

WAKE FOREST COMMENCEMENT. We are authorized to state that the meeting of the State Educational Association will take place on the 25th, 26th and 27th days of July.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the State Educational Association will take place on the 25th, 26th and 27th days of July.

SPECIAL TERM.—A special term of the Superior Court will be held for the county of Wilkes, commencing on the second Monday in August.

RESPIRATED.—John Allen Ketchey, who is under sentence of death, and now confined in Salisbury Jail, has been respited until the 23rd inst.

GRAND MASS MEETING.—The Republicans of Nash county will hold a grand mass meeting at Nashville, on Saturday, 13th day of July.

RESTRAINED.—In consequence of a habit of taking care of horses occasionally for persons, he went out to attend to it.

HATEFUL COUNTY.—We are informed by the Sheriff of Halifax county, that his county is out of debt and "above board."

SATURATE A PIECE OF BREAD OR MEAT WITH GASTRIC JUICE, and it will dissolve. This is digestion. Add to such a mixture a little alcohol, and it will act as a stimulant.

REUNION.—The annual reunion of the surviving veterans of the Mexican war, residing in North Carolina, will take place in Raleigh on the 14th of July.

HON. JAMES H. HEADEN, the Republican candidate for Congress from this District, addressed the people in a speech of some length.

OLD CHATHAM AROUSED.—A private letter from a highly respectable Republican of Pittsboro, dated the 17th inst., says: "A large majority of the people of Chatham are enthusiastic over the nomination of our favorite, Hon. James H. Headen, and we are going to do all our efforts to give him a routing majority."

THE SWASEY SUIT.—In the case in equity before the present term of the Circuit Court of the United States, known as the "Swasey suit," brought to recover accrued interest in bonds issued at sundry times on account of the N. C. R. R., Chief Justice Waite, after a lengthy review of the matter, has delivered the following opinion:

EST.—We saw at the Home yesterday, a beautiful statuette of the world, executed by hand, and representing a beautiful piece of art.

EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS.—Notice is hereby given that I will attend at the Court House, on Thursday, the 25th of July next, for the purpose of examining any who may apply for certificates as teachers in the Public Schools of Wake county.

MURDER AT WELDON.—A dispatch received in this city, gives an account of a horrible murder committed at Weldon on the night of the 17th inst.

THE MARRYING EPIDEMIC has broken out in Oxford. A gentleman near New Bern has a twenty-one pound gobble.

THE NEWTON VINDICATOR has been shown a sheaf of wheat weighing 23 pounds. A new line of steamers will be started on or about the 1st of July.

COMPANY SHOPS is now the supper house going west on the North Carolina Railroad. Rev. P. A. Strobel has been elected Principal of Mt. Pleasant College, Cabarrus county.

A blind lady from Chatham, Durham, on the 14th inst. J. M. Reams recently fell from the door of the second floor of his factory at Durham, and was badly bruised.

G. N. Brown, Superintendent of the Wilmington Gunpowder Works, had one of his legs broken a few days since. Maj. N. F. Green, an old citizen of Memphis, Tenn., and formerly of North Carolina, was recently thrown from his buggy and killed.

THE PIEDMONT SPRINGS are now nearly ready for visitors. The new building contains a veranda promenade 450 feet in length. A party of six men caught two hundred and twenty-one fish at Island Ford, Rutherford county, on the 15th inst.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF DIVINITY was conferred on the Rev. N. H. Wilson, at the recent Trinity College commencement. The Atlantic Hotel, at Beaufort, has passed into the hands of Capt. Graham, who has remodelled and refurbished it for the present season.

J. Lenoir Chambers has been appointed clerk to the Assistant Auditor of the N. C. Division, R. & D. R. R., with headquarters at Company Shops. A colored boy named Solomon Blackwood, aged about 18 years, was drowned at the culvert under the Carolina Central Railroad, near Charlotte, on the 13th inst.

