The Busy-Bee Dime Party.

The Presbyterian ladies are just perection. When it comes to getting up an entertainment for the benefit of the durchs or any benevolent object, they in the excelled. They have won such a high reputation that all that is necessary to second the success of an enterand ment, is to say the ladies of the Presb. terian Church are getting it up: he rest is taken for granted. Last night these ladies gave another of their evening "Receptions" in the Sundayschool room. The attendance was large and was composed of the most refined society in the city. The special feature of the entertainment was the performance of the little folks of the "Busy-Bee Band," a little missionary society composed of the infant class of the Sunday school. They have received a most horough training, and performed the old folks' concert in a manner that kept the audience in a continuous roar o aughter. The grand promenade after he concert, up and down the centre of the room in an aisle formed by a susended rope on either side, was admirably conceived and carried out in an unexceptional style. The "leetle betee things dressed up in the costume of fifty years ago, with powdered hair and long dresses, were one of the cutest things you ever saw," and relected enough credit on the little ones o make them twenty years older .--They were : Robt. Starke, arm-in-arm with Fanny McPheeters, the directress;

The Raleigh Jobbing Trade.

The enterprise of the firm of L. H. Yeargan, Petty & Jones is worth remarking on. They are leading out bold in the development of the jobbing trade of this city.

A merchant from, say Guilford county can purchase a stock of dry goods. notions, boots, shoes &c., in every way desirable from this firm at p ice that compete with Baltimore or New York. He can also purchose a full supply of groceries from a dozen or more of our wholesale grocery houses and pay no more than it will cost in the northern markets. The saving he will make in freight, railroad fare, hotel bills and loss of time from busines will amount to quite an item and had, better be in his, than any other mans pocket. It is gratifying to be able to note the anmistakable progress this city is making as a wholesale market. The energy of such houses as A. Creech, and the firm above named is telling in the rapid development of the dry good trace ard H. W. Jersey, and that the prohibition is a precaution necessary to be taken. The stampede for Leadville has so leared the Black Hills of roughs and placklegs that the people who remain there, and have money, no longer think it necessary to sleep with a Gatling gun for a pillow and with a revo'ver in each hand. Business of all kinds is reported as being prosperous in the Hills, and the yield of precions metals very encourging.

The Massachusetts women are now allowed to vote for member of the school Committee under the same restrictions which would apply to men. The effect of this partial enfranchisement of the sex will be watched with interest. That it will make many converts to the woman suffrage cause is not certain, but the moral effect of having women at the polls will be just as great as if they could vote the whole ticket.

The Pope has created five new cardinals, among them the famous Dr. Newman, the great English divine and controversialist. It is announced also that he will in a short time create several more cardinals, and that among them will be at least one representative from the United States.
