Was it Infanticide?

On yesterday afternoon about four o'clock Coroner Richardson received information that the body of a dead infant had been found in a vacant lot in the rear of the residence of Jordan Womble, Esq., who lives on East Hargett street. The Coroner at once proceeded to the place and had the body removed to a house near by and at once summoned ajury of inquest. After a view of the body, it was determined to adjourn until nine o'clock when a post mortem examination will be made by the Superintendent of Health, Dr. James McKee, and witnesses examined.

The Treasurer called a meeting of the Board of State Officers yesterday and an examination of the registration of the old bonds was entered into as provided by law. It was ascertained that $6(0) -000 worth had been received up to date, not including a batch of $100,000 that came in yesterday. The books were found correct, not a single error had been committed. After the committee signified its approval of the work, the committee resolved itsef a band of bond burners and at once proceeded to and did actually burn up $600,000 worth of North Carolina bonds and it is not exaggerating to say that the much bonored Treasurer beat the party two to one, all having a fair start.

Between the old-fashioned inn of one hundred years ago-full of homely comfort as it was-and the gorgoous modern hetel there is a world of difference. Of the latter, no better example can be found than in that noble New York establishment, the "St. Nucholas," which successfully aims to couple the elegancies of the palace with the snug enjoyments of the home. Nowhere can the business visitor or the tourist find more admirable accomdations. It is specially recommended to business men on account of location and reasonable charges.

BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879. The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDILL, Esq., Lynchburg, Va.-Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," of the Seven Springs, in Washington county, Va., in relation to its efficacy for Liver Diseases, would you have the kindness to inform me whether you used the Mass" or the "Water;" also, a description of the symptoms and such other information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long-time sufferer with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even tem porary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully WILLIAM BARR.

Lyncheuro, Va., May 12, 1879. - WM. Barr, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi-Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Liver case" which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me, The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her 80th year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver Disease for 30 years, sometimes almost dying with pains in the back, breast, and heaviness of the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Mass" for her, and very soon after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, so old, seemingly in as good health as a person who had never been | ease by keeping the blood pure, stom, afflicted with these diseases. She at- ach regular, kidneys and liver active tributes her cure entirely to the efficacy | is the greatest blessing ever conferred of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended.
