LOCAL BRIEFS.

-Several of the wooden street bridges are much decayed or otherwise out of order, and need attention.

-The Governor veste day appointed Charles Nettleton, a Commis- shown, and the blute who thus leaves sioner of Affidavits, resident at New York.

Judge Geo. V. Strong will this evening deliver his lecture. "Title by Testament and Adminis ration," before his law class.

-The New Year gave the country a rather tearful welcome, but perhaps whildo better when it gets older and more used to the world.

-Messrs, Stronach & Allcott have a large consignment of Timothy Hay which they are off-ring to draymen at reduced rates. Read notice.

-The buildings lately burned ought both to be torn down. The place where the last lie occurred is really daugerous. Look out, police.

-Oh, these streets ! If the place by the post office doesn't get some attestion it will prove a veritable "slough of despond," to the luckles pedestrian.

-The market house stalls were rented out yesterday at good prices. The amounts paid for each, as well as the names of the parties renting, will as pear in to-morrow's issue.

----It is reported that in view of the fact that the great dampuess might cause colds, several ladies tendered their callers yesterday the use of a bottle of Buli's Cough Syrup, which in connection with the bit.ers will doubtless prove a preventive.

New Year's Calls.

The weather rather tr ke in upon the plans intending callers yesterday, and not many went on their rounds. Several carriage loads swung around the circle, however, and at the hospitable tables of the ladies discussed slight refections of a solid and fluid character. The day, howev r, was not very pleasantly spent, as the discomforts of travel refused to be overcome.

A Fight with an Indian.

Last night a party here ran against the outstretched hat of one of the harmless Indians who infest the streets. Resenting the insult of the blow, the man hit knocked down his wooden opponent, who, however, turned the tables on him by falling on the Caucas an, whom many beers had rendered unsteady on his pins. The cries of the party, as he lay with the heavy Indian on him, were piteous. He was helped up and went away, resolved to give the red man a wide berth in future.
