He has conquered death and sin; Let "the King of Glory" in. Never more, with harshest thunder, Shall thy granting hinges move; Bolts and bars have burst asunder At the potent touch of Love. Clear the passage, wide and bright, Flooded with supernal light; querers, too, o'er death and sin,-Heirs of Glory, enter in !

Gate of Heaven! Gate of Glory! Le: thy archways, old and hoar, Ring forever with the story, Grander than e'er swept before Through the harmonies of Heaven, Through the songs of the forgiven, Hailing him who entered in, Conqueror over death and sin.

Letter from Mr. A. S. Garner. CHATHAM COUNTY, May 14th, 1868. Dr. A. Young-Dear Sir:-I have been suffering for a number of years with an affection of the throat and lungs, general debility, enlargement of the glands about the neck, pain in my side and chest, and a bad cough. I had no appetite, and frequently I could not speak above a whisper, and all my friends thought I would speedily fill a Consumptive grave, as most of my family had gone in that way. Great was my surprise and delight, when after using a few bottles of your truly invaluable medicine I was entirely elieved. I now sleep soundly, eat heartily, and can do any kind of work. I am happy to say it does not tire me to sing or to speak aloud. Thinking that this statement may be of some service to suffering humanity, I give it to you

I take pleasure in stating that I am well acquainted with the case of Mr. A. S. Garner, and his cure is very remarkable. JOHN A. HANKS, M. D., Pittsboro, N. C.

Letter from Miss M. E. Webster. CHAPEL HILL, June 9th, 1868. Dr. A. Young-Sir :- You know what low state I was in when I first came to see you. I then felt that my time on earth was fast passing away. I suffered very much from pain in my throat, chest and side. My appetite was very bad, and I could not sleep at night, having a distressing cough, with profuse night sweats. Now, after taking half a dozen bottles of your Bronchial Syrup, I am well.

PITTSBORO, October 8th, 1868. I hereby certify that Dr. A. Young's Bronchial Syrup is an excellent Medicine for Dyspepsia. I have suffered much with that disease, and found great relief from your truly valuable prepar-ation. For Bronehial affections it surpasses anything I have ever seen tried. It has acquired great notoriety from a wonderful cure it effected in the case of Mr. A. S. Garner, of this county, who a year or eighteen months ago was thought to be in the last stage of consumption, but at this time is a hearty and well man.

Office of Raleigh Episcopal Methodist, RALEIGH, N. C., May 21st, 1870. Dr. ALLEN Young-Dear Sir; -I have for several years been troubled with Bronchial Affection, and after having tried various remedies for that disease am free to say that I have received more benefit from your "Bronchial Syrup" than from any and all other medicines which I have yet used. Those who are afflicted with Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption and Dyspepsia will ever owe you a debt of gratitude for so valuable a remedy. Wishing you an abundant success in the sale of this deservedly popular Medicine,
