Mr. Purnell.

This gentleman is creating immense enthusiasm throughout the West. On Monday, the 13th inst., he addressed the people of Rutherford in a speech of considerable length, and those who heard him, pronounce it one of the most telling speeches of the campaign.

He is everywhere keeping pool on the defensive, and the people of old Rutherford and other Western counties, are carried away with our noble standard-bearer. The question of Mr. Purnell's election is settled. Let his majority be at least ten thousand.

Mr. J. H. Headen.

The News acknowledges that Mr. J. H. Headen, the Republican candidate for Congress in this District, is opposed to Civil Rights, but goes on to argue that Mr. Headen will destroy his influence in Congress as soon as he votes against the Civil Rights bill. Now, if the News will only think a moment it will be apparent that the Civil Rights matter will be disposed of before Mr. Headen takes his seat. The bill comes up for action next session, and Hon. W. A. Smith will represent this District during that whole session. So, as Mr. Headen will not be called on to vote either for or against the Civil Rights measure, his influence will not be impaired by such vote, and being a Republican will be able to do much for the people of this District.

Democrat that could be understood this and been by a hand-

Tim Lee's Express on the 30th of July, as designated by the County Commissioners, resigned, and his resignation was read at the meeting of the Board of Public Instruction on the day above mentioned.

Sheriff Lee's paper of Saturday has hoisted the name of Timothy's father-in-law as a candidate for Commissioner in place of Mr. Rhodes, who, we learn, knows nothing of the change!

"How is this for high?" or, rather, how is it for the exercise of the one man power?

The time for talking will soon pass away. In a few weeks we will be called upon to record our votes. Let it not be said that there are any laggards among us. An immense responsibility rests upon the Republicans of North Carolina. Should the State be lost now, the great battle of 1876 may be in doubt. Our enemies are on the alert. They are working day and night for our discomfiture. Let every man stir up and exert himself until the sun sets on the 6th day of August.

Capt. Magnin Withdraws.

The subjoined card speaks for itself. It is to be regretted that the legislative nominees of the highly respectable Convention which nominated Mr. Magnin for the office of Clerk, should have combined their influence against him on the question of irregularity of nomination. He was nominated fairly and by a large majority. The nominees for the Legislature tacitly accepted nomination at the hands of a Convention which they now denounce; indeed, Mr. Harris, the nominee for the Senate, accepted in a speech.

It is to be deplored that a man's fortune "glosses over any faults with which he may be charged"; nay, more, it is a sad commentary on public virtue that such is a fact. We feel that we have a right to speak thus plainly, it having been agreed to read the card at every precinct.

To the Republicans of Wake County:

Having received the almost unanimous nomination for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake county, at the hands of a large body of Republicans, assembled in Metropolitan Hall, on the 30th of May, I embarked in this contest as a Republican, and with the firm conviction that I would carry votes enough to be elected. Owing to the following causes, viz: That the combined influence of all the Republican candidates for the Legislature and the Republican candidates for the various county offices is being exerted to its utmost extent against me and in favor of Mr. Bunting; and owing to the further fact that my opponent, Bunting, has a fortune at his command, with which he can gloss over any faults with which he may be charged; while, on my side, I have not a dollar but what is needed by my family for the actual necessities of life, I have concluded that to pursue the contest further would only result in the election of the Democratic candidate. I am satisfied that I could carry a larger vote than Bunting, but with the above named influences at work, I am not satisfied that I could carry enough votes to elect me, therefore I have resolved to withdraw from the canvass.

This action on my part is in good faith, and is taken with a view to promote harmony in the ranks of the Republican party in Wake county.

As the only condition of this withdrawal, it is agreed by the Republican candidates for the Legislature that one of their number shall read this card at every political meeting in this county during the present canvass.

And now, in withdrawing, I desire to return my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my friends who have aided me and cheered me on in this contest, and to assure them that I am actuated solely by a desire to further their interests as Republicans.