Prof. Genth, in his mineralogical report of Western North Carolina, speaks in high terms of the value of the iron ore beds in Burke and Catawba counties. On Sunday afternoon, the 7th inst., a son of Mr. Norwood, late postmaster at Castanea, in Lincoln county, was handling a pistol when it went off, killing his sister instantly.

A man named Reiley, a prize near Rocky Mount, lately persuaded a Miss Beech to elope with him under a promise of marriage.

A shooting affray took place at Elizabethtown, on the 13th inst., in which a man named McGee was shot in the breast.

The Mount Airy White Sulphur Springs will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 10th of July. The water is good, scenery beautiful and board cheap.

On the 14th inst., a colored man named Miles Mayhew, about 24 years of age, was drowned in Cayawba river, at Cornelius Ferry, about 6 miles from Centre.

A few days ago the body of an old colored man, named Allen Jones, was found in the mill pond near W. D. Webb, near South Neck. He had been missing since January last.

The sum of $10,000 has already been subscribed for the purpose of constructing a turnpike road from Wilmington to the Sound, and is a prospect of getting $15,000 altogether.

R. F. Davidson, of Mecklenburg, in his possession the market value of one of his ancestors in 1776. It is ornamented with a braid of a snake, and the arms, (a coiled rattlesnake) and the motto, "Don't tread on me."

The Enfield Times has been sold to P. H. Winston, Jr., and Moses W. Winsor, Bertie county. The Enfield Times will be published by Winsor. It promises to continue a Conservative paper.

We learn from the Stateville American that Col. R. F. Armfield, of Ireland, and R. Z. Linney, of Anderson, were the Democratic candidates at Taylorsville last Thursday, to represent the 34th District in the State Senate.

The body of an unknown man was found in the bank of the river near Asheville, on the 12th inst. One of his arms had been torn off at the shoulder, and his right hand protruding. A pair of suspenders were around his neck, and the back of his head crushed.

Salisbury Watchman says: A section of fatal blow was given to a man by another colored boy, Wednesday evening. The boy had a horse in charge, and a very gentlemanly boy, came up and "troubled" him, making some demands upon the boy holding the horse, which were not acceded to.

Maj. Bingham's lecture in Fayetteville netted $70 for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The kitchen and store of B. F. Knotts, of Lilesville, were destroyed by fire on the 13th inst.

New-Berne is shipping 100 barrels of cucumbers to the North daily. The Newton Vindicator has been shown a sheaf of wheat weighing 23 pounds. A new line of steamers will be started on or about the 1st of July.

Company Shops is now the supper house going west on the North Carolina Railroad. Rev. P. A. Strobel has been elected Principal of Mt. Pleasant College, Cabarrus county.

A shooting affray took place at Elizabethtown, on the 13th inst., in which a man named McGee was shot in the breast.

The Mount Airy White Sulphur Springs will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 10th of July. The water is good, scenery beautiful and board cheap.

On the 14th inst., a colored man named Miles Mayhew, about 24 years of age, was drowned in Cayawba river, at Cornelius Ferry, about 6 miles from Centre.

A few days ago the body of an old colored man, named Allen Jones, was found in the mill pond near W. D. Webb, near South Neck. He had been missing since January last.

The sum of $10,000 has already been subscribed for the purpose of constructing a turnpike road from Wilmington to the Sound, and is a prospect of getting $15,000 altogether.

R. F. Davidson, of Mecklenburg, in his possession the market value of one of his ancestors in 1776. It is ornamented with a braid of a snake, and the arms, (a coiled rattlesnake) and the motto, "Don't tread on me."

The Enfield Times has been sold to P. H. Winston, Jr., and Moses W. Winsor, Bertie county. The Enfield Times will be published by Winsor. It promises to continue a Conservative paper.

We learn from the Stateville American that Col. R. F. Armfield, of Ireland, and R. Z. Linney, of Anderson, were the Democratic candidates at Taylorsville last Thursday, to represent the 34th District in the State Senate.

The body of an unknown man was found in the bank of the river near Asheville, on the 12th inst. One of his arms had been torn off at the shoulder, and his right hand protruding. A pair of suspenders were around his neck, and the back of his head crushed.

