Republican Mass Meeting in Wake County. The following is an abridged account of the great Mass Meeting of the Republican party of Wake county, held in this city on the 15th inst., at Metropolitan Hall: The Convention was called to order by R. W. Wynne.

Mr. Todd was elected Chairman, and F. M. Sorrell and J. W. Winslow Secretaries. I. J. Young moved that His Excellency, Tod R. Caldwell be invited to address the Convention. Judge Watts was next called upon and addressed the Convention, recommending unity and harcan party. Declared himself in fa- best for general cultivation. vor of the promotion of facilities for the education of the people. Civil Rights bill to the satisfaction of all present.

R. W. Wynne, Chairman of the County Board of Commissioners, was next called. Mr. Wynne said that he was no speech-maker, but he could say one thing, he had learned to tell the truth. He had been a servant of the people for six best of his ability, and for the inthe present financial status of the and matures with the Peerless. county. He said he could have been in the present ring now, but mortified to see the great Republion Mr. Lee when his Convention was organized to allow Messrs. tivation. J.W. Holden, J. H. Harris and others to address the Convention. and explain the matter in order to have peace and harmony, but Mr. Lee got up and objected and denounce all the party who do not belong to his clique, as bolters from the Republican party.

Mr. Jno. Williamson, of Franklin. being present in the Convention, was unanimously called to address the assembly.

He came forward and urged the Republican party to harmonize. That Wake county had always been looked to as the guide throughout the State, and that unless there was some harmony or some plan formed he should go away dispirited. He insisted that no one man should rule the Republican party.

Hon. J. II. Harris was brought up from the Court House and placed on the stand, with the great mass of the people following him.

In the foregoing we did not deem it necessary to make a synopsis of the speech of His Excellency, Gov. Caldwell, as justice could not be done it in our contracted space. It was a masterly effort, and we will print extracts from it hereafter.

Republican Meeting in Wilson. In accordance with a call by the Chairman of the Republican Committee of Wilson county, a portion of the Republicans met in the court house in Wilson, on the 9th of May, 1874, and transacted the following: The meeting was called to order, and Col. G. W. Stanton appointed Barnes, Stephen Eason, Solomon Woodard, Jonas Lamm, J S. Boykins, Ransom Hinnant, Hilliard Ellis and Connsel Boykin. The committee retired for a short time and returned the following report:

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of Wilson county, in Convention assembled, do reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, believing that in so doing, we can best promote the peace and prosperity of the people. Resolved, That we endorse the administration of our honest Governor, T. R. Caldwell, and for the able and impartial manner in which he has administered our State government, he is entitled to, and should receive the thanks of the people of the State.

In the first place I select the lightest soil I have, one year in advance. If poor, I give it a liberal dressing of barn-yard manure; turn it under very deep, then sow on some green crop, such as wheat, rye or oats, and plough under before it gets so large that I cannot cover all with the plough. I let it lie over until Spring, then harrow smooth, mark each way three feet apart; select the most perfect tubers, cut to single eyes and drop from one to two eyes in a hill; then make a compost of salt one part, slacked lime two parts, unbleached wood ashes four parts; put one good sized handful in each hill; then cover all from four to six inches deep, according as the season is wet or dry; the drier the soil the deeper the covering should be; keep the weeds down and the ground mellow with the hoe and cultivator, until just before the blossoms make their appearance; then hill up broad and flat, slightly cupping towards the vines, in order to hold all light showers of rain; keep the weeds down by cutting off or pulling up. I do not disturb the ground after this time, as it would injure the young tubers that are then in process of forma-

A Word in Time.

Harmony in a party is essential to success. It is not to be expected that in a popular government all should agree upon any one policy of government, or any one man, or set of men, to administer the government. Men entertain divers opinions, and as an abstract question it is confessedly right and proper. But when great issues are before the public-issues involving the very existence of a party-it becomes men to yield personal preferences to the good of the party. In doing so, no more sacrifice is made than when individuals yield their personal rights to the establishment of government for the control of the whole community. To the Republicans in North Carolina at this time, we take occasion to reiterate this well known and time honored doctrine. If the disaffected will undertake to accom-o'clock, M., on Wednesday, the 20th day of May, 1874, for the delivery of military STATE LIFE INSURANCE pose at the expense of a great and supplies, during the fiscal year, beginpermanent good; if they suppose that expressed dissatisfaction of certain well considered nominations will enure either to their own advantage, or to the promotion of the Frankfort, Ky.; Nashville, Humboldt, great principles of Kepublican gov- and Chattanooga, Tenn.; Huntsville ernment they sadly deceive both and Mount Vernon, Ala.; Atlanta and Capital, themselves and their infatuated

Some there may be, who desire promotion, but even their promotion redounds to the benefit of the Republican party, as a political organization, a power in the State, and ding, and the terms of contract and O. H. Perry, Supervising Agent. all who fight under the Republican banner, participate in its benefits or written application to the Quarterand share the fruits of its victories. But it is a mistake to suppose that the great majority of the white voters in North Carolina seek office, or desire office. Their purpose is to put down and keep down the that they require the aid of the colored vote to accomplish it, but they claim that in so doing, the colored man gains more than they do. Their rights are vindicated, they have the protection of the law, their claims to office are by no means ignored, and the white man in this contest is the last to raise the ques- the tion of color. If the colored man makes the issue, he must abide the consequences. As a friend of the colored man we advise him to make no such issue; if he does, defeat is inevitable, and with defeat upon that question, no intelligent man Cheapness.
