Bloody Affair In Atlants.

ATLANTA, GA., March 11 .- At 3:20 p. m. to-day the office of State Ireasurer at the Capitol, in this city, was the scene of a bloody travedy, the parties being Col. Robr. A. Alston, member of the Logis'ature, and Capt. E. F. three shots and Cox two a Alston fixed shot in the right temple one ball passing through his brain. It was shot in the mouth and through the left hand. Alston is dying the Cox is not seriously hurt. The deculty arose from Alston that in a continuous con from Alston baving power of attorney from Senator Cordon roll the latter's interest in the State convict hase. Cox is a sub-lessee under to.dou, and wanted Alsten to sell Gordon's interest to Walters, who had promised to buy Cox out. Alston sold to are ber person. Cox threatened Alsion at noon that he would kill him before sun down, if the trade was not cancelled and made with his man. He hanted Alston down-Gov. Colquitt and others having detained Alston at the Capital. The quarrel was resumed, and both drew their pi tols with the result above stated. Later. -Col. Alson died at 4 minutes after six o'clock this ev. n.n.

The Speakership.

Washington Star. Outside of the total claims made by the nationals, the speakership contest is still in a state of suspense. Mr. Blackburn has established headquarters in one of the parlors at Willard's Hatters. hotel, and Speaker Randall is expected to take a parlor during the day. The greenback men have their headquarters at the Metropolitan hotel, and are "groome t" by Col. Lee Crandell of Penrsylvania, and "Pian" Buchane an of Ind ana. They still claim that they have fitteen votes pledged, and that neither the democrats nor republicans can fix up a slate for the House organization under the dictum of King | want of use, apply to E. B. Haywood, Caucus, for the reason that neither of them, without foraging in the camp of the nationa's, have the sufficient number of votes to make a quorum of the whole House. Yesterday

A LETTER FROM REPRESENTATIVE LOW. of Alabama, was received, who adheres to his sliegiance to the nationals, Barber Bros., made another big sale of and says that he will act with them, if or yesternay. cancus with them and vote with them every time. A telegram, they say. has also been received from Hendrick B Wright, of Pennsylvania, who likes wise arm ut ces that he is a national and will act with them. If the greenbackers' claim that they have fifteen memiters is correct, it is as plain as the nose on one's face that the Speakership contest caunor be settled in caucus. The ful membership of the House, with all the cripples on hand, is 287 members. Of these there is scarcely any dispute that the republicans have 130. Deducting these 130. and there remain of democrats and nationals 157 members. Concede the claim of the nationals to 15 votes, and there remain for the democrats only 142 votes, which is two less than a majority of the House noce vary to elect a speaker.
