THE CITY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

- Scoop bonnets are worn.
- Side sachels are de rigueur.
- Skirts are beautifully short.
- Poke bonnets are fashionable.
- Everybody wears Breton lace.
- Jabots grow longer and longer.
- Listen to the mocking bird.
- Croquet promises as many broken shins this spring as ever.
- Revenue receipts yesterday were $87.90.
- Marie Antoinette styles are revived.
- The Triangonists are coming polonaise.
- Shoulder capes are again fashionable.
- Barque polonaises will be much worn.
- English round hats have larger crowns.
- Turbanes are worn both in and out doors.
- Novelty in side sachels are in demand.
- Breton is the face of the passing moment.
- The Jewish passover this year will fall on the 8th of April.
- The ladies are commencing to put out their flowers and plants in their gardens.
- The last message of Mr. Hayes reads like an extract from the business department of a ladies' magazine.
- March winds are mild so far. But look out for squalls. March never yet went back on her record for bluster.
- A runaway on Blount street yesterday morning. A countryman was thrown from his buggy and seriously injured.
- A kerosene lamp exploded in the house of Mr. Smith in the eastern portion of the city Sunday. Mr. Smith was painfully burned.
- The Governor on yesterday appointed L. C. Cobb, of Danville, Va., as Chief Justice of N. Y. City, Commissioners of affidavits.
- The case of Mr. W. D. Moore, who was arrested on a warrant from Moore county on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of S. W. Snawell, was carried before Justice Dillard in the Supreme Court Room. No witnesses appeared for the State. The case was postponed until Friday April 4th.
- Men who have been too feeble to bring the wood this winter and build fires for their wives and babies can now frequently be seen several miles from town on the different rail roads fishing. What a wonderful cure for the fishy spring has upon some constitutions.
- TREASURY NOTES.—Edwin Bates & Co., New York paid $100 for a drummer's license yesterday.
- Yadkin county drew $75 for the support of her outside judges.
- $13,000 worth of old bonds were presented to the Treasury yesterday for redemption. The total amount so far is over $100,000. It is not known when the new bonds will be ready for delivery.
- DIME PARTY.—The new brass band has ever been found willing to assist in all charitable projects. They are now in need of funds to pay for their uniforms and propose to hold a dime party, assisted by their lady friends at the Metropolitan Hall on Thursday evening. We hope it will be largely patronized and that the boys will be enabled to raise the necessary funds. Good music, dainty edibles, and a large gathering of the fair sex will be the attractions. The band has improved greatly and we wish them success.
- OPENING OF THE RINK.—The large hallmen appointed hall was well filled last night. The work of the management has been well done; the floor was firm and smooth; the other appointments were nicely finished and well conceived. It was a very enjoyable affair; liberally patronized and well managed throughout the whole evening. Mr. Dodd is the very man to please everybody. He is firm and impartial but kind and polite. His efforts deserve the success which is so liberally bestowed on the enterprise.
- SEVENTY INCHES OF HAWK.—Mr. J. H. Ragan, of a gentleman living 4 miles east of Raleigh, entrapped a very large hawk in a structure made of slabs, he measured by the rule, seventy inches across the back from tip to tip of the wing. The hawk caught a favorite hen on Saturday evening, and it was taken from him, and Sunday morning the gentleman bated the trap with it and retired a few hundred yards sat on the fence and watched the trap till the hawk went in. He took the Hawk home alive and gave a neighborhood exhibition that evening. All the neighbors must see it. It had destroyed so many chickens for them.

How to REDEEM LAND SOLD TO THE STATE FOR TAXES.

The following letter will be sent by the General to the Secretary of State that among other things the Legislature at the recent session has extended the time for the redemption of land sold to the State for taxes until January 1st, 1881, and that to delinquents who may redeem before 18th of March, 1880, special inducements are offered:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, March 22, 1879.
TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

I have the honor to reply to your request for my opinion upon the acts of 1879, in regard to the extension of time for redemption of land, and for the relief of land owners, and will dispose of the points in the order in which they are presented by your communication:

1. The act entitled "for the relief of landowners whose land has been sold for taxes for taxes," provides that if within a year from the date of sale the party pay to the Treasurer the taxes due at time of sale and also the taxes which may have accrued since the sale, and 10 per cent. on amount due at time of sale, the Secretary shall execute a deed of redemption, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

2. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

3. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

4. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

5. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

6. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

7. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

8. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

9. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

10. The act entitled "to extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes and bought by the State" amply extends the time for redemption until January 1st, 1881, but upon the condition of paying all taxes due at the time of sale and the per cent. required by law, and also all such taxes as would have been due upon the land had no sale taken place, etc. Ratified March 13, 1879.

MOORE'S SCHOOL HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The above work has now gone to press and the publishers, Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co., inform us that it will be ready for delivery in about four weeks. The history embraces a period of time from 1584 to 1879 and faithfully portrays in a most agreeable style, every important event which has transpired within the borders of our good old State. It has received the endorsement of the Legislature for use of the public schools, and also is highly spoken of by all who have examined it. The author, Maj. Jno. W. Moore, is an intelligent man, and is well able to do credit to the work which he has undertaken. We are proud to have the story of our State's progress and greatness told by our boys and girls and we hope to know that the book will soon be in the hands of every North Carolina school. Orders for this history are now taken by the publishers and will be filled as early as possible.

