HALF FARE. - Persons attending the Commencement exercises a Trinity College, on the 10th and 11th of June, will be passed over the N. C. R. R. on half fare.

DISTINGUISHED LAWYERS.-Hon, Reverdy Johnson, and Messrs. Carrol, Brewster and Budd, all distinguished lawyers from a distance, will be in attendance during the coming term of the Circuit Court.

PISCATORIAL. - The various mil ponds, creeks and branches around the city have become popular resorts of late for anglers. Red-cyes, perch, catfish, &c., are said to be abundant.

VALUABLE RECIPE .- The following recipe may be of service to some of our readers during the Summer. It is said to be a sure cure for Dysentery: " White of two eggs, half pint of new milk, three table spoonfuls of flour, one do. sugar. Mix and bring to a proper consistency over a slow fire. Use occasionally."

CIRCUIT COURT .- At the approaching term of the Circuit Court, the Chief Justice will hear only equity cases, and will not arrive in the city until the second week of the term. Jury cases will be tried the first week, when Judges Bond and Brooks will preside. During the equity trials the Chief Justice will preside, with Judge Bond as Associate.

HON, W. A. SMITH.-This dis tinguished gentleman, who is enjoying a short respite from his arduous Congressional duties, spent the day in our city on Monday, the 1st inst. No member of Congress from the South has more personal popularity in Washington than Maj. Smith. His genial disposition and candid bearing gain him friends in all parties. Every body knows what he is at home.

EUPEPTIC SPRINGS.—These celebrated Springs are beginning to attract great attention on account of the wonderful properties of the water. They are situated in the northern part of Iredell county, about sixteen miles from Statesville, and can be reached three times a week by the Hack conveyance which connects with the railroad. Instead of our people going to other States in search of health, we would advise a trial of our own section.

Mr. Mertz, and followed by Prof. C. B. Fairchild, the himself in a highly creditable manner. His discourse, replete with patriotic utterances and wholesome advice, was well received by the large assemblage. He was followed by Capt. Albert Magnin, who read a poem appropriate to the occasion, entitled "The Nation's Dead." The tiring of a salute of 37 guns by Battery I. 2d U. S. Artillery, under command of Capt. Hamilton, concluded the ceremonies, during which time the graves were decorated with flowers. The presence of the officers and soldiers at present on duty at this post, with their wives, together with a goodly number of ladies, and sweet strains of music from the Raleigh Brass Band, lent grace and enlivenment to the occasion.
