It seems almost useless to review the points of the President in his last veto -that of the Judicial Appropriations Bill-as in fact he has only repeated the objections made in his former vetoes of like bills; but the fact remains patent that the President means to have his own way, as far as he is able, or in other words he will coarce Congress if posmible to meet, not his own personal views, but those of the Stalwart section of the Republican party. Whether or no the mode pursued by the President in the treatment of this subject will prove beneficial to the schemes of the demagogues now in control of that party is a mooted question among the men of ability enrolled in its ranks who do not aim at fat offices or political honors.

The issue now is a matter of principle arrayed against the schemes of self aggrandizement put forth by Messrs. Conkling, Blaine, Sherman, Chandler Garfield under the flimsy veil of liberty in all its moods and tenses, and the "perpetuation of the Republican party, "by which organization, according to "this announcement, only can liberty be "preserved." It is a matter of political life and death with these gentlemen that the party should be preserved, for once disorganized their present record would not permit of their being allowed advanced positions in any political party that could be formed on any of the issues of the day. Consequently their hope lies in being able to gain the victory in the next Presidential campaign, and their only weapon-a potent one it must be confessed is sectional

To aid in this work one of the most remarkable plans ever devised has been put in operation, viz.: to coerce Congress into granting funds to a large amount to pay political hangers-on, with the veto power suspended over each appropriation bill as a threat to starve the Government to death if these wasteful appropriations were not grant-

So far as the army bill was concerned no one thought the stationing of a handful of troops in the vicinity of polling places throughout the country generally when elections were being held was a very serious matter, beyond establishing a dangerous precedent. But the troops were not distributed in a general manner-they were only sent to sections where, although not needed any more than in the quiet country village in Massachusetts or New York, a reputation for lawlessness was established by false reports created and circulated by the managers of political journals of wide reputation and circula-

"These troops are needed to preserve "the freedom of the ballot-box," chanted the Republican managers in unison; "and if you don't appropriate "the necessary funds you starve the "Government to death!"

Then up steps the little joker of a statute relative to the appointment of supervisors and deputy marshals for election purposes granting them almost autocratic power. Congress, not being able at present to abolish this most unwise provision, refuses to grant an appropriation for their support, but makes ample allowance for the tupport of the Government otherwise. To his the President takes exceptions, and in a partisan political essay tells Congress what it must and what it must not do, and vetoes the

"These officers are needed to pre-"serve the purity of the ballot-bo sing the Stalwart worthies; "and if you "don't appropriate the necessary funds "you starve the Government to death!"

We beg leave to state that the "starying is being done by the managers of the President. Congress is willing to provide for the support of the Government, but is not in favor of layishing the people's money on a parcel of servile knaves who are endeavoring to subvert the Government while subsisting on it. The Democratic policy is able to stand before the whole country on the "starving" question. The people will look at the question whether or no they are to pay high duties on tea, coffee, and other things now commonly classed as necessaries in order to help support a lot of political "dead-beats" who subsist on the public that the Republican managers may be assisted in electing their ticket at the ensuing elec-

Bap news from the growing crop now begins to come in. Texas sends us the first groan on account of a blasting drouth-so wide spread and general that the cattle are said to be dying on the plains for lack of grass and water. There is the first alarm to-day which looks at all worthy of attention from caterpillar in southeastern Georgia. But it is getting near the time for the general chapter of accidents and mishaps to open. It is rare that they are not numerous even if the season winds up with a heavy crop. We will not back our opinion to any extent, but this year we feel like prognosticating a moderate crop and flighty and eccentric market next fall and winter.

THE people of this country, says the San Francisco Gazette, are surprised to learn that the fair so extensively advertised to be opened in the City of Mexico. next January is likely to be abandoned. The fact is, the European traders in Mexico, with whose trade it would interfere to let the people of that country know the superiority of our goods, are determined it shall not take place, and they rule Mexico, and have for many years; and besides they cheat the Government out of half the duties by false invoices and bribery of custom-house officials.

