COMMUNICATIONS.
The following communication was received from the State Treasurer and read:
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Jan. 9th, 1877.
H. S. THOMAS J. JARVIS,
President of the Senate:
I have received from the Secretary of the Senate a certified copy of a joint resolution as follows, to-wit:
Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that the Treasurer of the State be requested to furnish the General Assembly with information as to the amount paid for making election returns in each county, and the probable amount paid by the different counties for making returns in presidential election, together with any suggestions he may be able to make to remedy the same. If all the sheriffs should receive this compensation, the total expense would amount to about $4,000.
The expense attending all other elections is met by the counties, and I am not able to estimate their aggregate cost to the counties except as to the presidential election, which will about equal that of the election for State officers.

—The Auditor of the State is a judicial officer, it is his province alone to determine to what extent sheriffs are entitled to compensation for making returns of the election for State officers; hence the question of compensation, when the returns were transmitted by mail or through the auditor, was peculiarly so for his decision. A case involving this point is now before him, and until his decision is made I cannot say definitely how many sheriffs will be paid.
—With a view to economy in making returns, some legislation is necessary; but the only amendment to the law that suggests itself at the present time, is to require the sheriffs to report to the proper officer at the seat of government in a sealed package by express or registered letter.
Very respectfully,
J. M. WORTH,
State Treasurer.

The communication was upon motion, referred to the committee on Finance.

The directors will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock when the officers of the company will be chosen for the ensuing year.
Protracted Meeting.
A series of special meetings will begin in Salisbury Street Baptist Church on the third Sunday of this month. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Fritchard, will be assisted by the celebrated Virginia revivalist, Rev. J. E. Hixson, of Petersburg.

The vote was taken and the amendment passed.
Resolution in relation to the expenses incurred by the commission for the purchase of the Western North Carolina Railroad, came up from the calendar.
Mr. Moore, of Mecklenburg, offered an amendment giving the commission the same per diem and mileage as were paid members of the General Assembly which appointed them.
Mr. Moore, of Mecklenburg, Mr. Dorch and Mr. Finger supported the amendment.
Mr. Troy offered an amendment to the amendment proposing to strike out "mileage," and insert in lieu thereof "actual expenses incurred while in the discharge of their duties as commissioners."

Mr. Troy and Mr. Robins supported the amendment of the former, and Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Justice opposed.
Mr. Moore, of Mecklenburg, by consent, withdrew his amendment.
Mr. Troy offered an amendment allowing Mr. Armfield $400 and Mr. Robinson $200.
The amendment was not adopted.
Mr. Moore, of Mecklenburg, then substituted for his previous amendment, an amendment which proposes to give Mr. Armfield $450 instead of $350, and Mr. Robinson $250 instead of $200.
Mr. Crawford opposed the last amendment, saying that the Western North Carolina Railroad was, anyway, and always had been, an elephant on the hands of the State. He would propose to give it to the agent composing the commission in payment of the services rendered it, if they would take it as a gift and give a bond for its completion.
Messrs. Bingham, Justice, Moore, Col. of New Hanover, Holt and Finger, favored it. Mr. Justice could not see that the fact that the railroad was an elephant lessened the obligation of the General Assembly to pay these gentlemen for services which they had rendered. It would be to give a gift and give a bond for its completion.
