New ORLEANS, April 21.—The Commission will depart to day. Gen. McMillian was the only accession to the Nicholls Legislature yesterday. It is expected others will follow to-day. Packard's adherents apprehend a rapid dissolution of the St. Louis Hotel organizations, both slative and military.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Gen. Sherman account of the shortness of time, teleraphed the order direct to Gen. Augur. He has, however, also sent it to Sheridan. It is understood that the verbiage of Mc-Crary's order to Sherman clears the obscurity of the President's order and that the word "vicinity" covers all the points

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Tribune's New Orleans dispatch dated yesterday says: 'Gov. Packard's caucus this morning had only forty members. A paper was ex-hibited, prepared for the signatures of the Supervisors of Election of the parish of Orleans, certifying that they had fraudu-lently given the vote of the parish to Hayes and that it belonged to Tilden by a considerable majority. It was said in caucus that this document, when signed, will be sent to Tilden for use in quo war-The correspondent says: "Ignorant colored men and a few desperate and disreputable white men believe they can take revenge by a method of this kind."

by a method of this kind."

New Original Property of the State of the Demarais, and Gault, of St. Landry, Cole, of St. John, Simmes and Dickinson, of St. James, and Suser, of Iberia, were sworn in, making 78 returning board members in the House. Several returning board members, who were not elected by the election commission returns, have resigned their claims. Some of the Republicans who went over say they hold the balance of power in the matter of electing a United States Senator.

Washington, April 21.—The Attorney General has accepted Senator Gordon's construction of the law to pay the State of Georgia for overcharges on the Western Atlantic Railroad, (State property) and has requested Quarter Master General Meigs to commute the amount due the State on this construction. The amount is something over $200,000. This account has yet to pass through the hands of the Attorney General, and will accompany his report to the Secretary of War, which will doubtless govern the Secretary and secure the payment of the money to the State.

Boss Tweed Declines to Testify.

NEW YORK, April 21 .- The State Senate committee on the alleged confession of Tweed met here to day and proceeded to Ludlow street jall to see the ex-Boss. Ludlow street jail to see the ex-Boss.

Tweed's counsel read a long paper to the Senate committee narrating why he advised Tweed not to testify at this time.

Mr. Tweed then handed in a paper declining to testify on the ground of public policy and that he might criminate himself. He said, however, that he disavowed all responsibility for the article in the World.

Catholic Pilgrims Sailed.

New York, April 21.—The Irish Catholic Pilgrims attended Mass in in St. Patrick's Cathedral this morning, which was celebrated by Cardinal McCloskey and assistant priests. The Pilgrims all occupied seats within the sanctuary, and the church was filled with Catholic organizations. The Cardinal bestowed a blessing on the voyagers and bade them "God-speed."
