Williams, President of the State National Bank, and one of the most prominent and beloved men of this city, died at his residence yesterday morning at 4:45 o'clock. He was born in the city of New York, on the 25th of December, 1827, and when a boy, removed with his parents to Ralei h. For many years he was the chi fand trusted clerk in the Raleigh post o nice, and afterwards Secretary of Company. Without the advantages of an education in schools, he acquired by close application to such books as came within his reach and at such times as he could spare from his business, a large fund of varied and useful information, and, in his intercourse with men, a large and extended knowledge of human nature, which served, in his after life, to achieve for him a remarkable success. On the 5 h Febuary, 1852, he was narried to Miss Mariam Carson White, of Raleigh, who, together with seven children, survives him; and it is a co incidence not unworthy of mention that the only bridal attendants upon that marriage, now Mr. aud Mcs. Cars m Murray, of this city, were on the anniversay day of the marriage, watchers upon the sad and solemn scene which closed the happy married life whose happy commencement they had witnessed With the savings which habits of economy had enabled him to make. Mr. Williams engaged in the business of Banker and Broker and acheived a marked success thereat; and after the close of the late war he organized and conducted, as President and owner, the State National Bank of this city, one of the most prosperous and strongest banking institutions in the South. Mr. Williams had such qualities as

made him a universal favorite; and he will be universally missed and lamented in this city and section. By his wise management, thrift and industry, and without the aid of others, he rose rapidly to fortune, but his rise was not upon the hurt or ruin of his fellow men. It was an honest, legitimate succoss that always follows wise, honest and legitimate labor and industry. He was prodent and careful, but never ose or oppressive, in his dealings. Of the thousands who had transactions with him, we have never heard aught of complaint against him. He was always polite, genial and kind, and charitable in heart, mind and hand. If he ever thought evil of his neighbors, his tongue never spake it; on the contrary, his expressions of opinion were always kind and considerate; and as for his deeds of benevolence and charity, they were constant and large. He had an especial sympathy for brated raid and fight at Harper's Ferry. | those who were honestly strug-It has an iron head some 12 inches long, gling to make their way in the world, and was ever ready to length. The Board elected Dr. J. B. Dunn physician to the jail. Mr. Jacob Maynard was elected constable to the grand jury.

Mr. A. Andrew Green was elected Court crier. A great amount of work was done in allowing orders, appointing road over-seers, bridge building committees, and Wilson Warren. Assault and battery. Verdict: Morgan, not guilty; Commissioner Atlen offered the fol-Lane and Warren guilty. These two lowing, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Commissioners of Wake county deem it unjust to said county that it pay the costs, or any part thereof, in the case of the State vs. Swepson, and that the Solicitor of the Fi. Judicial District be notified of this action, and that the Board will not pay said costs unless compelled by law to do so.

The Board then adjourned until yesterday at 10 o'clock. The Board resumed its session Thursday and closed its labors for this meeting by disposing of all business. Maj. R. S. Tucker appeared before the Board and asked that the county tax on theatrical performances be reduced to $3 the same as on concerts. The Board declined, in view of the fact tata new revenue bill may be res ported.

The time of the sheriff for settling county taxes was extended to March

A committee, consisting of commissioners Brown, Jones and Allen, was appointed, to examine into the management of the Poor and Work Houses, and make suggestions at next meeting of the Board.

The price allowed the sheriff for feeding prisoners confined in jail was reduced from 40 to 30 cents per day. A large batch of orders were audited, and C. S. Mann and L. J. Atkins were appointed a committee to open a road from Apex to Barney Jones.

The bill of the special officer for the January term of the Superior Court was not allowed, the office having been abolished by the Board at the December meeting.

Bills for feeding jurors in civil cases, amounting to $3), were not allowed, the Board deeming it questionable whether the county was properly chargeable in such cases. The Board adjourned until the first Monday in March,

TRE SWEDISH LADY QUARTETTE -A good audience heard the rather unique vocalization of this troupe, at Tucker Hall last evening. Their singing is in some respects pleasing and has perfect simplicity and naturalness that wins favor. Their songs in both Swedish. German and English were very well rendered, "Way Down upon the Suwanee River," was sweet, while "Baby Mine" was pretty. Prof. Freygang's performance on the harp was artistic, and was encored. The tronpe were received with considerable favor.

THE NEW GOVERNOR. - A reporter called upon Governor Jarvis yesterday and was kindly met and pleasantly greeted by that urbane gentleman, who seemed at home amidst his new honors, so well deserved and so admirably worn. During the day he received the congratulations of a constant stream of callers. In conversation, the Governor said that his first official act as Lt. Governor was to sign the act rotating the Judges, and now his first as Governor was to issue the commission as United States Senator to Governor

