Lord Salisbury's Speech.

LONDON, Aug. 7.-At a Conservative lemonstration at Hatfield yesterday, Lord Salisbury in a speech made the following reference to the government's foreign policy: "We earnestly deprecated this war. We are the allies and friends of forty-seven of their number. It is conboth contending parties. We desire our fidently believed that most of the strikers neutrality not only to be neutrality of act but of speech. But I will ask you to believe that while we are thoroughly convinced that the patriotism of Englishmen if we need to appeal to it is equal to any NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The excise law is still being enforced, and arrests of liquor mergency, and will shrink before no sacfifice which the interests or honor of the dealers are constantly taking place. Lord Sandon also spoke. He said that he trusted when the moment of settlement comes we shall all bear in mind that it is the greatest interest of England that every country in the world should be prosperous, and that if any country runs the risk of being hu-miliated, we should try to prevent the humiliation whether it should be the assailant or the assailed, and "I hope also he said) that we shall avoid the fault which, in my opinion, has been the great fault of European powers in the past, of interfering on behalf only of our co-religionists, instead of asking the Turk to seare good government to all the people of his vast Empire, whether they be Druses, Yezidee, Mahommedans or Christians."

Judge West's Bid.

Washington, August 7.—Judge West's oids for the Commune of Ohio is as follows: I am no railroad officer, and never was and never will be. I hold no railroad bonds or railroad stocks that my interests should be different from those of any other man, and never did. I hold no untaxed government bonds and I never did and never expect to. I hold no bank stock and never did and never expect to, and financially I suspect that I am about as impartial between capital and labor as one without finances possibly can be."
