Resolved, That the act of last Congress of the United States commonly known as the Salary Bill, whereby $5,000 was voted to each member, and drawn from the Treasury by a very large number of them, was a breach of a moral contract by each member so voting or receiving, with his constituents; was corrupting in its influence and burdensome on the taxpayers; therefore, the Republicans of Chowan county take this first occasion in Convention assembled to denounce the whole measure, and those who sustain it, except the President of the United States, who was necessarily compelled to sign the law, or stop the wheels of government by vetoing the appropriations for all Departments.

The following resolution was offered by P. K. Jones, and unanimously carried:

Resolved, That having entire confidence in the integrity and ability of AUGUSTUS M. MOORE, of Chowan county, we respectfully recommend him to the people of this District as our candidate for nomination for Congress; and the delegates to the Congressional Convention from this county are hereby instructed to give him their united support, and in every honorable way to endeavor to secure his nomination.

On motion, the Chairman of this Convention was unanimously elected a delegate to the next Congressional Convention.

Mr. Moore, in answer to calls, in an eloquent and forcible speech of ten minutes thanked the Convention for the honor done him; after which, thanksgiving was tendered to the officers and the request made that the proceedings be published in the Era and North Carolinian, the Convention adjourned.

In the Republicanism of Col. D. McD. Lindsey, of Perquimans County, a man who was a Republican when it took men of iron will and unflinching courage to declare themselves in favor of Republican principles, we hereby recommend him to the Republicans of the First District of North Carolina, as a fit and suitable person and one well qualified to represent the First District in the next Congress of the United States; and hereby instruct our delegates to vote for him in the next Congressional Convention.

Resolved, That J. W. Albertson, of Perquimans County, is our first choice for Judge; a true and tried Republican and a gentleman of great legal attainments.

Resolved, That in Miles Commander, of Pasquotank County, we have an outspoken, fearless, able and uncompromising Republican, and we do offer to him the unflinching support of the Republicans of Currituck, as one of our Senators in the next Congress of North Carolina.

Resolved, That we do tender to C. W. Grandy, of Pasquotank, our undivided thanks for the able and efficient services rendered our party as our representative in the Senate of North Carolina, and earnestly request him to accept the nomination for re-election and as our standard-bearer in the coming campaign.

Resolved, That the resolutions adopted by the Republicans in our last Legislature condemning the action of Congressmen in regard to the "back salary grab" meets our full concurrence; and we do repudiate all Republican participants in said salary grab, they having betrayed the confidence and trust, as well as tarnished the purity of Republicanism, and circumscribed its usefulness.

Resolved, That although the colored Republicans of Edgecombe County number 3,000, yet, we do hereby tender our united support to place the nomination on a basis of color alone, and declare our belief that all such measures are but the shallow and despairing devices of aspirants for office, who thus hope to gain that political preferment to which they could otherwise never attain.

Resolved, That in the person of the Hon. Alexander McCabe, of Edgecombe, we have a man whose Republicanism is unquestionable, and one whose past record as Senator and in other important trusts, leaves no doubt of his confidence and trust, as well as his fidelity to his party, and to the honor and integrity of good government, and one who has stood unflinchingly by the everlasting principles of equal rights to all men; and one whose nomination to represent the 2d Congressional District, would give entire satisfaction to the Republicans of old Edgecombe.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to support the nominee of the District Congressional Convention, on the 14th of May, 1874.

Resolved, That having full and entire confidence in the ability, integrity and fidelity of our distinguished fellow-citizen, the Hon. Louis Hilliard, we do most cheerfully and cordially endorse him, as eminently worthy of any office within our gift, and do recommend him as our first choice for the
