last vestige of such a and attentive. AMUSEMENTS.-A Band of Music for has not been at all times maintain- plied in the market for daily use. dustry. And Mr. Geo. Muller adds ulation are inducted into the arts kinds of education for the children industrial education. Whenever lighter businesses requiring taste and danger from the hearts of our peo-Pleasure Boats for sailing, visiting the ed. For though, twenty years ago, True, the old, accepted basis of that, since nature, in his opinion, daily evening Hops; a Billiard Saloon; and graces, and the mysteries of the poor, to-wit: apprenticeship, this system is begun it will be also high skill they were "nowhere" be- ple. And so will it be with the surf-bathing grounds and for fishing; the learned Cobden said to the education, consisting of grammar, has formed every child to be a mereligion of that luxurious people. and that furnished in the schools. necessary to establish schools for the side their continental rivals. The final succes of this entire industrial and a Bathing-House within a few feet rulers of Great Britain, that he was geography, history, the English chanic, chemist, artist, shoe-maker, In Japan, whose more than three Now every one will concede that education of teachers,-Normal Inof the House, Promenades may be taken along the persuaded, if England wished to classics, and mathematics, with a printer, and so on unto the end; thousand islands are now flooded a first-class workman, by nature, stitutes, where the person who is ten years. Naturally, they sought shrll have a school-house with an hold her own in the racing of the discreet embellishment of the airy and that as the Germans say, with the rays of our Western con- should have had the advantages of to teach may become versed in the to learn the reason for this state of instructor competent to prepare our wide verandahs, or on the Promenade Roof of the House. The Proprietor spares neither atten- nations, that she must educate her sciences and chaste, laconic lan- "every child who can speak, may stellation, woman held until re- the best schools to develop his art of imparting instruction, in the things and found the chief to be children for a life of practical usetion nor expense to make the stay of working-people and raise them to guages of the Ancients, will forever be taught to sing; and every child cently the same relative position to mind, to direct his subsequent management of graded schools, in that the French. German and Bel- fulness. In this cause it is our duand no charge is made for ice-water the level of American artisans, yet remain the same-fixed in quality who can write, may learn to draw;" his guests happy and full of pleasure ; man in which we behold her else- studies, and to mitigate the hard- the methods of object-teaching, and gian governments had striven, ty, therefore, to labor and to wait, sent to rooms, or for any triffing extra others have since excelled us in and confined is sphere. Nor should so there is no reason why our first where in the Orient, but now the ships of the tread-mill tramp of his in the studies of colors, of music with great sucess, to give to their and to strive to remove that dis-To Invalids he offers the very panacea many things, despoiled our profits the advantages of those embellish- men of science, engineers, archidoors of thousands of school-houses calling. Without this advantage and of drawing, and especially of artisans such a thorough technical credit which in this respect has and dispelled our honors, leaving ments be wantonly decried, or the tects, artists, agriculturists, manuare to be flung open to her as well he becomes an inferior artisan, and the latter, since drawing is now training that the artisans of those been so plentifully cast upon the of health. Terms moderate .-- Special arrangewith us, however, the encouraging fountains of such information facturers and artificers, should not workings of the present excellent as to her former master, and the insofar a crippled citizen, often a known to be the peculiar educator countries were able to put their inments made with families. Refers to all who have ever been guests examples of past success, with faith closed. "Unhappy will be the have their peculiar gifts discovered constitution. It is all there,-the work of her redemption, which is dangerous man, who is out of joint of the eye and the imagination, of dividuality into their work; that is, means, machinery and the authoriand the hope that every sheaf will day," exclaims the distinguished in boyhood and the foundation of the freedom of twenty-five millions with the times, and who in return inat the Ocean House. THE NAME .- Do not confound the yet be taught to make its obeisance | Charles Francis Adams, " when we | their technical training laid before ty to make a successful beginning. of human beings, is to be begun un- flicts upon society the punishment it enters immediately into nearly to turn out highly-finished work, " Ocean " with the " Atlantic " House, unto the youngest of the nations. shall throw off that dependence or they quit the elementary schools. It may not be perfect, but it is der the auspices of our noble Amer- due for its neglect of his early all the details of an artisan's daily so when the buyers of the world RAILBOAD FARE. enough, and under its execution the The following Rates for Return Tick- The degree of education among cease to encourage the most inti- Therefore, if it be a reality that ican system of public instruction training. Thus the very security avocations. wanted good articles they purchasets (good for the season) are made on the the people of any State is the meas- mate access to those precious stores the peculiar gifts of boys may be broad foundations of a permanent However should a plan of public ed of Parisian or Brussells firms to of property is always threatfor the young. ure of its excellence in the arts of of intellectual, moral and religious thus disclosed, which few will per-North Carolina Railroad :--system of public instruction may And without violence to history, ened by the avarice of its posses- education be put into operation at the exclusion of our own. This rev-Raleigh to Morehead City and re-$ 8 65 peace and war. Thus England culture, which have thus far con- haps deny, and that they can be be happily laid in North Carolina. we may therefore conclude, that the ors, while its values are diminished any time, the question of compul- olution in trade was discussed at 11 10 rules the uneducated millions of tributed so much to elevate the trained to the pursuit of those in-Hillsboro to Morehead City and Four hundred thousand of her old belief that an increased educa- by the prevalence of ignorance and sory education will first arise, crea- length, and it was determined that, Hindostan. The degree of indus- condition of man. And yet," he dustries for which they are by nation among females led to frivolity the want of taste as well as of sound ting divisions in the ranks of the though the workmen of the past people now walk in the darkness of Greensboro to Morchead City and trial education among the classes of concludes, "I am not of those op- ture adapted, why should not the and license, or that there are for- judgment in its use, arrangement cause, because not a few are oppo- had been able to get along by sheer illiteracy. Of this number, above High Point to Morehead City and 14 40 a State is the measure of its wealth timists who imagine that nothing same rule apply to the education of sed to this principle and will com- force of industry for the future their two hundred thousand are ten years bidden sources of information for and disposal. and material prosperity. Thus remains to be done to secure excel- the girls of this State and Nation? Lexington to Morehead City and her that are proper for the de elop- To draw a sharper contrast : it is bat it to the final end. Yet as in powers must be added to ; that in- of age and over, with diminishing 16 50 financial reservoir among all na- On the contrary, I somewhat ap- that all the objections urged spainst linear mark of a former deliver, with diminishing ment of man, is but a trace of the having received a blan and on the contrary.

