The ship Three Sisters, Capt. Clark, arrived at Charleston the 30th January, is 60 days from Bourdeaux. Paris dates to the 19th, and Bourdeaux to the 21st, have been received by this arrival. Preparations for the invasion of England, it appears, were still persevered in; and the moment for commencing the undertaking, was considered as at no great distance.

The following articles are selected from the accounts received by the above mentioned arrival:—from the two first of which, the former French, and the latter German, it appears that the English have taken possession of Egypt.

Paris, Nov. 4.—Intelligence from Venice states, that according to the unanimous report of a number of captains arrived in that city and in Trieste, an English Squadron from Malta had appeared before Alexandria, and in concert with the British had landed some thousands of men who now form the garrisons of the forts surrounding Alexandria.

Augsburg, Nov. 5.—Letters from Venice, Trieste, and other ports in the Adriatic, inform us, that the English fleet which presented itself before Alexandria, was composed of from four to five ships of the line, many frigates and cutters, and a vast number of transports.—This fleet arrived there fifteen days after that city was taken by the Arabs and Mamelukes, and landed there three or four thousand men, who were to occupy the principal ports and maritime cities in Egypt. This fleet is the same which has been so long spoken of as making preparations at Malta, and which were supposed would be directed against the Isle of Elba. The letters which contain this intelligence, state, that the English have never ceased to maintain a correspondence with the chiefs of the Mamelukes, or the Beys, to whom they secretly conveyed artillery, and ammunition of all kinds. It is likewise beyond a doubt, that a convention was made between the latter and general Stuart, by virtue of which he was authorized to occupy certain cities in Egypt, should the Mamelukes succeed in reconquering them; and it is in consequence of this treaty that the English have now landed in that country.

Vienna, Nov. 6.—It appears that this Capital is at the present moment the centre of most important negotiations, that are carrying on between the principal powers of Europe. It is confidently expected that our court in concert with Prussia and Russia has offered its mediation to the belligerent powers, and that it has already proposed a new plan of pacification, in the execution of which the principal monarchs of Europe would take an active part. This it is which explains the frequent conferences of the ambassadors with each other, and which accounts for so great a number of couriers being recently dispatched from this city, for all the European courts.

Paris, Nov. 1.—It is said that the First Consul is to have an interview with the King of Sweden at Bassela; and that it is Bonaparte himself who has made the proposal, in a letter addressed to his Swedish majesty.

Nov. 5.—Letters from Holland state, that the Batavian Republic alone will furnish no less than twelve hundred transports of different descriptions for the grand expedition.

Nov. 9.—Letters from Hamburg inform us, that the cit. of Hertzberg in the Harze, is just occupied by the French troops. Cannon are likewise transported to the mouth of the Elbe. Every thing announces, that the moment of departure for the expedition draws nigh, and that we are on the eve of great events.

The following is from the London Evening Post of the 12th Nov.:

“Some difficulties of a commercial nature, relative to the trade of the West India islands, are now under the consideration of Ministers; but we have little doubt that every thing will be easily adjusted to the satisfaction of both nations; we, however, think, that if America be very impatient and urgent at the present, it is both indecorous and unfair; as a nation engaged in defending its existence, as we are, ought not to be pressed by a Friendly Power on any subject that is of a nature to admit of delay, which must be the case with every commercial negotiation.”

DIED.—On the 26th ult. at Sneedborough, CHARLES A. HARRIS, Esq. Attorney at Law, formerly of Halifax. By his early death not only his family and friends, but his country has sustained a great loss. To a social disposition, mild manners, and modest behaviour, he added the most undoubted integrity, and a very superior degree of talents and information. Indeed nature and education had combined to leave no deficiency either in his heart or his head. “This is the state of man; to day he puts forth, The tender leaves of hope; to morrow blossoms, And bears his busking honours thick upon him; The third day comes a frost, a killing frost; And then he falls.”

At Newbern a few days ago. Mr. John Simpson of Tar River.

CLOWN was got by Bourdeaux, brother to Florizel, his dam by Eclipse, her dam Crysis, by Careless, Regulus, Godolphin Arabian; great grand dam; Snappina by Snap. Mares son of Partner, out of Driver's dam by Childers. CLOWN's dam was a foal the dam of Smart Joan, Grape Tree, Mother Black Cap, &c. Bourdeaux was got by Herod, dam by Cynock, Godolphin Arabian, grand dam by Carrouch, Ebony by Childers, old Ebony by Bala.

DESCRIPTION.

CLOWN stands 15 hands 3 inches high, is a rich bay, with black legs, full of bone, perfectly sound, has remarkable good action, and was bred by T. Douglas, Esq.

PERFORMANCES AT NEW-MARKET.

CLOWN beat the Duke of Bedford's Craddock for 200 guineas; he beat Mr. Fox's Swallow for 300 guineas; the same week won a sweepstake of 30 guineas each, eleven subscribers, beating Skellock or Spray, Grey Diomed, Wheat Sheaf, Malberry, Gayman and Hidalgo; the same day he received forfeit from Mr. Fox's Swift for 200 guineas; the same meeting following he received forfeit from Mr. Fox's Swift, Be on equal, for 300 guineas; the day following he beat Mr. Bullock's Pretender, allowing him 30 lbs. for 100 guineas; the day following he was second to the Duke of Bedford's Craddock for the juv. club plate, beating the Thomas Dirger, Miss and Ruby; in the same week he worked over for the Ladies plate at York.

DAVID RAY.

CEUR de LION,

WAS got by Highflyer, the favourite son of Heron; his dam the famous Dido by 2nd lot.

In point of blood he has no superior. His size, bone, line of the figure, motion and colour, would receive no injury by a comparison with the first race horses on the continent. He was awarded a horse of extraordinary speed & bottom. His tried colts are runners, at least I have heard of some and I know of others, that would not fear an equal match.

He is in good health and fine order, and from my own observations I can state that he is a horse very free from diseases; that he enjoys a strong and hardy constitution; and that he is a true stallion.

He will be ready to go to mares, at his old stand, early in February. An early colt is not only sooner fit for service, but I am induced to believe acquires usually a much better size than one foaled in the summer. The difference in price will be a trifle compared to these important considerations.
