DYNAMITE.

A CITY SHAKEN AS IF BY AN EARTHQUAKE.

A (ar Laden With Dynamite--- A Fearful Wreck Scattered Around--The Particulars.

STRATFORD, Out., May 5. This morning the whole town was shaken as if by the shock of an earthquake. Windows were blown in, and even the sidewalk upon which the people were walking was shaken so as to cause pelestrians to fall. The cause was soon made appareut. A car laden with dynamite had exploded at thewirs of Trunk freight yard. The wreck male by the explosion beggars description. Underneath the dynamite car a hole several feet deep had been scooped out. The end of the brick freight shed and a portion of its roof were blown down. Several frame buildings were leveled to the ground and long lines of freight cars lying in the vard were utterly wrecked-The business part of the town is nearly a mile from the scene of the explosion. but it shared in the disaster. Valuable plate glass windows were blown in, frames and all. The damage done to property is estimated at many thousand dollars. Two railway employes were working in the yard, Frank Lemaine, of Montreal, and Thomas Dolan. of Stratford, were blown into fragments, the foot of one of them being found 200 yards off. Others were injured but the whole extent of the disaster cannot be known for some time yet. The damage done by the explosion is much greater than was expected. The houses around the freight shed were nearly all wooden buildings, and several were blown into minute fragments; some fifty cars were blown up into splinters, and as many more were damaged. Mr. Fiynn, the checker, is among the badiy mjured. A fragment of iron weighing over a pound was driven through the window of the Crown Hotel, haif a mile distant. The shock was feit in all the surrounding towns, and it was supposed to be an earthquake. The car upon which the explosion oc-

There are twenty-eight ministers and forty-six churches in the Presbytery, extending from the Pee Dee river to the Tennessee line. The Lincolnton church was represented by the minister in charge, Rev. R. Z. Johnston, and elder Col. W H Michal. The church will report sixty-five members present who are absent or never present at any service during the past vear.

Richmond.

Pee Dee Bee,

We stepped in last Sabbath morning to take a view of the Presbyterian Sunday school and, notwithstanding surroundings, there were, including a few visitors, twenty-seven present, in charge of the Rev. T. J. Allison and his teachers.

The Baptist protracted meeting held here for two weeks by the Rev. F. M. Jordan, came to a close last Sunday night. During the meeting a church, congregation, was organized with about twenty members, in addition to which there were fifteen converts rereived and baptized. On Sunday evening, at the place of the impressive administration of bapilsm, there were present, we suppose, some four to five hundred persons. The preaching was plain, practical and forcible, and attended by some magnetism that drew large attendance and patient hearing.

Curlis---Poindexter. Richmond Dispatch.

The grave of young Curtis is at Shockoe Hill Cemetery in the section of the late John Adams Smith, who was for many years cashier of the old Farmers Bank of Virginia. It is on the left side of the avenue branching out to the left as you enter from Third street, and within twenty-five or thirty paces of the cemetery wall facing the almshouse. Near by are the sections of Edmund Wall and John Minor Botts. The grave of young Curtis has been nicely turfed, and is nearly always covered with flowers and evergreens. A contract has been awarded for a monument of granite. It is to have a four foot base and a shaft rising tifteen feet.