the patriot. And as this ideal is is the goal of modern progressive appearance of great men, whose bicivilization, we know enough to ographies remain as the histories of and shame. It is indeed the sacred itals, it did equally well in its recent, terity, would become an enduring war, and not against one another; say that it can only be attained, if nations, while in modern times, it duty of society, no less than of the munificent aid towards the pro- basis for the erection of systems of and, upon this rem in medio, the it is ever approached successfully, is the appearance of great inven- parent, to repair the wrong and to posed International Fair, to be held instruction, which would then be friends of education should unite through unwearying assiduity in tions. Printing has secured the restore the neglected innecent to at Philadelphia, in America, in held sacred, next to church and for the sake of so great and noble a been thus bestowed, we are yet far But as it is now in North Carolina,- There is one study,-that of politvinely purifying spirit of our Holy military machinery have rendered The minutia of indoor life, which behind in the arena of the nations, it was not always so,-the public ical economy,-to which a passing quence, our material triumphs are parlor or the insistence of the ben-quence, our material triumphs are parlor or the insistence of the ben-ship bear but poor comparison even with guidance of their business careers. pared the masses for the reception of its mission, and compelled the It may be, therefore, in many much more tributary to inventive doir. For there is a domestic econo-is a saventy-six: and the rest of Ger the winter's cold which yer the mation can append without more sections of our national common- skill than to the teachings of ex- my, a science in house-keeping, seventy-six; and the rest of Ger the winter's cold, which vex the nation can succeed without unrewealth, -it may be at home, --that ploded philosophies, or the sustained which could doubtless banish from many, with Switzerland and France, spirit and degrade the dignity of mitting exertion; and that poverty, thus laying anew the foundations of a power which has avenged in both the teacher and the statesman, unmoved by the grand achievements of science around them and dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the necessities of the inving day, the statesman dead to the statesman dea

tance was urged upon the public, which it would be profitable to re- And thus they will be taught to un-legacy through all time. Yet one nation has escaped the curse and emerged from the gloom more glorious for its indomitable pursuit of popular learning. For even white the legions of the ruthless Corsican were crushing beneath their tread the fabrics of that mediæval civilization, which oppressed Germany from the Alps to the Baltic, the kingdom of Prussia, bowed in debt and misery and yet intent upon the reclamation of its prosperity, educated the teachers for its present our own day the wrongs. it would be well to have this example recorded upon our memories, that it might be known that even in defeat the universal education of our children will pave the way

