Penny and Miss Nanny Stephenson; Mr. Charles H. Wood and Miss Emily Barnes: Mr Emmet Lyon and Miss Lenora Wood: Mr. James R. Barnes and Miss Cornelia Creech. The bridal party left this morning for Johnston county.

The Kentucky Times has the following to say of Mr. D. C. Dudley, who left this city a few weeks ago to assume charge of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, at Danville, Kv.: "Mr. D. C. Dudley, the new principal ready made a pleasant impression on those who have met him, and particularly those connected with the Institute, The Mutes are much gratified with his pleasing manners and kind salutations. The afflicted ones are now prepared to appreciate Mr. Dudley, as the Institute has virtually been without a principal since Mr. Jacobs' death. We cordially receive Mr. Dudley, and wish him every success in his new field or later.

Let us do it.

Motion or progress is a universal condition of created being. There is nothing in a state of rest, there is no standing still. The planets are in motion, and so are the suns round which they roll. We speak of the restless wind, it veereth about continually. The clouds rest not. The troubled sun-it "cannot rest." So it is with the business man, he "cannot rest."

To be successful he must work, work, work, and he must keep his business prominent. If his business must use is seen in a advertise, he unst n prominent these progressive days, make his his promises in a Advertising make business and tusiness makes erchants, and merchants build cities. Then advertise the growth and progress of your trade and the goods you keep, it will add largely to your own and the general prosperity.

The wonderful growth of our trade, the great commercial advantages of our city, its schools and other attractions should be made known. Give us the facts and let us write up your business and its history, it is the best advertisement you can get. This is progress.

Tucker dall Last night.

One of the best performances which has been presented to the people of Raleigh for a long time was that of last night at the Opera House. The acting N. C., and Druggists generally. of Mr. McWade as Rip Van Winkle was a piece of artistic excellence that is very seldom equalled. His rendition of his part displayed the rare qualities of the true artist in the surrender of Two hundred and fifty pounds of live self to character be impersonated. The quaint humor was so intimately blened and interwoven with the deepest Wholesale Grocers and Commission paths that the smiles and tears of the Merchants, audence were continually intermingled and the transitions from pathos to humor so sudden and complete they were at times absolutely painful to the audience. The recognition scene when he meets his daughter Steenie, after his sleep of twenty years, was one of the finest pieces of acting it has ever been our pleasure to witness. The play will be repeated to-night, and we trust to a large audience, which it so richly merits.

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignticant organ. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late that a fever or lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the throat and lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proved itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.