O. K.—We accept the amendment of a lady friend and advise "Switch-in" instead of "Switchy."

Hallfax.

HALIFAX, N. C., March 22, 1879. Correspondence News.

Our Superior Court is still in session and will probably continue through the week. The murder case, charged against Henry Shakespeare, is set for Monday the 24th inst. A special venire of sixty has been ordered, for this case. Solicitor Collins with Mr. J. M. Grizzard, for the State; Mr. Maxwell Bessard, for the prisoner.

At four o'clock this evening a traveling scissor grinder was terribly hurt. He came here yesterday carrying the instrument upon his back, after doing good work during the day; he went to bed not to avoid the opening train, he stopped at the old warehouse, made him a fire and drew up a keg which proved to be filled with powder, about 4 o'clock the keg exploded, leaving the grinder in a mangled body. He was a Frenchman. When found he was speechless.

It is expected that the magistrates will meet here on Tuesday of next week, for the purpose of deciding whether to abolish the Inferior Court, or not. Mr. Whitaker the present Solicitor of that Court has tendered his resignation in the event of the abolition of it, and the continuance of the Court, it will be necessary to elect another Solicitor.

THE WORK OF CAUCUS COMMITTEES—THE HOUSE FOR GENERAL LEGISLATION—THE SENATE IS NOT—THE PEOPLE NEED RELIEF—THE PEOPLE WANT CONGRESS TO LEAVE OFF—THE ELECTION LAW TO BE MODIFIED—DEMOCRATIC POLICY.

WASHINGTON, March 23.
A Democratic caucus will be held to-morrow or next day. At this caucus the order of business on the extra session will be decided. The present indications are that Congress will re-open in session for a month or six weeks. Yesterday the caucus committees of the Senate and House met together. Two questions were brought to the attention of the joint committee.

The repeal of the laws which permit Federal office holders to manipulate elections and the advisability of transferring general legislative business at the present session. The members of the House committee favored the repeal of the election laws, and certain modifications in the Legislative, Executive and Judicial and Army Appropriation bills. Two gentlemen, Messrs. Springer and Cox, first desired an attempt to be made to repeal those laws in separate bills, but three members of the Committee favored "general legislation" at the extra session pending the final disposition of the appropriation bills. In joint session after much discussion on respecting the repeal of the election laws, the committee agreed to insist upon the repeal of section 2,020 and all of the succeeding sections down to and including section 3,027, and section 5,322 of the Revised Statutes of the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial departments, which would effect a less radical change than was contained in the bill which failed last session to be passed by the House.

The repeal of the sections numbered above to repeal the election laws of much of their iniquity. There will then be no chief supervisors or special or general deputy marshals of elections. Section 5,322, which the Democrats propose to repeal, provides that every person, with or without authority or process, who obstructs, hinders, assaults, bribes or solicits any supervisor, marshal or deputy marshal in the performance of any duty required of them by law at the polls or places of registry, shall be liable to instant arrest without process, and be imprisoned for not more than two years, nor fined not to exceed $3,000.

The Committee will recommend the caucus to be held on the 24th inst. The question which, under prescribed regulations, permit the appointment of supervisors to witness fair elections in cities of over twenty thousand inhabitants. The supervisors are not to hold more than one office, and are to be appointed by the State.

Organization of the Senate.

The Democratic Senators before and after the short session of the Senate Thursday devoted nearly five hours to the study of the bill for the organization of the Senate. The candidates were generally placed in nomination with eulogistic remarks which, though brief in each instance, consumed in the aggregate considerable time. The most prolonged contest was over the selection of a Secretary, for which position Harvey Watterson, of Kentucky, was nominated by Senator Beck; John C. Burgh, of Tennessee, by Senator Harris; ex-Senator Dennis, of Maryland, by Senator Whyte; ex-Congressman Stanger, of Pennsylvania, by Senator Wallace; ex-Congressman Waddell, of North Carolina, by Senator Ransom; ex-Congressman Franklin, of Missouri, by Senator Cockrell; Professor McMahon, of West Virginia, by Senator Hereford; William L. Young, of Ohio, and Purcell, of New York, were also among the candidates.

The caucus was attended by 40 of the 42 Democratic Senators, the absentees being General Gordon, who is ill, and General Hampton, who has just arrived from South Carolina. The list of ballot-casters follows: Burgh..... 24 Franklin..... 2 Water..... 13 Stenger..... 1 South..... 1
Necessary to a choice, 21.
Colonel Burgh therefore became the caucus nominee.

The caucus then proceeded to ballot for Sergeant-at-arms, the principal candidates being formally placed in nomination by the Senators of their respective States, with the following list of ballot-casters: Burgh..... 24 Franklin..... 2 Water..... 13 Stenger..... 1 South..... 1
