NOTES.

- The Post master general may expedite the mails and alter the times of arrival and departure at any time during the continuance of the contracts, he stipulating an adequate compensation for any extra expense that may be occasioned thereby.
- Fifteen minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mails at all offices where no particular time is specified.
- For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the time prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit one dollar; and if the delay continues until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mails destined for such depending mail lose a trip, an additional forfeiture of five dollars shall be incurred.
- Newspapers as well as letters are to be sent in the mail; and if any person making proposals, desires to carry newspapers, other than those conveyed in the mail, for his own emolument, he must state in his proposals for what sum he will carry with the emolument, and for what sum without that emolument.
- Should any person making proposals desire an alteration of the times of arrival and departure above specified, he must state in his proposals the alteration desired, and the difference they will make in the terms of the contract.
- Persons making proposals are desired to state their prices by the year: Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly in the months of August, November, February and May, in one month after the expiration of each quarter.
- No other than a free white person shall be employed to convey the mail.
- When the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage, he is desired to state it in his proposals.
- The Post master general reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end whenever three failures happen, which amount to the loss of a trip each.
- The contracts for the above routes are to be in operation on the 1st day of April next, and are to continue in force for two years.

JOHN PEACE, Jun. Adm'r.
December 15.

WHEREAS information has been given unto us that persons in several counties within this state and Tennessee, have assumed to themselves the appellation of Free Masons, and have associated together for purposes unknown. It is therefore made my duty by a special order for that purpose given, to publish the names, numbers, and places of meeting respectively, of all the Lodges, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina and Tennessee; and in behalf of our Grand Lodge, to declare that all other associations under the appellation of Free Masons, are impious; that we do deny any connection or fraternity with such associations. We do advise persons to avoid such, declaring that the following and no other, are possessed of the craft; and that they are regular constituted Lodges; to wit:

- |                      |       |                                  |

From the Archives,
Test, Robert Williams,
Grand Secretary.
Raleigh, Dec. 27th, A. D. 1806.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

September Term, 1836.
JAMES L. SHANNONHOUSE, having sued out an Original Attachment against the estate of Jeremiah Murden, late of Charleston in South Carolina, returnable before the Court at this Term; and the Sheriff having returned thereon, that "he had levied the same on his lands in the county aforesaid, and summoned Anthony Bull as Garnish."

It is ordered that three months public notice thereof be given to the said Jeremiah Murden, (by advertisement in the Raleigh Minerva) of the act of the General Assembly in such cases directed that unless he appears at the next term of the said court, on the first Monday in March next, replevies his estate, and pleads to the said action, final judgment thereon will be entered up against him.

By Order,
William T. Aluse, Clerk.

FOR SALE,

TWO Hundred and Four Acres of LAND on Ence River, adjoining Hart's and Campbell's Mills, two and an half miles west of the town of Hillsborough; equal in quality to any land on that river. This feat is considered the most beautiful and pleasant of any in the county of Orange; and so well known by the name of Hartford, that any further description is unnecessary. Thereon is situated a large and commodious Dwelling House, two stories high, necessary out Houses, handsome Walks, Groves and other improvements, calculated to render a desirable feat for the temporary residence of a genteel family, who should incline to pass a portion of their time in the upper part of the county. Of those in the lower part of the state who this description is adapted to please, request is made that they apply to John Haywood, Esq. attorney at law, of Franklin, and others to Robert Bell on the premises, for terms. Orange county, Oct. 17.

NOTICE.

A NEGRO of the following description was committed to Granville Jail on the 13th inst. viz. A black Negro Fellow, with a white patch above his right eye; his front two of his frontmost upper teeth, and one of his lower teeth, are missing. He says he broke jail in Wake county, on Saturday night, the 8th inst. The owner if requested to day night, the 8th inst. pay owner, and take him away. SPEARS HARRIS, Jailor.
Dec. 20. -37
