The amount of stock in the bazaar of justice yesterday morning was rather slim, none having arrived Sun-

Sally Vandergriff hadn't taken any water in her'n, and the consequences were lamentable. Her head wagged and her knees trembled; she had raging fever. That was what ailed her, so the Mayor sent her to the "cooler," to stay there twelve hours, or till the thermometer indicated a return of her system to its normal state. " Drunk and disorderly," said Officer Thompson, as he introduced the Hon. Nelson Farrow," and Nelson couldn't explain away the charge. So he remains the guest of the city until this evening, and in the meantime finishes up a contract for cleaning the guardhouse. So much for testing "heavy juice.

Elizabeth City as a Fish Market.

Elizabeth City Economist

The town of Elizabeth City possesses great natural facilities for becoming one of the great fish markets of this country. The influx of fish from the Atlantic Ocean into Albemarle Sound but a few miles below is immense. For years past numbers have been taken, but very few have been shipped to northern markets because the fishermen had no speedier means of obtainng market quotations than by mail, and by the time a letter could have reached them from New York prices would probably have fluctuated a dozen or more times. Thus our home market was flooded and the remuneration obone month tained by the fishermen was inadequate to justify a more extensive engagement Heller Bros.' Shoe Store.

Dyspeptics find it just the remedy for their troubles. Mothers and daughters have long since discovered in its use a "panacea" for their worst ills; and now we have the testimonies of two eminent ministers of the gospel, from Southern cities, setting forth its specific effects in other more dreaded and troublesome diseases.

Rev. John F. Mayne, Theological Seminary, Columbia, S. C., writes: 'Am afflicted with that terrible disease, Diabetes;' am using the 'Seven Springs' Mass' with a considerable degree of reief; is the only remedy I have yet found to suit my case ; want to continue its use until a cure is effected if posside. Dr. R. H. Lewis, President of Kinston Collegiate Institute, says: "I have given "Moore's School History of North Carolina" a careful reading from beginning to end. The book was so attractive that, for several nights, 1 have been kept up to the small hours of the night reading its pages. There is a charm and freshness about it that I can not precisely understand. It is the only school book of State history that I know of, worthy of the name. It meets all the requirements of a book of its kind. The author has worked up the facts in his own pleasant and smooth style- not copied from the prim records. The teachers, school children, and the North Carolina public generally owe a debt of gratitude to my college mate, the author, which, I, for one, will pay to the best of my ability, by recommending it to all, and by placing it at once in the list of text books used in Winston Classical Institute." Published by Alfred Williams & Co., Raleigh.

Among the most noticeable and characteristic features of city life may be mentioned that of the hotel. Nothing so much conduces to the enjoyment of the visitor. The "St. Nicholas" hotel, in New York, is a notable example of this. For the last quarter of a century this splendid establishment has stood foremost, and unites all the traditions of old-time hospitality with a foremost place in the improved requirements of the age. The guest finds here the level of the most exacting demands, superb. cuisine, and the perfection of accommudations.
