-Mr. Root the Tax Assessor remarked to the man that asked for an item, "We have been here three days and have taken 550 lists. It will take 2,800 to complete the work and then we have only begun. It is a three months' job. 'And so say we all.

A Case in Bankruptcy.

Mr. F. of this county went into bankruptey. He filed a schedule of his effects and included the property of his brother and several of his neighbors. Give as Something Fresh. "They say something that have no

It was rumored that a man by the name of Littlefield had telegraph ed the Governor that he would come to this State if a reasonable bail could be established. As the public haven't heard anything about this matter before, we would be really grateful if some kind friend would give us a couple of columns setting forth the unvarnished

A Live Firm.

By referring to our advertising columns our readers can form some estimate of the magnitude of the business done by Messrs. Stronach & Allcott, of this city. At their place of business, corner of Wilmington and Davie sts. can be found about everything in the line of farming machinery that can be desired, such as ginning and saw-mill engines, threshing and mowing machines, etc., mostly of the noted manufacture of C. Aultman & Co., of Canton. O., whose reputation for farming machinery and implements extends far beyond the section of country wherein they are located. In addition to their stock of machinery they keep on hand a large quantity of brick, late, hav, etc.

The firm, although of comparatively recent establishment, has been quite successful in its business, covering ground that many older firms have failed to do, and the secret is that they keep none but the best quality of implements and stock in their line, and sell cheaply for cash.

One Man That Knows.

Sir Timotheus Finnigan Lee knew Littlefield. He wishes to say: "I used to know Gineral Littlefield, and he was just as generous-hearted a gintleman as ever lived. He just exactly would shpend his money freer than any man I ever met. He could bate Tim Lee shiending it. I wish some more of that very same kind would only come down just now and turn loose some Yankee money without costing the peoples of Nort Carolina a single pinny. It's a very fortunate thing that the Mrs. Moon was not here in the palmy days of the ring; she might have reformed the railroad ring and stopped them from negotiating such worthless paper through the Northern bankers and brokers and the moneyed illment of the North. Littlefield paid money as well as order checks. Do you think a man would give a check for every drink he gave those fellows in those days? But I ain't goin to get into any discussion about Littlefield, No, sir! Not

The best definition of a perfect hotel is an establishment which unites the luxury of a palace with the comforts of a home. Long effort would fail to give a more concise and fitting description of the "St. Nicholas" of New York, for a quarter of a century known in Europe and America as pre-eminent among its rivals. Never has it stood so high as under the management of the present proprietor, in point of cuisine, perfection of fittings and conveniences, and devoted attention to the tastes of guests.

Woman's Wisdom.

"She insists that is more important that her family shall be kept in full health, than that she should have all the fashionable dresses and styles of the times. She therefore sees to it, that each member of her family is supplied with enough Hop Bitters, at the first appearance of any symptoms of ill health, to prevent a fit of sickness with its attendant expense, care and auxiety. All women should exercise their wisdom in this way."-Ed.

The old patron Dutch Saint, whose name is honored from the extreme Orient to the Ultima Thule, never had a more striking illustration than in the honor of giving name to the "St. Nicholas" hotel of New York, an establishment associated in the minds of tens of thousands with the most profuse and elegant hospitality. Still in the van, this hotel unites all the best features of the present with the charming traditions of the past. The reduction of prices in connection with the excellence of accommodations makes it the cheapest hotel in the country,

Sparkling Catawba Springs,

CATAWBA CO., N. C. This desirable watering place will be open for select visitors 20th May, 1879. The Springs are situated near Hickory Station, on the Western North Carolina Railroad. The bracing mountain atmosphere, with the health restoring properties of their waters, renders these Springs a most desirable resort for invalids and pleasure seekers. The mineral waters embrace Blue and White Sulphur and Chalybeate. It is the best and most extensively fitted up watering place in the State, and can accommodate three hundred persons.

A good Band of Music will remain at the Springs during the season, and all the facili-ties afforded for amusements usually found at first-class watering places will be offered to visitors. A good supply of ice constantly on hand. Conveyances will meet the trains daily at Hickory Station, to convey visitors to the Springs.

BOARD—$2 per day; $30 per month. Reduced rates for families. Invalids can have the advantage of four different mineral baths. Turkish, hotwaters, warm and cold baths, Turkish, hotair, vapor and medicated baths if desired. DR. E. O. ELLIOTT, june 5-dtf- Owner and Proprietor.
