Claims of Disloyal Persons

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The Democratic Senators held a caucus to consider the amendment reported yesterday by Elbridge Gerry, as a substitute for the House joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, prohibiting the payment of claims of disloyal persons for property injured or destroyed in the late war, etc. The Senators discussed the question in its national as well as sectional aspect. No conclusion was reached. Many believe that there are no probabilities of passing the substitute through both Houses during the present session.

The French Crisis.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—At today's meeting of the cabinet McMahon declared he would not yield with regard to the military commands. He would rather resign.

Rush of Emigrants.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Secretary of the Emigration Commission says the European correspondents of the steamship companies report an increasingly large number of prepaid passage-tickets. It is anticipated that of operations alone 20,000 will arrive on our shores within the next few months.

The German Parliament.

By Cable to the News.

BERLIN, Jan. 28.—An imperial decree has been issued summoning the German Parliament to meet on the 12th of February.

Saved by the Warmth of a Dog.

A white man by the name of Cooper came near freezing to death a few nights since about three miles from Covington. It appears that the young man was riding a horse and became so cold that he could not ride, turned his horse loose and lay down in the corner of the fence to await the coming of a party of hunters. He went to sleep and all his limbs were frozen. Even the flesh from his legs was ready to drop from the bones. But his faithful dog, lying close beside him, seemed to take in the horrid situation of his master, and making his bed upon the legs of the frozen man, warmed them to life again. It was by the heat of this dog that Mr. Cooper was enabled to get up and walk, otherwise he would have frozen to death.—Courier (Ky.) Daily Express.

Sharp as a Razor.

The keen-edged edge, Law's celebrated Table Knives prove the sharpness of their cut; it has been demonstrated that Law's fine spoons and forks have more silver on them than now made.

Sweets to the Sweet.

Those who love things sweet to the palate, or wish to give their friends something choice, should call at Hayter's confectionery and investigate a box of his delicious chocolate creams, which are made in his factory, fresh and pure, every day.

RALEIGH, N.C., Jan. 23, 1870.

To my FRIENDS AND PATRONS—

The Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, the which is more reliable for its contracts, or offers greater inducements for patronage, has been negotiating with me for some time to take the management of its affairs in North Carolina. I have just returned from New York with a contract unusually satisfactory, and will as soon as practicable visit every county in the State to solicit business and plant Agencies where none exist, and I am sincerely and respectfully invite all persons wanting life policies, or holding policies with which they are dissatisfied, to communicate with me before applying elsewhere, as they can secure a policy through me or my agents, on better terms. The Equitable was organized in 1850, has $45,000,000 assets, its value in 1877 was $50,000,000, and it has a sum exceeding all liabilities of $7,000,000, and is in full receipt by its Trustee Plans a handsome income may be secured in this life, besides the provision at death in the assurance premiums. The assured may reside and travel in any part of the United States.

I Might Have Been.

When taking a retrospective of our past lives, how often does one's mind whisper to broken spirits and wounded hearts the sad, sad words, "It might have been." Thus, it may be with the sufferer who endures the agonies of hemoptysis, or piles, and feels not the courage to try Bartram's infallible cure, which is warranted to stop it, and permanently cure this distressing disease. Manufactured by the, Durham Pine Cure Co., Durham, N.C.

At Watson's Store.

Some of the finest brands of whisky in the country. If you want something really good in that line, call on Watson the grocer, Fayetteville street opposite the market.

The Tucker House.

This hospitable house has long been opened, but has already made itself a favorite here and with the traveling public. The fare is good, the room favorable, while the location is very convenient. These many advantages are appreciated.

Wood.

Get your wood of J. D. Whitaker, at his yard at the western terminus, Hargett street. The pine wood which is cured by him in his spacious yard is equal to oak, at considerable less cost to the consumer. His oak is the very best.

Unheard of Bargains!

AT THE INDEPENSABLE ENDEAVORS TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC, SO HERE GOES.

To sing of Fayetteville street, No 10, who tries his best to please his friends. And in his labors never ends. Bargains he'll give you when you call for No. 10 is all and all.

Of other houses you hear them talk: In Fayetteville street just take a walk And only ask for No. 10.

Kept by the most ingenious of men, And when his friends by chance drop in, Then forth he comes, Lord what a sight.

And in the wondrous eyes display Such heaps of brackets and window shades.

His pictures are exposed to public view And variety of cord to suspend them too.

His looking glasses and toilet cases Will help adorn your forms and faces.

Picture frames and moldings too.

In great variety, black, brown and blue.

His window cornices and lambrequins fine,

will make your rooms and parlors shine.

Perforated mattoes, and white holly busses.

And every other sort of stuff,

of which he has to have in stock.

So now he bids you all adieu,

And wishes a happy new year too.

And not forget.
