THE SHERIFFALTY.—A report has obtained circulation, gotten up doubtless for sinister purposes, that R. W. Wynne, Esq., the Republican candidate for Sheriff of Wake, has withdrawn. We are authorized to say that there is no truth whatever in the rumor. Mr. Wynne is a candidate and will continue to be until sunset on the day of election, when the honest masses of the Republican party will, we hope, have the pleasure of seeing him elected and our good old county redeemed from financial ruin.

MARSHAL DOUGLAS.—We take pleasure in copying the following compliment from the Western Expositor, to Col. Robt. M. Douglas, United States Marshal for the Western District of North Carolina. We have known "Bob" from a mere boy, and what the Expositor says, is so: "This gentleman is the Marshal for the Western District of North Carolina, and while we differ with him in politics, justice demands that we should say that he is a most excellent, efficient and worthy officer, whose official conduct is marked by high-toned sentiment and impartial demeanor. OUR CANDIDATE FOR SUPERIOR COURT CLERK.—Albert Magnin, the Republican nominee for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court for Wake county, was born in Norfolk, Va., from which place he removed at an early age to the city of Philadelphia, where he continued to reside until the breaking out of the late war, when he enlisted as a private in the Union army, whose fortunes and misfortunes he shared until the end, when we find him Adjutant General in the 10th army corps at Raleigh, N. C. In him many of our citizens will recognize the kind and courteous officer who had in charge the Safe Guards in and about the city immediately after the surrender. Mr. M. married in this city in August, 1865, one of Wake county's daughters, and with his wife removed to Philadelphia, where he remained until the Spring of 1867, when he returned to this place, since which time, by his upright course and gentlemanly bearing, he has won for himself a popularity second to none in the county. He has filed with general satisfaction the position of Deputy Sheriff, Coroner, Deputy Clerk and County Treasurer, which last named position he now holds. As Deputy Clerk, Mr. M. received praise for his efficiency from all, and was especially complimented by Judge Tourgee from the Bench during the sitting of the Court. The party had almost reached home, and while Mr. Masten was letting down the draw-bars the horse took flight at the umbrellas in the wagon, and started off in a full run, knocking down Mr. Masten and trampling over him, lacerating his face terribly and breaking his left arm near the shoulder.
