The Chairman then addressed the Convention, and stated that it as was then organized for the transaction of business his duties as Chairman of the Executive Committee were then performed, and thanked the party for conferring the honor upon him. Whereupon, it was moved and carried, that the Chairman and ' Secretary remain in their seats as temporary officers, and that the Chairman appoint a Committee on permanent organization, which was perform its duty.

During the absence of the Committee speeches were made before the Convention by Messrs. Robinson and Guthrie, of Cumberland, J. H. Whiteman and G. W. Price, of New Hanover, and others. Upon the return of the committee they offered the following nominations, which were endorsed by the Convention, to-wit: For Chairman, W. A. Guthrie, of the officers elect to fill the official seats in the Convention, which was complied with. There was then a vote of thanks given by the Convention to Messrs. Cannady and Rosafy, for the faithful performance of their duties. A motion was carried for the appointment of a Committee on resolutions, and the following gentlemen were appointed: Mr. Bushall, of Carteret, Mabson, of New Hanover, Sutton, of Bladen, Sanders, of Onslow, Chairman, J. S. Harrington, of Harnett. Mr. Mabson moved that the Convention take a recess until four o'clock, P. M.; motion was carried and the Convention adjourned. The Convention re-assembled at 4 o'clock. It having been decided to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for Congress, upon a motion being made and carried, a formal vote was taken and Col. Neill McKay, of Harnett county, was unanimously nominated. The following is the substance of the most important resolutions passed:

Resolution reaffirming a devotion to the principles of the party. Besolution affirming equal rights of all citizens before the law. Resolution in favor of public schools and the development of the resources of the State. Resolution favoring the refunding of the land tax collected by the government in 1865 and 1866. Resolution endorsing Thomas R. Purnell and Gen. Allan Ruther-the utmost unanimity and good feeling prevailed.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Cannady, Whiteman and Price, to wait on Col. McKay, and request him to address the Conven- corder copy the same. and in a few appropriate remarks, accepted the nomination amid the dealening applause of the Convention and bystanders. On motion, the Chairman was autherized to appoint an Executive Committee for the District, composed of one from each county.

On motion, it was ordered that the Secretary publish the proceedings in the Statesman and the Post and request all Republican papers of the State to copy the same. On motion, the Convention adjourned sine die, and the greatest