Salisbury Watchman says: A section of fatal blow was given to a man by another colored boy, Wednesday evening. The boy had a horse in charge, and a very gentlemanly boy, came up and "troubled" him, making some demands upon the boy holding the horse, which were not acceded to.

Maj. Bingham's lecture in Fayetteville netted $70 for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The kitchen and store of B. F. Knotts, of Lilesville, were destroyed by fire on the 13th inst.

New-Berne is shipping 100 barrels of cucumbers to the North daily. The Newton Vindicator has been shown a sheaf of wheat weighing 23 pounds. A new line of steamers will be started on or about the 1st of July.

Company Shops is now the supper house going west on the North Carolina Railroad. Rev. P. A. Strobel has been elected Principal of Mt. Pleasant College, Cabarrus county.

A shooting affray took place at Elizabethtown, on the 13th inst., in which a man named McGee was shot in the breast.

The Mount Airy White Sulphur Springs will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 10th of July. The water is good, scenery beautiful and board cheap.

On the 14th inst., a colored man named Miles Mayhew, about 24 years of age, was drowned in Cayawba river, at Cornelius Ferry, about 6 miles from Centre.

A few days ago the body of an old colored man, named Allen Jones, was found in the mill pond near W. D. Webb, near South Neck. He had been missing since January last.

The sum of $10,000 has already been subscribed for the purpose of constructing a turnpike road from Wilmington to the Sound, and is a prospect of getting $15,000 altogether.

R. F. Davidson, of Mecklenburg, in his possession the market value of one of his ancestors in 1776. It is ornamented with a braid of a snake, and the arms, (a coiled rattlesnake) and the motto, "Don't tread on me."

The Enfield Times has been sold to P. H. Winston, Jr., and Moses W. Winsor, Bertie county. The Enfield Times will be published by Winsor. It promises to continue a Conservative paper.

We learn from the Stateville American that Col. R. F. Armfield, of Ireland, and R. Z. Linney, of Anderson, were the Democratic candidates at Taylorsville last Thursday, to represent the 34th District in the State Senate.

The body of an unknown man was found in the bank of the river near Asheville, on the 12th inst. One of his arms had been torn off at the shoulder, and his right hand protruding. A pair of suspenders were around his neck, and the back of his head crushed.

Salisbury Watchman says: A section of fatal blow was given to a man by another colored boy, Wednesday evening. The boy had a horse in charge, and a very gentlemanly boy, came up and "troubled" him, making some demands upon the boy holding the horse, which were not acceded to.

Maj. Bingham's lecture in Fayetteville netted $70 for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The kitchen and store of B. F. Knotts, of Lilesville, were destroyed by fire on the 13th inst.

New-Berne is shipping 100 barrels of cucumbers to the North daily. The Newton Vindicator has been shown a sheaf of wheat weighing 23 pounds. A new line of steamers will be started on or about the 1st of July.

Company Shops is now the supper house going west on the North Carolina Railroad. Rev. P. A. Strobel has been elected Principal of Mt. Pleasant College, Cabarrus county.

A shooting affray took place at Elizabethtown, on the 13th inst., in which a man named McGee was shot in the breast.

The Mount Airy White Sulphur Springs will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 10th of July. The water is good, scenery beautiful and board cheap.

On the 14th inst., a colored man named Miles Mayhew, about 24 years of age, was drowned in Cayawba river, at Cornelius Ferry, about 6 miles from Centre.

A few days ago the body of an old colored man, named Allen Jones, was found in the mill pond near W. D. Webb, near South Neck. He had been missing since January last.

The sum of $10,000 has already been subscribed for the purpose of constructing a turnpike road from Wilmington to the Sound, and is a prospect of getting $15,000 altogether.

R. F. Davidson, of Mecklenburg, in his possession the market value of one of his ancestors in 1776. It is ornamented with a braid of a snake, and the arms, (a coiled rattlesnake) and the motto, "Don't tread on me."

The Enfield Times has been sold to P. H. Winston, Jr., and Moses W. Winsor, Bertie county. The Enfield Times will be published by Winsor. It promises to continue a Conservative paper.