Gone the dancing Summer plum And instead-long Winter gloom Then the yew shires forth screne tion of reason and conscience for modern sciences and living tongues, Nor is this the sum of our antici- and attempts were made to estab- fer. With the finest natural facili- derstand that any industry is safer In its robe of evergreen, Smiling on that leafless scone ; Raleigh Female Seminary, improved, vigorous, general sys- is of an incalculably greater im- pations, since woman has aready lish them which failed from un- ties the people of our State, prefer- than none at all, and learn to comtem of public instruction, fondly portance to the youth of this State entered, with success and often fortunate management and because ring an almost exclusive pursuit of prehend the philosphy of a great to future victory. Alas, that North Queen-like, lifts its stately head, RALEIGH, N. . Gracious influence to shed F. P. HOBGOOD, A. M., Principals. imagining that what they learned and of the nation. For a knowl- amidst the most shameful persecu- society had not been prepared for agriculture, have never turned their New York journal, when it said in O'er the slumbers of the dead ; Throws a tender radiance round Carolina should have insanely in their youth is still sufficient for edge of chemistry, zoology, botany, tion, into the domains of medicine, their introduction. Indeed we must attention directly towards the es- a late issue, that "the murderers of Headstones grey and grassy mound, DR. L. VON MEYERHOFF, of Vienthe mental equipment of the rising physics, meteorology, agriculture, of literature and of art, and accuired commence with this kind of in-tablishment of manufactories. Let a recent Sunday night were of that gathered for this cause through many And makes glad the burial ground. Life and beauty still are there, Wh- n the garden-bowers are baregeneration. The things which mechanics, surveying, book-keep- a proficiency in some of the special struction in our free schools, and us trust that the current of labor loose riff-raff, which is eyen more The imposing new building with its years, to the unnatural demands they were taught, are still as neces- ing, moral and mental philosophy, industries, such as school-teaching, thence work upwards. In due time may be hereafter somewhat diver- dangerous to the public peace than Dark acacia-yew-tree fair ! sary in their degree and hour and and political economy, together telegraphing, stenography, print- the seed sown broadcast will bear ted into this channel, and that while the more avowed enemies of socie- And now, behold! the consequences of the horrible demon of civil war, So when this life's Summer day 1st of September, 1873. With its flowers, has passed away, place, but in no wise so beneficial with the actual test and application ing, commercial business in many fruit, which will be harvested in the farming interests are still more ty." That "a burglar or a high-Faith will put on bright array ; of the crime are being daily stamp-The Faculty has been largely in And Religion, like a Queen, now as then, where so much has of these studies so far as opportu- of its grades, and in other handi- the higher grades of Academies and highly developed, that factories for wayman very rarely commits a creased. The Music Department is in Raise aloft her head sereneed upon the hearts of her little been uncovered to the apprehension nity may permit, will teach the crafts, that were once the property Universities, until the various suns the manipulation of our own raw causeless crime. It is those wretches charge of Protessor Von Meyerhoff, a All her joys are evergreen ! pupil of Rubenstein. The Professor is a of a child that was once dark and future pupil how to plant, to reap of man alone, in all of which she is in.our system will pour their dif- material and markets for home pro- who are untrained to any industry, ones-alike the children of the volbrilliant performer, has succeeded well impenetrable to the acutest intellect. and drain, to analyze, to name and quietly rising to his level. And the ferent-colored rays into the bosom ductions may be encouraged and not even a vicious industry, and drift unteer and the conscript, of the liv-PAPER as teacher of Vocal and Instrumenal Indeed, the long-time blazed and classify the fowls of the air, the day has dawned, says an eloquent of the central orb, sustaining and established. The immediate result ing and of the dead-those helpless Music in this State. Apply for catalogue. 4 2m Concerning the Dissemination innocents, than to offend one of of this movement will be the rapid checked passions and desires," who beaten pathway to a professional beasts and herbs and insects of the writer, when with well-stored mind revivifying its influences. of Useful Information Among whom it were better that the guilty AW SCHOOL OF THE COLUMlife, through the dead languages, field, to comply with the unwrit- and disciplined powers, the intel- It will not be entirely useless enlargement of our inland cities, a render the thoroughfares of the methe People.

Salisbury to Morehead City and return Charlotte to Morehead City and 19 00 tions, controls the carrying trade of prehend, that over the whole ex- the better instruction of females, in medio. trade must be lifted up to their ments of an education. The re-

Return Tickets on the Atlantic and more than half the children of men, tent of the land, taken as one sur- were once used against the educa-

North Carolina Railroad (good for the to Morehead City, (Beaufort Harbor.) Trains leave Goldsboro daily at 1:30, p. m. 5-3m C. C. WILLARD, EBBITT HOUSE WASHINGTON, D. C. 48-3m CARDS. T. R. PURNELL, return.