PRINCE JEBONE BONAPARTE ADnounces that he will remain faithful to his Ajaccio programme, in which he announced his Republican principles, and that he is not a pretender to the Imperial succession. He says that while his claims lie dormant they are a bar to the succession of any other pretender. The late Prince's testament relieves "Plon-Plon" of all care in this line, as he nominates Prince Victor Louis, eldest son of Prince Jerome, as his successor, and the Bonapartists will undoubtedly accede to the terms of the

THE Salt Lake Herald states that the herd of camels imported into Arizona three years ago, and which because of apparent failure to acclimatize them the owners were obliged to turn loose, have bred liberally, have become acclimated and domesticated to the region, and thrive as though they had been in their native Asia. It is expected that the offspring of the imported herd will become accustomed to the alkaline waters peculiar to that region, and that they can be used to carry the mineral products of that country to a market. The former owners, believing that there is money in their camels, are now getting the rejected beasts together, and ntend to devote some care to the breeding and realing of them.

THE New York World makes the following pertinent suggestion: "Is there not something serious in "the air when a great party demands "that our army be looked upon as the 'palladium of our liberties; when that party calls upon the Secretary of the 'Treasury to use the Treasury patron-"age to make himself a candidate for "the Presidency, and keeps an eye on "the brother of the Secretary of the Treasury, who is General command-"ing the armies of the Republic?"

tiov. Robinson, of New York, has vetoed the tramp bill, on the ground that its definitions were too general and that it endowed the police with powers of a questionable nature in making arrests. He signed the bill reducing the rate of interest from 7 to 6

The sentiments expressed by soldiers at the several recent army reunions indicate that the veterans of the late war do not believe in continuing the sectional strife. The Southern soldiers are the most progressive men of their section. The men on both sides, who are making up the worst faces at each other, are the politicians who never smelt powder. Boston Herald.

The Old Republican Doctrine. Springfield Republican

The Federal army is not a police force, and ought not to be habitually used to enforce any law, much less election laws. This is the old doctrine of the Republican party. The vote of a single small State may be, as it has been, the pivot of a Presidential election. The Federal army, small as it is, is large enough to affect the result in florida, for instance, and the work once done cannot be undone. It is the part of wisdom to put temptations of the sort out of the reach of political managers. Neither party has shown itself above yielding to them.

The One Great End. Indiana True Democrat. Democrats may just as well make up their minds first as well as last that there can be no permanent, healthy peace in the country until the Radical party is thoroughly whipped and routed at the polls; and in ordes to do this we must have a thorough organization of the party before the close of this year. Let the great battle of 1880 commence

It is at least gratifying to the triends of Mr. Tilden that the press of Georgia are almost unanimous in their choice for that gentleman's renomination for the presidency. It is a 'string of points' in his favor, to begin with, that cannot be beaten by any other candidate in this State.

Repairing Promptly and Carefully Done. Talbott's Patent Spark Arrester,

A SPECIALTY.

THE INVENTION OF THE AGE. Talbott's new Patent Spark Arrester is really the only perfect and reliable one, and is superseding all others in use. The great efficiency of this Arrester is attracting universal attention, and is being endorsed by the best mechanical engineers and insurance companies.

Its prominent features are: It does not destroy the draft. It does not interfere with cleaning the tubes.

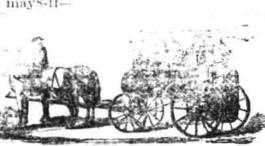

It will not choke up, and requires no cleaning. It requires no direct dampers to be opened when raising steam (dampers being objectionable, as they may be left open and allow sparks to escape.) It requires no water to extinguish sparks, which, by condensation, destroys the draft. Desides, when water is used, if neglected, the efficiency is destroyed by evaporation of the water, and the boiler is kept in a filthy condition.

It is simple and durable, and can be relied upon.

It can be attached to any boiler. No planter should be without one of them. Insurance companies will insure gins and barns where the Talbott Engines and Spark Arresters are used at same rate as charged for water or horse-power.
