Unheard of Bargains!

AT THE INDEFATIGABLE ENDEAVORS TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC SO HERE GOES.

You may now, inspire my pen, to sing of Fayetteville street, No. 10, who has his best, to please his friends.

And in his houses never ends.

Bargains he'll give you when you call.

For No. 10 is all and all.

Of other houses you hear them talk;

In Fayetteville street just take a walk.

And only ask for No. 10.

Kept by the most ingenious of men,

And when his friends by chance drop in,

Then forth he comes, Lord what a gro,

And to their wondering eyes displays

Such heaps of brackets and window shades.

His stores are exposed to public view

And a variety of odds to suspend them too,

His looking glasses and toilet cases

Will help all your toons and faces;

Picture frames and mouldings too

In great variety, black, brown and blue.

His window curtains and lambrequins

Will make your rooms and parlors shine.

Perforated mattocks, and white holly boxes.

And every other sort of stuff,

Or when it comes to us, it's all ours.

So when he bids you all adieu,

An wishes a happy new year to you.

And not forget,

Mr. C. Clawson,

No. 1 Fayetteville St.

The Death Rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being less than ever, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the danger attending it and often find too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boggs' German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill to a Doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boggs' German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 95,000 bottles sold last year with not a single failure known.