Attorney at Law RALEIGH, N. C. Will practice in the State and Federal Courts. ger OFFICE near the Court House. 11-1y. J. McC. PERKINS. Counselor at Law and Solicitor for Patents, 513 7th St., Opposite U. S. P. O. Dept.,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

S Contested and electron GIVEN TO contested and abandoned cases unof Patentees.

zer Correspondence solicited. 14-1y

B. C. BADGER. T. P. DEVEREUX. BADGER & DEVEREUX. Solicitors in Bankruptcy, Office in Stronach Building, second door North of Yarborough House,

RALEIGH, N. C.,

Will attend to all cases of Bankruptey. of the District Courts. No extra fee charged for consultation. May 13, 1873.

face, sciolism is becoming the rule, tion of the commonalty of men; season) are Five Dollars from Goldsboro The source of her treasure and dominion is education, and it is surely and ignorance multiplies rather than and, although the advance of civilidiminishes." the fountain of all worldly power. Upon it depends the true security public instruction.

lettered offspring.

day,

Whatever degree of fact may sex of late, the doors of many honhave justified this apprehension on est occupations, which had been and value of all property; and the part of Mr. Adams, it is never- closed against them through prejuthere is no species of possession which should be exempt of right theless indisputable that he is cor- dice and unreasonable customs, from taxation for the promotion of rect in his estimate of the impor- those elder enemies of progress, tance, both of ancient learning in which still stand as sentinels before its place, and the necessity of secu- gateways grown rusty with the in-"And it must follow as the night the ring excellence in our present sys- justice of a thousand years, yet our that this dissemination of use- tems of education. To adapt the girls are as much entitled by the ful knowledge is the first duty, language of another, we may say, conceded weakness of their posi-

which every State, from generation | that among the ancients the human | tion, as our boys, to a participation | to generation, owes to its own un- mind was chiefly directed to phi- in the benefits of an industrial edulosophical speculations, in which cation. Let us, therefore, briefly But what makes a State ? what the law seems to have been perpet- glance at their condition here and constitutes its parts and entity ? | ual oscillation from creed to creed ; elsewhere. with sovereign powers and an in- petual progress from facts accom- nearly half a million, and in this College, New York. From thence disputable right to its autonomy. plished to facts in evolution. Nat- State of 15,700, one-thirty-third of the glimmering of a steady light We may behold nothing but the ural power implied among the for- the total in thirty-seven States, has gone forth. Other beacons outer mechanism, but it is not the mer, the constant energy of high nine Territories and the District of have flashed back their responses, shell, it is the invisible forces which intellectual or moral qualities. A Columbia, which is a proportion until now "the word-winged, whisder the Patent Laws; to Appeals, Re- have worked from i's beginning, great nation bequeathed indeed to slightly in favor of the women of pering wires" have informed us, issues, Interferences, and Infringe- that have built up its parts and its successors trancendent marks of North-Carolina. But this very that, on a recent morning, the growing out of the rights and interests shaped its majestic proportions. art and literature, exalted philoso- small fayor is not a cause for boast- breath of this rising gale at last dome, Wherever these forces are most po- phies, examples to stimulate the ing, since the record remains that penetrated the quiet depths of the "And Trade's proud empire haste to tent and unfettered, there the re- heroism of a people, and warnings there are above 15,000 more illiterate classic groves of Harvard and of As ocean sweeps Time's labored mole sult of their operations approaches to arrest on the path of ruin. But females than males among us. This Yale, nearest to perfection and we be- all these acted only through the injurious fact might well extort the Government aid upon a larger Is this picture overdrawn? Does it and vice, thus entailing misery and which is alike the foe to honest inhold the shadow of Utopia. enthusiasm of the intellect. While enquiry: what should be said of scale than individual subscription, not attest the value of National edu-A land blest with the most in modern times, if we put aside that society, which thoughtlessly has been always rightfully required cation and the primary responsibilfertile soil, cultivated and religious influences, the principal neglects the education of its inno- in the establishment of systems of ity upon all property and credits to Can it be remedied? if so, let it and insatiable, sweeps away the ages began their issue from the bo-zation has thrown open to the gentle ature, his memory and made as complete Let us see what it is, pagan traditions of classic lit a full-grown, white-haired, venerawhich still pervade the atmosphere of this century, having wover their way like many of the hamless holy-days and festivals of the calof the populace. But it is a wining along shines afar." of Female Seminaries recognized the necessities of the future, and Another cause accidentally restored now nearly all of them offer better inducements to parents for the industrial training of their children. The Moravian College, in this State, be it said to the honor of that venerable institution, was one of the of Great Britain, for example, the pioneers in this widening field. And at length, we may be assured, merchant princes would become the dens of ignorance and vice; while foul corruption sheds its ghastly away."

