RALEIGH, N. C. THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 23, 1879.

Senator Zebulen Baird Vance.

Yesterday the two houses of the General Assembly of North Carolina met in joint assembly and formally declared the election of ZEBULON BAIRD VANCE to the United States Sanate for the term beginning March 4th, 1879 and en ling Murch 4 h, 1885. There is not, we hope, a manly heart in our glorious old commonwealth that will not thrill with joy at the glad tidings. The Democratic Legislature of 1879 has built for itself a lasting monument in the hearts of the true people of North Carolina. For eight long years have the Democratic party at ided with enforced patience this day.

What was it the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South

"Title upright Judge, the christian gentleman." He is in bad company as the candidate of the Republican party.

What Mr. Everett Said of the "Coming Man."

The omission of our Senate reporter to obtain a copy of Mr. Evere t's remarks on the nomination of Judge Buxton, is supplied to day by request:] Mr. Everett said:

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Schale: I have the honor and the pleasure to present to this body, for the high position of U.S. Senator, a man whose name is a synonym for all that is pure and beaut ful in private life and for all that is exalted and patriotic in public station; a man who is at obce the generous triend, the learned julige with an in misculate ermine, a to a and triump and tribune of the peque's itserties, and homes, and a man who carries the republic to his heart," the Hou R. P. Buxton. His nom nation, Mr Patsident is more than an empty complement, it is a sole nn decaration on our part that politics in North Carolina shall not be a comparent of calumity and a malign crusa y against private character and the peace and a ves of the home circle, but a grand conflict between punciples and beauts struggling to promote the unity and glay of our whole country. A proud and fearless prounciamento to the world that out of republicanism a mighty tree of love for the I mon can grow and flourish immortal, blosseming all over with the flowers of State, guide State hopes and State aspiratons: a true and horoic devotion to North Carolina, her stoned past, her present and her luture. Mr. Even tt is leading a "forlone

W imington Star. If the Modett liquor law is introduced into North Carol na and properly executed, it is safe to say that from one m lion to tweive hundred thousand donars would be raised thereby annuaily. It is surely worth trying, and we hope the Ligislature will frame care-Iti iy a bili and make it a law.

I oplin letter in Goldsboro Messenger. dogs is of prime importance. Not that all dogs ought to be destroyed, but that all wo thiese may be marked and the sheep thereby be protected, and this important branch of industry encouraged. Surely, our representatives can frame a law which will be effective and

Wilmington Star, The office of Superintendent ought to be abolished or made more efficient. It is nothing, really, but a clerkship as it is. If the Superintendent of Public Instruction does his duty and magnifies his office, he must be most of the time out of Raleigh. He ought to be as well paid as any other officer in the State Government except the Governor. His office is really more important than any other in the capital, and can be made more useful, and a greater bless ing to the State than any other.

Every two years a book headed "theology of North Carolina," is pubis hed at the expense of the State. It never gets into the hands of the reople of the State; it is never read by the individuals of the State; and it would not be understood by them if it was so read. It con aims nothing that has not been published often before, and the greater part of it compiled from some bedy else's work. It is a cheap book, however, as every book is cheap that no body will buy; and it only costs the Star $5,000 a year to have it edited.

This sum is for services that one man at a salary of $3,100 ought to perform. What be efit has this experditure of money been to the people of the State? All these things belong properly to the agricultural department and ought to be :un by one head.

Hillsboro Recorder. Its hobby is retrenchment and reform and is of all hobbies, the one most leasant to the people to see well ridden. It has been hard to make the descent from the liberal allowances of the extravagant days inaugurated by republican administration, some featuses of which commended themselves most acceptably to their Democratic successors. But the stubboin realities of an impoveruhed people, and bu b taxes wrung from nearly exhausted resources have made the eon rest between their poverty and high official emoluments too glaring to be sustained; so the pruning knite of the bosom of destruction are put to work rejent

REFORM LEGISLATURE.

State Geologist,

Bilstoro Recorder Letter. The office of State Geologist was abolished to-day, as tar as the action of the House goes, by an almost unanimous vote. I confess I view that measure with regret. The work of survey is at work of time, and one cheration may not live to see its completion. Yet its labors in developing the hidden wealth of North Carolina and making them known to the world must redound to the good of the State, and g ve it a consequence abroad to be efficied by no other agency; and attracting to it, when present positical agitatious have subsided, an amount of population and investment of capi-(a) which will ten fold repay what has

Mr. Colwell moved a reference to the committee on Internal Improves ments with instructions to print. Ma Jones opposed a reference and ura immediate passage of the bill, saying that its onject was to simply give the road privilege to extend. There was no need of a reference or of printing the bill, as it was so brief and simple Mr. Covington favored a reference, saying that much of the legislation up a railways was the su ject of annualversion. Mr. Blocker opposed a reference. Mr. Colwell favored it. Mr. Cooke opposed, as the bill was one which asked no State aid and the House knew all the facts. Mr. Carter, of Bancombe, chairman of the committee on Internal Improvements, who had had the bill in charge, said that i had been urged that the proposed exs tension would divert business from Winnington to Norfolk Others had said that the State's interest in the N CRR would suffer, and many urged the special consideration of the matter. The committee evinced no opposition red. Objections to the reference were then withdrawn and the bill was rereferred to the committee on Internal Improvements, with instructions to elections, was referred to committee H B 128, to incorporate Kinston

About the origin of the Flowers grape the Moone Register says; It was discovered prior to 1816 by William Flowers, in Flowers' swamp, from whence it derives its name. In 1816 Mr. Gi es Williams visited the parent vine for the purpose of obtaining plants. The vine was discovered sixea miles south of Lamberton, N. C. From the one parent vine many thousinds of plants have been carried to all parts of the country, and the Flowers grape of Robeson county is now considered a standard. It is a

THE successful cu'tivation of tobacco in this section has induced others of our farmers to experiment this year, and the gentlemen who cu tivated the weed here last year, will do so again the present season, but on a larger scale. Mr. Arnold Borden expects to dant about 250,000 mills-firty acres. List year he nat only about 159,00), or less than thirty acres, and made 20,000 pounds of very choice tobacco: yielding him a handsome profit. Messrs, A. D. Speight and C. S. & S. 1. "Gov. Vance is more than a mere partiz in. He is a patriotic statesman. and al hough Southern born, and devoted to his section, his judgment 'can never be warped or influenced by personal prejudices and predilections when the common weal demands his liberal talents, and devoted services. It is therefore a matter for general congratulation that such men are being cailed to high places. There has been a manifest dearth of able men in the United States Senate since the war, but that body is now fast filling up with those who will prove by their ability, their views and their principles that the prestige and renown once enjoyed by the highest legislative body in the Republic are to be 'restored.
