LOCAL AND STATE.

Wake County Republican Convention. Wake County will be held at the Courthouse, in Raleigh, on Friday, the 15th day of May, 1874, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the Legislature, and also to nominate county officers and delegates to the Congressional District Convention, and for such other business as may be brought before it.

three delegates and three alternates and the wards of the city of Raleigh will be entitled to the same representation as Townships. It is important that there should be a full representation from each Township.

By order of the Executive Com .: T. F. LEE, Ch'm'n.

The Republicans of Wake will meet in Raleigh on Saturday, 25th delegates to the Judicial Convention, to be held at Warrenton on the 6th of May.

siastic meeting of the Republican party of Raleigh, took place at Metropolitan Hall on Saturday evening, the 18th inst. Addresses were delivered by Hon. Jos. W. Holden, Hon. Jan. H. Harris and Friday Jones, Esq.

PERSONAL.-We had the pleasure of seeing in the city on Monday, the 20th inst., Col. T. B. Long, the efficient Post Office agent for North Carolina. the prospects for an overwhelming victory in his section for the Republican party in the coming election.

Consolidation .- At a meeting of the stockholders of the North Carolina Rail Road, held at Salisbury on the 16th inst., the amended charter as passed by the last General Assembly was adopted. The vote, including the State proxies, stood 34,245 for, and 3,247 result above stated. against the amendment.

Delegates .- Miss K. Bishop, and Messrs. B. J. Edwards, Jas. H. Jones and O. Hunter, Jr., have been appointed by Queen of the South Lodge, of I. O. G. T., of this city, to represent it at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of colored Good Templars to be held in Raleigh on the 28th inst.

Ex-Governor Henry T. Clark died at his residence in Tarboro, on the morning of the 14th inst., after a long and prostrating illness. Gov. · Clark succeeded to the gubernatorial chair of North Carolina on the death of Gov. Ellis in 1861, having, prior to that time, been President of the State Senate.

REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION .- We invite attention to the latest arrangement of counties into Judicial districts, to be found on our fourth page. The Executive Committee has added another plank to the plan of organization, providing for appointment by Judicial dred students. Conventions, of a Judicial Committee. OUR SICK .- Anything in the line of vegetables or eatables of a light character, would doubtless be acceptable to the patients who have been removed outside of the city limits. While no case of genuine small pox has as yet developed itself, there are several who are suffering from varioloid, and the public safety requires that they shall be kept under strict surveillance. Contributions sent to Mayor Whitaker will be properly distributed. REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION. -A convention of the Republicans of Wake county has been called to meet at the Court House in this city on Friday, the 15th prox., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature, Superior Court Clerk, Sheriff, Register of Deeds and other county officers, and also for the purpose of selecting candidates to attend the Congressional District Convention. It is important that every township in the county should be properly represented, and the Chairmen of the several committees should at once move in the matter by calling meetings to appoint representatives in the County Convention. Let every delegate be properly accredited, so that no confusion or dissatisfaction may arise. Attention called to the notice in this column.

PARDONED .- His Excellency Gov. Caldwell, on the 16th inst., issued a pardon for the release of Catharine Wood, who was convicted at the Fall term, 1873, of the Superior Court for Johnston county, of murder in the second degree and sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten yeass. The application was signed by many prominent citizens of Johnston county, the Judge, Solicitor, and was accompanied by a certificate of the Deputy Warden of the good conduct of the convict while in prison.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.-His Excellency, Gov. Caldwell, has determined to pardon no convict hereafter unless the application for pardon is accompanied by a certificate from the Chairman of the A Convention of the Republicans of Board of Directors, or Deputy Warden of the Penitentiary, that the prisoner in whose behalf the application is made has properly and strictly adhered to the rules of the Institution in every particular, ing McAllister's store and the Express and has not been guilty of any dis- office. orderly or intractable conduct.
