Raleigh,

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1804.

This day the Legislature of North-Carolina are to meet in this City.

The Printing office of Mr. R. Davison of Warrenton, together with all his Types, Books, and Stationary, &c. were consumed by fire on the morning of Saturday last. The loss of Mr. Davison, we learn, is very great. We are told it is the belief of Mr. D. that some villain must have set fire to his office.

Was stolen out of the house of Mr. John Pullen, jun. of this county, on the night of Wednesday the 7th inst, a Trunk containing, besides sundry papers, about 436 dolls. The trunk belonged to Mr. George Pullen, Collector & Constable, and what renders the loss very heavy, the money was collected by virtue of his offices and the principal part was tax money—to refund which we are sorry to state will absolutely ruin this industrious young man.

Four thousand two hundred and seventy two SLAVES, have been imported into the city of Charleston, from the 1st of January last to the 22d of October.

RECORDED.
By next Season the Course will be a mile.

A lawyer upon the last circuit in Ireland, who was pleading the cause of an infant plaintiff, took the child up in his arms, & presented it to the jury suffused with tears. This had a great effect, until the opposite lawyer asked what made him cry? "He pinched me," answered the little innocent. The whole court was convulsed with laughter.

By several gentlemen, recently from Black Mingo, we are informed that the skeleton of a man has lately been discovered in that neighborhood—no sufficient vestige of his person remained to ascertain with precision who he was. A jury of inquest was held on the body, who returned a verdict of wilful murder, by some person or persons unknown, as there was the appearance of a stab through his vest, and the ground stained with blood in several places—but from the circumstance of a hat, boots, some other apparel, and a neckcloth marked B. C. being found on him, we are induced to believe this unfortunate man committed suicide, and that his name is Ballard Clarke, lately from Beaufort, who left town a few weeks since, in a state of mental derangement. (Georgetown Gazette.)

Affection.—The affection of the parent bird to its young, was never more forcibly displayed than in the following instance:—Last week an unfeeling boy purloined a thrush's nest, near Rockliff, and exultingly bore away his prize towards this city, where he lives. The dam, who had recently quitted her young, was not ignorant of the theft, but with unceasing solicitude, pursued them step by step. The boy and his companion perceiving this, repeatedly put down the nest, which she as constantly dropped into, and maintained possession until almost grasped with the hand.

"O what passions thee,
"What melting sentiments of kindly care,
"The watchful fondness felt!"

Thus they travelled on together, until the boy reached home, when he deposited the nest within the house.—The disconsolate dam watching an opportunity sprung in at the window with as much alacrity as another bird would have rushed out! Again she claimed her progeny, and could not be driven away. [Liverpool paper.]

MARRIED,

At Newbern, Benjamin H. Martin, Esq. Counsellor at Law, to Miss Comfort Jones. On Sunday the 4th ult. Mr. Jesse Slocomb, Merchant of Wilmington, to Miss Hannah G. Green, daughter of Col. Joseph Green, of Wayne County.

DIED,

At Halifax, Dr. James Pasteur, late of Newbern.

On the 9th of November, after a lingering and painful illness, James Hogg, Esq. near Hillsborough, closed a well spent life in the 76th year of his age; his family have to regret the loss of a tender & affectionate parent, and a kind and indulgent master, his friends the pattern and ornament of their social circle, the poor their benefactor, and the stranger that genuine hospitality & politeness which had them welcome to his house.

Though sunk into the shades of inaction and silence, the remembrance of his example cannot cease to offer instruction nor fail to attract imitation.

Postscript,

We learn that Mr. Culpepper of Anson, has the greatest number of votes for Elebor of President of Vice President of the U. S. but that the Sheriff of Montgomery having failed to make a return of the votes given in that county, it is probable that Mr. R. Cochran of Cumberland, has the most votes now returned.

His Excellency Jonathan Trumbull, the honorable John Treadwell, hon. Oliver Ellsworth, David Dagget, Joshua Huntington, Lewis B. Surges, David Smith, Asher Miller, and Sylvester Gilbert, Esquires, are appointed by the Legislature of Connecticut, Electors of President and Vice-President.

The legislature of Connecticut closed their session on the 3d inst. The four justices of the peace who were summoned to appear before that body to show cause, if any they had, why their commissions should not be revoked, after a full hearing, in which their cause was argued by their counsel, Pierpont Edwards, were removed from office.

Congress of the United States.

H. Representatives, Thursday, Nov. 8.

Mr. J. Clay offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to present in the name of Congress to Capt. Stephen Decatur, a sword of the value of dollars, and to each of the officers and crew of the United States' Ketch Intrepid, months pay, as a testimony of the high sense entertained by Congress of the gallantry, good conduct and services of Capt. Decatur, the officers and crew of the said Ketch, in attacking and destroying a Tripolitan frigate of 44 guns, late the United States' frigate Philadelphia.

The resolution was referred to a committee of the whole on the floor of the Union and ordered to be printed.

The committee of revival and unfinished business made a report, which was received and ordered to be printed for the use of the member.

Committee of post office and post roads.—Messrs. Newton, Thomas, Hannah, N. Mitchell, Lowndes, G. W. Campbell and Southard.

Committee to whom was referred the articles of impeachment against Samuel Chase.—Messrs. J. Randolph, Jos. Clay, Early, Boyle and John Rhea of Tennessee.

Adjournd.

November 9.

Mr. Kennedy presented a petition from a number of merchants, traders and farmers of the Edenton district, in N. Carolina, praying the establishment of a port of entry and delivery at Plymouth. The new district to comprehend all the creeks and harbours on the Roanoke and Cashie rivers.—Referred to the committee of commerce and manufactures together with a petition presented at the last session on the same subject.

Mr. J. Clay's motion relative to Captain Decatur, the officers and crew of the Intrepid Ketch, was taken up in committee of the whole, Mr. Varnum in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Cay, the resolution was altered by striking out after the word "sword" the words "of the value of dollars" and filling up the other blank with the word "two" thereby giving the officers and crew 2 months pay.

Mr. J. Cay, with a view of shewing the propriety of the measure, read extracts of letters written by commodore Preble and lieut. Decatur, which had been obtained from the secretary of the navy; they contained an account of the circumstances attending the honourable exploit, which have heretofore been printed in the public newspapers.

The committee rose and reported the resolution as amended.

Mr. Griswold presumed the object of this step was to pay a tribute of respect to those brave men who had so gallantly achieved this glorious and dangerous enterprise. He wished to do this in a manner the most honorable and notorious, and perhaps the best course would be to obtain from the head of the navy department a list of the names of the officers and the number of the crew, together with a detail of the circumstances attending the event. With this view he moved to postpone the consideration of the resolution reported by the committee of the whole till to-morrow, in order to introduce a resolution to this effect: that the secretary of the navy be directed to communicate to this house the names of the officers and the number of the men employed in the destruction of the frigate in the harbour of Tripoli, together with a statement of the circumstances attending that event.

The postponement was agreed to without opposition. & the resolution of Mr. Griswold was adopted with a small variation suggested by Mr. J. Randolph, and acquiesced in by the mover, viz. "That the president of the United States be requested to cause to be laid before this house &c."

Mr. J. Clay and Mr. T. M. Randolph were appointed a committee to wait on the president and communicate the request of the house.

On motion of Mr. Holmes, it was agreed that when the house adjourns, it adjourn to Monday next.
