THE CITY.

March, the Lion.
March, the Lion, awoke in his fair, Woke, and stretched his mighty paw; Rolling out a vast and filled his air,
And caught my breast with his claws.
Then some good angel that serves the Lord,
Serves the Lord that pities pain, Snote with the fiat of his shining sword, March, the Lion, to sleep again.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

All-Fools' Day.
This is the walking year; the next will be leap year.
The stormy March doesn't mean to belie its old reputation.
March died hard and yesterday favored us with nothing less than a regular day.
A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum will be held today.
St. John's Benevolent Society will meet at 7 o'clock, to communicate.
An auction sale of the effects of the late firm of R. F. Jones & Co., assignees, will take place Friday night, April 5th.
Charlotte had three burglaries Friday night. This city has enjoyed immunity from the deprivations of the city for some time past.
The Public and Judy show will give a series of exhibitions at Metropolitan Hall on Friday and Saturday nights for the benefit of the Thompson Silver Carnet Bank. The show is a good one and the objects of the exhibition will be sold low. Apply to Latta & Myatt, Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants.

Military Appointments.
His Excellency, Gov. Jarvis, has made the following appointments to the General Staff of the State Guard: Francis H. Cameron, Adjutant General, with the rank of Colonel; Henry G. Flanner, of Wilmington, to be Chief of Artillery, with the rank of Colonel; Thomas are both admirable appointments, and complete the organization of the Staff.
Attention: Ministers and Magistrates.
The Register of Deeds of Wake requests the preachers or the justices who solemnized the rite of matrimony between the following couples, to come to the office of the Register and sign the certificate attached to the respective licenses: William Morgan and Ella Adams, colored, issued December 25, 1874.
George Welch and Jane Winberry, colored, issued December 24, 1874.
Duncan Shearman and George Ro-cheleau, both issued January 10, 1878.
Licenses must be returned within two months after celebration, with certificate filled according to facts, and certificates forgoing two hundred dollars to the use of any person who shall sign for the same.

Supreme Court.
Court met at 10 o'clock on yesterday.
All the Justices present.

Make Your Own Fertilizer.
With ten dollars worth of chemicals, which can be had in proper proportions for one ton of fertilizer, added to such materials as every farmer has in abundance around the farm, he can make a ton of fertilizer equal to the best high priced fertilizer on the market.
It is recommended by leading farmers such as Mr. Wm. Grimes, J. T.
Leach and others whose testimonials I have.

Chemist, Raleigh, N. C.

The Tucker House.
This hostelry has not long been opened, but has already made itself a favorite resort with the traveling public. The fare is good, the rooms favorable, while the location is very convenient. These many advantages are appreciated.
One of the best places in the city is the Higgs House, on Hargett and Salisbury streets, which is open at all hours.
There are here good food and good oysters and all the delicacies of the season. The house has attained note for its excellence of cuisine and its many merits have made it very popular.
"Cloud compiler" from over the sea, Rising like Venus fair and free; Over some poet's reverie, Leaves "the Higgs Belle" and "Little Maimies."

Particular Notice.
Business men and others in need of Book and Job Printing of any kind should remember that the NEWS Job office is the place to have it done neatly, cheaply and in the shortest notice.
Stomach & Allert has just received 2 car loads of hay, and a large lot of milk, which they will sell lower than the market.
Wm. Woodford has just received from a bankrupt stock, a lot of hats, boots, shoes and clothing, and will sell them cheap for cash. Sign and ring sprang cutlers just arrived at Woodford's.

Electric Bells.

Poetry.
Alone, I've yet to solve Which cheers me, broken heart, And in that thought a thousand hopes Come springing into birth.
How beautiful the vision seems,
To have a thousand hopes,
To drink a glass of good champagne,
And smoke a MEXICAN cigar.

You have only to try one of those delicious clear Havana, "Little Dorrin" cigarettes, or one of those "Lone Phiscian" cigarettes at Frank Grandler's clear and steady prices, and you are convinced that they are really the "most splendid thing out." They are first class really and truly.

MARK A Bure of an inflamed tear duct or passage of the eye, without an operation—Mr. Gibson, who has a large and extensive confectionery and candy store at
No. 25 Beaufort Street, near the Grand Central Depot, was about to have a silver tube inserted in the tear passage of his left eye. The inflammation, which he did not know of, was very severe. He had been treated by several oculists, but without any benefit. He had been told that he would require a surgical operation. Also that the duct was so narrow that he could not get a tube in it. He had been told that he would require a surgical operation.

MARK A Bure of an inflamed
extensive confectionery and candy store at
No. 25 Beaufort Street, near the Grand Central Depot, was about to have a silver
eye. The inflammation, which he did not
not get a tube in it. He had been told that he would require a surgical operation.