We learn from the Stateville American that Col. R. F. Armfield, of Ireland, and R. Z. Linney, of Anderson, were the Democratic candidates at Taylorsville last Thursday, to represent the 34th District in the State Senate.

The body of an unknown man was found in the bank of the river near Asheville, on the 12th inst. One of his arms had been torn off at the shoulder, and his right hand protruding. A pair of suspenders were around his neck, and the back of his head crushed.

Salisbury Watchman says: A section of fatal blow was given to a man by another colored boy, Wednesday evening. The boy had a horse in charge, and a very gentlemanly boy, came up and "troubled" him, making some demands upon the boy holding the horse, which were not acceded to.

Maj. Bingham's lecture in Fayetteville netted $70 for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The kitchen and store of B. F. Knotts, of Lilesville, were destroyed by fire on the 13th inst.

New-Berne is shipping 100 barrels of cucumbers to the North daily. The Newton Vindicator has been shown a sheaf of wheat weighing 23 pounds. A new line of steamers will be started on or about the 1st of July.

Company Shops is now the supper house going west on the North Carolina Railroad. Rev. P. A. Strobel has been elected Principal of Mt. Pleasant College, Cabarrus county.

A shooting affray took place at Elizabethtown, on the 13th inst., in which a man named McGee was shot in the breast.

The Mount Airy White Sulphur Springs will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 10th of July. The water is good, scenery beautiful and board cheap.

On the 14th inst., a colored man named Miles Mayhew, about 24 years of age, was drowned in Cayawba river, at Cornelius Ferry, about 6 miles from Centre.

A few days ago the body of an old colored man, named Allen Jones, was found in the mill pond near W. D. Webb, near South Neck. He had been missing since January last.

The sum of $10,000 has already been subscribed for the purpose of constructing a turnpike road from Wilmington to the Sound, and is a prospect of getting $15,000 altogether.

R. F. Davidson, of Mecklenburg, in his possession the market value of one of his ancestors in 1776. It is ornamented with a braid of a snake, and the arms, (a coiled rattlesnake) and the motto, "Don't tread on me."

The Enfield Times has been sold to P. H. Winston, Jr., and Moses W. Winsor, Bertie county. The Enfield Times will be published by Winsor. It promises to continue a Conservative paper.

We learn from the Stateville American that Col. R. F. Armfield, of Ireland, and R. Z. Linney, of Anderson, were the Democratic candidates at Taylorsville last Thursday, to represent the 34th District in the State Senate.

The body of an unknown man was found in the bank of the river near Asheville, on the 12th inst. One of his arms had been torn off at the shoulder, and his right hand protruding. A pair of suspenders were around his neck, and the back of his head crushed.

Salisbury Watchman says: A section of fatal blow was given to a man by another colored boy, Wednesday evening. The boy had a horse in charge, and a very gentlemanly boy, came up and "troubled" him, making some demands upon the boy holding the horse, which were not acceded to.

Maj. Bingham's lecture in Fayetteville netted $70 for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The kitchen and store of B. F. Knotts, of Lilesville, were destroyed by fire on the 13th inst.

New-Berne is shipping 100 barrels of cucumbers to the North daily. The Newton Vindicator has been shown a sheaf of wheat weighing 23 pounds. A new line of steamers will be started on or about the 1st of July.

Company Shops is now the supper house going west on the North Carolina Railroad. Rev. P. A. Strobel has been elected Principal of Mt. Pleasant College, Cabarrus county.

Table with multiple columns listing market prices for various commodities such as flour, sugar, and other goods.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, featuring a logo and text describing the product's benefits for health and digestion.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, stating that no person can take these Bitters without feeling better.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, describing its effectiveness for various ailments like indigestion and rheumatism.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, highlighting its role in maintaining overall health and vitality.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, mentioning its long history and reputation as a medicinal tonic.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, providing information on where to purchase the product.

Advertisement for VINEGAR BITTERS, concluding with a strong recommendation for its use.