We think the opponynts of the bill ressoned upon false pre-nises. When the negro is cultivated up to the point he may hope to reach under the ways opened up for his mental and mosal enlightenment, he, no more than the white man will be the peculiar victim of the lash. Until then he will feel the degardation of such punishment no more than the vicious or the criminal of any other race or class. We have seen two instances recently one in New Hanover, and one in Mickinburg, where the colored offender asked for the lash instead of a total by jury which would end in confinement in the pententiary. And we are satisfied from our own observation that many negros, petty offenders, would be bit ter satisfied to take a wholesome "forty save one," and go back to their work. with who esome resolves against future lapses, than incur the more genteel in fliction of a twelve m with in the penitentiary.
