The Old (emetery.

Complaints, and serious ones, are made in regard to the lack of attention it is not his fault, but that he had made proper representations to the authorities. The cause of the out cry is that at all times hogs and cattle go into the cemetery and trample the graves and walks, ruin the shrubbery, and fencing around private enclosures, and docther damage. Those whose dead lie there should give the matter attention. It is everywhere spoken of, and yet no steps are taken to put a stop to it by putting the outer feace in proper order.
