Locked In.

The door of the House of Representatives became fastened last night and resisted all efforts to open it. Some of those in the hall got out of the windows by means of ladders, the lightning rod etc. Finally a heavy, short step ladder was used as a battering ram, and six peremptorily. able bodied citizens smashed the door in. Thus they escaped.

Personals,

Mr. D. A. Covington, the popular and much esteemed member from Union, is at the National. He is a lawyer of talent, and will make an efficient member in the judicial deliberations of the House.

Mr. J. A. Lockbart, a finished lawyer and a gentleman of influence from Auson, will be prominent as a member of the House.

The Bucket Company, Colored.

At a meeting held Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected, to serve for the ensuing year :

Foreman-J. W. Butler. Assistant Foreman-L. C. Bell. Secretary-Henry Kerr. Assistant Secretary-R. Russell

Treasurer-A. C. Williams. Board of Commissioners-F. Vick, Henry Edwards, J. Washington, G. L. Joyner, Lewis McKoy.

This company has not been well conducted lately, but prop see to now take a fresh start. They always do good work at fires.

The Law Class.

The examination of the class (law students, which was held Monday and Tuesday by the Judges of the Supreme Court is spoken of as having been particularly exhau tive and thorough. The bearing of the class during the long and rigid examination was such as to stamp them as men of merit. The Chief Justice states that in future the so the law students in the State intending to apply will have to burn more of the midnight oil. It is perdicted that the class just graduated will prove an honor to their State in coming years.

In Aid of a Noble Charity.

It is understood that on Monday evening next the Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, B shop of North Carolina, will deliver a lecture at Tucker Hall, for children. It corrects acidity of the stomach, the benefit of St. John's Guild Hospital. It is hoped that this may be in all respects an actuality, since the Bishop's old and well-tried remedy. 25 cents a bottle rare powers of oratory and depth of learning, make him at once the most entertaining and instructive of speakers. The noble charity in whose aid he will discourse, merits the hearty sympathy and support of every person in this city. It gives to the sick a home where they may find healing and care, without money and without price. At the earliest possible moment a fuller account of the lecture and its subject will appear, and the attention G E Buckman vs Commissioners of of the people will be called to the need of aid for the Hospital.
