MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Conference convened at the stated time, and was opened with religious services by Dr. E. E. Wiley, President of Emory Henry College of Virginia. Bishop Doggett presided.

Several resolutions were presented and referred to appropriate committees.

It was resolved that after next Saturday, the 18th inst., the Conference have an afternoon session from 3 to 6 o'clock.

A NEW CONFERENCE FORMED.

The Committee on Boundaries rcported in favor of forming a new Conference in Montana Territory, and the report was discussed at length by Rev. David Morton, Dr. A. R. Winfield, Dr. McFerrin, Dr. A. S. Andrews aud others. The report was adopted and the new Conference formed.

PROPOSED BOUNDARY CHANGE IN TEXAS.

Dr. R. Alexander, of Texas, made a motion to change the boundaries of his Conference so as to take four counties out of another Conference in Texas and put them into his Conference. This brought to the floor several members of the Conference, from which he wanted to take these four counties, and a lively contest ensued, which resulted in voting down Dr. Alexander's motion.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

Dr. Miller, of Kentucky, introduced a motion as a substitute for the report of the Committee on Revisals, that went and sat down by a pine tree and bee was elected to represent the body at every Quarterly Conference be allowed to assign to its local preachers a field of work for each year, and the doctor spoke at length in its favor. Pending the discussion the hour for adjourument arrived, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Dog-

The National, Greenback, Labor, or National Greenback Labor party, under these several names, but with the sime general purposes, is making considerable headway in New England ; enough, indeed, to give the old organizations, and especially the Republicans, a good deal of a scare. In Massachusetts there is is an organization that seems to Northampton, Marblehead, Natick and Chicopee. Wendell Phillips, however, is one of the shining lights of the new movement, which is not an augury of success, and General Butler is cautiously feeling his way to the leadership. In Mame the new conglomerate party Hats, just received at Wm. Woollcott's seems to have even more vitality. A