Respectfully,
ALBERT MAGNIN,
July 17th, 1874.

Withdrawal of Mr. Lincke.

To the Editor of the Era:
Please drop my name from the list of the candidates, as I have withdrawn from the contest; and oblige, by doing so,
W. H. LINCKE,
Raleigh, July 20, 1874.

An ordinary laborer's pay, at the highest, is one dollar per day. Leaving out Sundays, this makes his wages about three hundred dollars a year.

A great many families are supported on this amount, and many on less. Tim Lee has squandered the sum of sixty-six thousand dollars of the people's money, enough to support over two hundred families for one whole year. The charge for tuition in our best schools does not exceed forty dollars a year. Tim Lee has squandered and refused to make good enough money to school one thousand six hundred and fifty white and colored children, even supposing it cost forty dollars a year for each child. At four dollars a cord, Tim Lee has squandered and used for his own private purpose enough of the hard earned money of the people of Wake county to buy sixteen thousand five hundred cords of wood for the poor white and colored people of Wake. He cares nothing for the suffering families of the poor. He heeds not the clamor of the poor ignorant child. He has no thought for the poor shivering wretch. He adds insult to insult by asking the husbands and fathers of our good old county to allow him again to get hold of their hard earned money. The Republicans of old Wake are not to be humbugged by a man who has not only broken every pledge, but boasts of attempting to bribe an honest old man.

We are pleased to learn that Chief Justice Pearson has greatly improved in health since his return to his home in Yadkin.

He writes to a friend that he feels able to enter on his judicial duties, and but for the short time before the adjournment of the present term of the Supreme Court, would return to this city and assist his associates in writing up opinions.

We trust that the State will have the benefit of his invaluable services for many years to come.

Sheriff Lee was in high dudgeon when his threat to "burst the Republican party in Wake into a hundred pieces" was made public. At Apex, on Saturday, he advised the people to SUPPORT THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR SHERIFF!

Gen. W. D. Jones and J. C. L. Harris, Esq., are working zealously, by their efforts, will add greatly to the strength of our standard-bearer in this District, James H. Headen, Esq. With the united efforts of Headen, Jones, Harris and Young, we can confidently claim the District by at least five hundred majority. The Fourth District will do its duty well. Let others follow its example and the State is ours by at least ten thousand majority.

Tim Lee filed his pledge with the State Republican Committee, that if he did not settle his taxes in full with the State and County by the 15th day of July, he would withdraw from the canvass. He further stated in the same pledge that he believed it would be DETRIMENTAL TO THE INTEREST OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY for him to run unless he settled within the time designated. If Lee denies this, it can be proven.

Vote for competent men for County Commissioners. This Board is your County Legislature. Bear this in mind.

A meeting of the citizens of Morganton and the surrounding country, assembled in the Court House for the purpose of expressing the sentiments of the community occasioned by the sad and untimely death of Tod R. Caldwell, late Governor of North Carolina.

Resolved, That as a manifestation of our regard for the memory of the deceased, all the business houses of our village be closed during the ceremonies incident to the interment of the deceased.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a committee charged with the duty of superintending all the necessary arrangements incident to the respect and the funeral of the deceased, and of showing that attention to the comforts and convenience of the officers of State and others who may accompany the remains, that may be necessary to render their stay pleasant and agreeable.

The Chairman appointed the following committee: H. F. Bond, W. A. Ross, D. Frazer, D. McKenzie, J. C. Tate, W. G. Hogan, J. G. Bynum, J. K. Tate, W. M. Walton, R. K. Pressnell, C. F. McKesson, J. M. Happoldt, J. P. Erwin, S. C. W. Tate, R. A. Cobb, G. P. Erwin, R. C. Pearson, E. S. Walton, J. W. McElrath, W. D. Sprague, W. C. Erwin, D. C. Pearson and Joseph Brittain.

