Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wondeful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus makes impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine, which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the coutrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry puri-ponding duties, and that among these stitutions, we have determined, in futherance of these objects, to establish a monthly magazine devoted to the discussion of the science of government and to a review of political events.

Assuming that the legitimate object of good government is provision for the welfare and happiness of the citizen, his physical comfort, educational growth, and moral development, The Republic will bring to this test all economic questions, political action, and governmental

Holding firmly that in a republic, constituted as ours is, political parties are essential, and that they furnish the best, not to say the only means of that constant and severe scrutiny to which power should be always subjected, The Republic will insist that the country is not only safe, but safest with its destiny in the keeping of the Republican party; that measures of reform and progress must be carried forward through its instrumentality, and that its permanent ascendancy should be maintained so long as it responds to the demands of enlightened and progressive public The Republic will avoid unwarranted censure of opponents as well as indiscriminate praise of friends-aiming at that degree of independence and candor not waste words, influence, or power by purely negative criticisms, but will endeavor to promote correct action by affirmatively and plainly showing the better way. True, this line of criticism involves thought care, investigationwith the exercise of an impartial Judgment: but history has conclusively demonstrated that by these means the cause of truth and good government can be best advanced. The Republic will furnish a brief and accurate record of events of political and general interest, as-The proceedings of Congress. The decisions and action of the Exec utive Departments. The action of States and of political bodies of national import. The progress of material and educational development. Decisions of the judiciary of political or finanical importance and of general application. The publication being monthly, the record will be made up after the events have transpired, and will make, at the close of the year, a volume of accurate and valuable information in convenient form for preservation and reference. Among the topics claiming discussion The relative power and jurisdiction of the Federal and State Governments; the expansion of territory, revenue, finance, education, industrial school, postal telegraph, postal savings banks, railway insurance, river and harbor improvements, the public health, reforms in the public service, and the establishment of | centuries. equal civil and political rights.