Mr. Carter of Buncombe said it was an evil that should be put a period to. The bill sirk s at one of the greatest evils that afficts the courts and is a source of so much expense to the counties. It will promote speedy justice, will further the ends of the law, and will save thousands of dellars. Mr. Turner said causes were often removed to evade trial upon affidavits made merely to continue and delay. Mr. Carroll and Mr. Barringer tayored the bill, while Mesers, Clarke and Norment thought the bill would work great in-

be beneficial, and Mr. Lindsay took the same view. Mr. Lockhart sent in an amendment that the bill shall not apply to cases of homicide, or assault with intent to kill. He favored the bill with this amendment. Mr. Caliwell opposed the amendment on the ground that itwould destroy the effect of the bill to exempt the capital cases from its provisions. He deemed the bill itself as of the highest importance and benefit. "Mr. Blackburn is considered the contending man for the place with Randall. The friends of Judge House are urging him for it, but against his wishes. The fight will come between Blackburn and Randall. There are a great many influences at work to effect the result. Some Southern men in the House think that the South ought not to have the Speakership, nor anything else. They say it is too soon, and that if a Southern man was elected Speaker it would complicate the Press idential race." "Now, I do not think that a Southern man, because he is from the South, should be rewarded with place any more than a man from the North; but if he is capable the fact of his being from the South should be no objection to him. No one doubts Joe Blackburn's ability, or doubts that he would make an admirable presiding officer. He is entirely acceptable to the great majority of the Southern members; but there are some who will vote for Randall against any body. They perhaps hold places under him, are satisfied with the existing order of things, and do not want a change, believing that, in ther cases, a change would be for the worse. Others, again, will vote for any body against Randall. They charge openly that he has used his place to advance his private interest. Of course I know nothing of the truth of there charges, but they are made, nevertheless. Blackburn is objected to on the ground that he impulsive, and that he might reward his frends at the cost of the public service. Well, Jee will stand by his friends, but Sam Randad rewarded his friends, and punished his enemies, too, The Southern Democrats can nominate the Speaker if they want to. There will be 150 Democrats in caucus, the large majority of whom will be from the South. It will take 76 to nominate. If she wants it, the South our have the Speakership."

THE PRESIDENCY. "What will be the upshot of the cipher investigation, Governor?"

"That is hard to say. It is unquestionably intended to affect the race of the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. Mr. Tilden and his friends are urging the investigation. They claim to be able to show that Mr. Til. den had nothing to do with these telegrams, and that they were sent, if sent at all, entirely without his knowledge or authorit. Tuey claim further that no one in any way officially connected with him in the canvass, or entitled in any degree to speak for him, had any thing to do with sead n 1 the cipher dispatches.' WOOLEY AND MARBLE. "But, Governor, what becomes of Mr. Charles W. Wooley and Manton

Marble ?" The Governor laughingly answered: 'That's what they say now. It any persons undertook to speak for Mr. Tilden and his friends and for the Democratic Committee, as is claimed upon these dispatches, they acted eatirely without authority, and were simply meadlers by a business in which their services were not wanted. If Mr. Ti.den can prove these things it will go a long way toward strengthening him in popular favor. TILDEN LOOMING UP.

"Do you think he will be a candidate for the nomination?" I tell you Tilden is looming up. If he does not get the nom nation himself he will name the man that doos. The old man has a long head and knows what he is doing. He may be nominated by acclamation, there is no telling. Next to himself, I think he favors Bayard, who is very strong in the East, and perhaps could carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Judge Field, a great personal friend of Mr. Tilden, is also spoken of opportunity to save a vast expense by as a possible compromise. Saymour has been spoken of, but he is threaton-The amendment offered by Mr. Lock- ed with softening of the brain, and the amount of exertion that would be required of him to make the canvass would kill him. He needs repose. which he could not have if he engaged in the excitementement of a Presiden. tial contest. New York will doubtless be for Tildea for first choice. The breach between him and Jehn Kelley has been closed, and they are now working together harmoniously. He would unquestiably carry the State against any Republican that could be named. THAT LETTER, "Would not his favoring the Ellic-toral Commission rather make against him?" "He says he never favore lit, that he was opposed gto it all the time. He claims that he wrote a letter to Hewitt, stating his objections to the Commission. This letter has be n publicly referred to as the one suppressed by Hewitt. That gentlemen admitted having received it, but said that he had shown it to a few frien is of Mr. Tilden, whom he thought ought to be made aware of its contents. He did not give it to the public, because he d d not consider that it ought to be made public. I think. however," said Mr. Carlise, "that if Mr. Tilden had come on to Washington unmistakable, way, it nevea, would have

Tilden aga vi?"
"No, I don't think he would. I met him in Washington a short time ago. He had come on with his wife, and he said, to attend a wedding. This was at the time that Voornees was making his race for the Sena'e. We had a long talk tog teer in the House I do not thick he would accept second place ou any ticket. It was some time before he could be introduced to accept the second place with Tilden before. He had rather wait, and bide his time and his chance for the nomination for the Presidency.

THURMAN. "What are Senator Thurman's chanc s."

"Mr. Thurman is undoubtedly the strong st Wistern min that has been mentioned. He has been urged to run for the Governorship of Onio. She is a Republican State, there is no doubt about that, but if it was considered that the election of Mr. Thurman to the Governorship was a stepping stone to the Presidency, I believe he could be elected. The fact, I think, if he received the nomination for the Presidency, he would carry Ohio, anyhow, unless the Republicans nomi-