On motion, the Chairman's name was added to the committee.

On further motion, the meeting adjourned until to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

JULY 15, 1874.

The meeting assembled pursuant to adjournment.

The Chairman, Col. T. Geo. Walton, paid a glowing tribute to the many public and private virtues which adorned the character of Gov. Caldwell.

To express more fully the feelings of himself and the many friends of Gov. Caldwell here present, Col. B. S. Gaither offered the following resolutions:

We have taken to the tomb and performed the last sad rites towards the remains of our esteemed and beloved fellow-citizen, Gov. Tod R. Caldwell, whose death has been so sudden and unexpected, that we can scarcely realize the fact that he has passed to his manes from whence no traveler returns. We can do nothing more than mourn his loss, and we have now assembled to manifest to the world our high appreciation of his many virtues and to express our sorrow and grief caused by this mysterious dispensation of divine Providence.

Gov. Caldwell was a native of this county and had resided among us from his infancy to the period when he assumed the high and responsible duties of the chief Executive officer of the State, and he has been a prominent and useful member of our society, intimately associated with many of us in all the relations of life, and it is but justice to his memory that we should speak as we feel, and express the admiration we entertain for his many virtues as exhibited in his public and private life, especially in his social and business relations with us who have been his companions and friends and know his true character and worth better than any other individuals in the State.

We all recognize in Gov. Caldwell a cultivated gentleman of fine legal attainments, an eloquent advocate, and a pure and unblemished private and professional reputation. He was a man of strong feelings, decided and firm in his convictions, acted promptly and with energy in the prosecution of any determination of his mind, and even his adversaries always conceded to him honesty and integrity of purpose.

He was kind and genial in all the relations of life, perfectly honest, and scrupulously correct in all his business transactions, pleasant and accommodating in his intercourse with his neighbors and friends and distinguished for his affection and devotion to his immediate family.

The premature and sudden death of such an individual is at all times greatly to be regretted and deplored by his friends and acquaintances, who necessarily feel that a vacuum in society has been produced which time cannot fill up. But when the highest Executive officer of the State, in the full vigor of manhood, in the successful prosecution of his many and responsible duties to the public is arrested and silenced by the hand of death, his loss becomes a great public calamity and its effects are felt throughout the State.

Gov. Caldwell had been for more than thirty years a prominent, influential and active politician, and had participated in the discussion of the many important and exciting political questions of his day, and consequently had caused some prejudice against himself in some localities and with some individuals, and which is but the usual penalty incurred by all politicians.

One of the most beautiful and lovely characteristics of the human family, however, is that which prompts and induces all good people in all ages and in all countries to cast the mantle of charity and forgiveness over the faults and follies of the dead and to recollect and cherish only their good deeds and their virtues. Be it

Resolved, That in the death of our distinguished fellow-citizen, Gov. Tod R. Caldwell, we have lost a worthy and useful citizen, whose kindness of heart, integrity of purpose, honorable deportment in life, generous impulses and zeal in what he conceived to be right, have endeared him to all.

Resolved, That in his death the State of North Carolina has been deprived of the ability and services of an active, efficient, diligent and faithful public officer and of the future influence and usefulness of one of her best citizens.

Resolved, That we deeply and sincerely sympathize with the aged mother, the afflicted widow and children and the friends of the deceased in this their irreparable loss.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the family of the deceased, and also that copies be forwarded to the Piedmont Press and to the Raleigh papers, with the request to publish, and that the other papers in the State be requested to publish the same.

Jno. Gray Bynum seconded the adoption of the resolutions, and on motion of Geo. P. Erwin, to show further respect to the memory of Governor Caldwell, the vote on the resolutions was taken by the meeting standing.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

The meeting then adjourned.

PATENT MEDICINES.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, and their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkable during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the mucous membrane, and generally restoring the normal functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Serofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Gout, Serofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In such cases, as in all other constitutional diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have equal success. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners,