ble child as was ever imagined in a cation will say that the law-giver in England will prove to be of poet's dream. He bemoaned his has neither a Divine or natural greater value to America." loss among his books, but soon stout- right to authorize an entry of his Who then can gainsay the fundaendar, into the ritual of the churches | ly set about relearning his alphabet, family circle by force, and to com- mental importance of such a system and into the general superstitions thus hoping to retrace his steps pel him to educate his children in of education? For just as fast as the public schools, whether he is the productive processes become power. Long ago the conductors "The steep where Fame's proud temple willing or unwilling to see them more perfect, which competition educated. The advocate will say will inevitably make them do, and that it is the duty of the State to just so fast as joint-stock undertakhis powers after a season, and educate its offspring, and that that ings spread, which they certainly he became stronger than before duty carries the power with it to will, so fast will scientific knowlfrom the peculiarity of his mental enforce the education of all children. edge grow to be more and more And thus we have the epitome of necessary to every one. Such is the ration in this wrestle for the victory struggle against fate. Thus suppose that some unexpected blow should opinion of Herbert Spencer, Engthe two lines of argument.

strike from the minds of the people Nevertheless while theorists are land's latest if not her profoundest contending, it will be found in prac- living reasoner, and it is well spirit of the passing and of the apresults of their education. The hum tice that there are few, who are worthy our severe consideration, They are three in one : territory, while among the moderns it has There are 5,650,000 illiterate per- the system has been firmly estab. of their machinery would sob and ready to deny children the benefits since we know, from the historical inhabitants and a government, tended directly towards physical sons in the United States, 3,035,000 lished. It has found its permanent pause forever. The locomotive of public or private instruction. past, that but little of that perfuse the duties of citizenship, the The whole is a living form, endued sciences, in which the law is per- of whom are females, an excess of Vassar would rot and rust on its grass- The law-giver must deal with this acquaintance which we have with words of the written law, the peace grown track-way. The great ships fact; and therefore let us enquire, the laws of phenomena, and which and prosperity of the present hour, would crumble in deserted harbors; who are those children that are has enabled us to subject nature to and the palatial mansions of her likely to be denied an education, our needs, and which now gives to for the future, all command us to reand to be kept in a state of compul- the hind those comforts which kings enter the field with a more passionsory ignorance? For instance: an of yore could not purchase, can be ate ardor and a more continuing enapprentice, deprived by fraud of his traced to the present in so many rights; the son of a widow, who is respects badly appointed methods mould upon Cathedral, tower and re-married to an avaricious man; for the instruction of American or the children of degraded parents, youth. who keep their off-pring at hard | There is one scourge which the labor to support them in idleness cause of education has encountered.

adorned by a people educa- causes of superiority are to be found cents? Only that which would be public instruction. Acting upon contribute freely to the dissemina- be done in some cheap and simple accumulations of one generation, som of eternity.

The second second second second second second second second second and the second second

ted to the acme of intellectual in those inventions, which, when uttered against the parent, who, this responsibility, Congress wisely tion of intelligence and the diffusion manner, plain to the people at large, leaving its successor to continue Mr. Hadger will attend all the terms development, possessing the freest, once discovered, cannot fail, and having five children, cherishes the voted to the States donations for of useful knowledge throughout the and sure and speedy in its relief. even a more wasting struggle against cheapest, simplest form of govern- whose effects can never pass away. four and rejects the one, leaving it the erection of Industrial Institutes land? It is so surely. And therefore Nor should this be called an act for the recuperated hordes of ignorance And the thoughts of men are widened 47-tf. ment,-this is, indeed, the highest And hence the corollary, that the to darkness and suffering-and that for the dissemination of useful in-plane. And," concludes Mr. Hin- mainder, it may be said, repose inthe innocence of the first decade of The objector to compulsory edu- ton, "what was found to be needful adolescence. But Innocence is not Virtue. It is only an ignorance of vice, which yields to contaminating influences like snow before the breath of the vernal morning. Virtue is a nobler quality of the mind. -that power which has met temptations and triumphed over them,whose weapons of defence grow stonger and keener with the perils of each conflict. Let us not then become weary in our day and genewith hoary Ignorance, -our natural foe and our ancient master. The proaching century, the example of other nations, the voice of paterniour hopes and our apprehensions ergy. The dark spot which now rests on the face of our sun will be thus gradually removed, so that its brilliant disc may yet reflect, unobscured, the light of that perfect harmony of law, order and intelligence, which has been the dream

"For I doubt not, through the ages, one increasing purpose runs. with the process of the Suns.'