A man cannot be a hopeless case so long as he loves tubies one at a time. We love babies all over, no matter how dirty they are. Batties were born to be dirty We love babies because they are babies, and because their mothers were lovable and lovely women. Our love o bulges is only bounded by the number of babies in the world. We always look for bubies, we do with anxiety and paternal affection; we do, indeed We always have sorrowful feelings for mothers that have no babies at I don't expect any. Women always look very downhearted who have no habies; and men who have no babies almays gamble and drink winsky and stay out at nights trying to get music in their souls; but they can't come it. Booles are babies and nothing can take their place. Pianos play out, and good Lying plays out un ess there is a baby in the house. We've tried, we know, at I we say there's nothing like a baby Ballies are a productive substance, and we intend to talk more about babies in the future. We intend to tell all our thends if they want to be happy in this world they must have a baby in the bouse one of their own is preferable. liables stimulate exertion; they make a young man scratch gravel; and in this view of the case they are all the while laying golden eggs. A man is hardly ever worth three red cents until he gets a wife and a baby. They push him to it. While he's making enough for their support, he is sure to have something over.
