DAILY NEWS | North Carolina's Vindication.

Mr. Steele, of North Carolina, said Speaking for one congressional district, which is a part of the South, and believing that I am fully warranted in speaking for the whole State of North Carolina, I wager that there have never been such acts as the gentleman charges to be common all over the South. No election was ever held in the gentleman's own district where the rules of propriety and the requirements of the law have been more faithfully observed, or where there has been a more honest desire that the public will shall have a fair expression than have marked the wishes and conduct. at least, of the Democratic party, in North Carolina. So far, therefore as we are concerned, the charge is utterly entrue. We desire nothing but a just and peaceable of ction, where there is

But let me tell the gentleman (and I think I may safely claim to know much more of the subject than be does) that all the instances of which l have ever heard of either "fraud, violence, or intimitation," which have been practiced at elections in any State, were perdractiby the political organization of which he is a conspicyous and leading member. At every election in which much interest was 'elt since the passage of the acts of Congress which deliberately violated the constitution and ruthlessly invaded the universally acknowledged right of the Pta'es to determine the qualifica. tions of electors; persons calling themselves Republicans have resorted to fraud and intimidation to operate upon the minds of the ignorant negroes and make them carry out the main purpose for which these acts were passed -ministration to the supremacy of the gentleman's porty.
